

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2795

The deep sea was boiling.

“Run! A terrifying human has come. He’s so brutal. If we’re caught, we’ll be refined alive!”

“Many eighth tribulation cultivators have already been captured by him and refined!”

A shocking piece of news was spreading in the underwater Beast World, causing a huge commotion.

For a time, all the giant beasts were extremely terrified.

This was a great beast of the human race!

If he was caught, he would be finished!

In the deepest part of the ocean, in a Dragon’s Nest, an old dragon who was napping suddenly woke up and jumped up with a panicked and terrified expression.

He had just received the news that a great murderer of the human race had come and was killing wantonly. Many of his fellow eighth tribulation cultivators had already been killed.

“F * ck! The nine tribulations are too terrifying!”

He couldn’t help but shiver, becoming more and more frightened.

“Let’s go, let’s go!”

He didn’t dare to stay any longer. He rolled up his blanket and ran out.

“Eh? That guy looks so familiar!”

After running for a while, he caught a glimpse of a figure running not far away. However, that figure was very small, and the aura that it exuded was only at the fifth or sixth tribulation. At first glance, it looked like an extremely weak and harmless little shark.

However, he was so familiar with that appearance that he would recognize it even if it had turned into ashes.

Wasn’t this the one-eyed old shark from the shark clan, the tyrant of the ocean that he had fought with before?

F * ck!

This old shark was obviously a peak eighth tribulation expert, but now he was acting like a chicken. He was too shameless!

“Hey! Old shark!”

He couldn't help but roar.

The small shark was shocked and almost jumped up.

He looked over and was stunned for a moment. Then, he turned his head and continued to run. He ran even faster and muttered, “I don't know you, you idiot!”

“You're the idiot!”

The old flood Dragon was furious and roared.

He also sped up and ran forward with all his might.

“Don't ... Don't come over! Don't follow me!”

The little shark ran for a while, and when it saw the old flood Dragon following behind it, it became anxious and roared madly.

“So what if they're following us? let's run together!”

The old flood Dragon was puzzled and continued to follow.

“You ... You idiot, get lost! Don't follow me!”

The small shark widened its single eye and looked at the old dragon behind it with a frightened expression.

In order to survive, he had turned into this harmless appearance, but this idiot old flood Dragon insisted on following him. In this deep sea, his huge body and powerful aura of the eighth tribulation were simply a huge light bulb, which was extremely bright!

The great beast of the human race could be seen with a single glance.

This was simply an idiot!

If it wasn't for this guy's powerful bloodline, it would be a miracle that he could live until now!

The old flood Dragon was even more depressed.

“Eh? Isn't that fellow Daoist crab? How come you're like this too?”

After running for a while, he found a figure running in the distance. It was a small crab whose aura was only at the 1st or 2nd tribulation. It was pitifully weak, but he could see clearly that it was his original fellow Daoist crab, a powerful 8th tribulation beast.

“F * ck! Don't come over! Don't you want to harm me!”

The old crab was scared out of his wits when he saw the old dragon flying over.

F*ck! This stupid flood Dragon, if you want to die, then die on your own, don't drag me down with you!

He roared in his heart and ran even faster.

"Oh! I understand now. That great calamity is a nine tribulations beast. It only has eyes for our flesh and blood of the eight tribulations. That's why you changed your aura and wanted to hide."

The old flood Dragon looked around and finally came to a realization.

When the shark and old crab heard this, they almost cursed.

What kind of pig brain did he have? he only reacted now.

"Cough, cough! I'm so sorry!"

The old flood Dragon smiled in embarrassment. He immediately shrank his body and turned into a small sea snake of the first and second tribulations. Then, he ran with them.

"It's really strange. That great beast is a ninth tribulation. It's been here for quite a while and killed so many of our fellow cultivators. Logically speaking, shouldn't that senior make a move?"

After running for a while, the old flood Dragon turned around and asked in puzzlement.

The shark and old crab were also a little confused.

It's been so long, and there's been such a huge commotion. It's impossible that the senior doesn't know!

Even if that senior had just gone to sleep, he should have received the news and woken up to make a move.

That senior was The Guardian of the cloud sea's Beast World. Under his protection, the ferocious beasts here were spared from the nine tribulations of the human race.

"I'm not sure. This situation is a bit strange. I heard that a few days ago in the North, a similar situation occurred. Many eighth tribulation tribulation comrades disappeared. They were suspected to have been slaughtered. It might be this great evil!"

The old crab said in a serious tone.

"What? It was there a few days ago, so why hasn't senior made a move yet?" The old flood Dragon was shocked.

"This ... Something's wrong! Quickly run! I'm afraid we can only rely on ourselves now!"

The old shark seemed to have thought of something. His body trembled, and his expression became extremely frightened.

Since there had been a massacre in the North a few days ago, this great fiend of the human race must have killed his way here from the North. However, there was still no sign of that senior, which explained a terrifying fact.

It wasn't that the senior didn't know, but he didn't dare to make a move!

The strength of this great evil of the human race was even more terrifying than they had imagined. He was a terrifying existence that even their Guardian gods did not dare to show their faces!

"Mother! What kind of monster is this!"

The old crab also thought of it, and his whole body trembled violently.

He had lived for thousands of years, but he had never seen such a situation. In the past, there had been nine tribulations of the human race who had entered, but after killing a few eight tribulations, they were all driven away by that senior.

But now, this person was so powerful that even senior didn't dare to show his face.

It's finished! It's finished!

They wailed in their hearts and became more and more frightened.

They ran forward with all their might.

However, not long after, a voice suddenly came from behind. "Little Sharkhead, little crab, don't run!"

"Small? Little mother!"

The little shark was furious.

He could become smaller, but he could not tolerate others calling him small.

He was about to turn around and curse to see which bastard it was.

However, when he turned around, his single eye was so wide that it almost popped out.

Not far away, a divine light was sweeping over, and a person could be vaguely seen. He was dressed in white, and a dark golden furnace floated behind him. No one knew what fire was burning inside, but his aura was extremely terrifying.

Oh my God!

He cried out in his heart. In an instant, his scalp was about to explode!

Wasn't this the terrifying great calamity of the human race?!

"Hurry up! Quickly run!"

He shrieked and burned his blood essence madly, turning into a beam of divine light and escaping.

"You want to run?"

With an angry groan, the white-robed figure flashed like a ghost and caught up with the divine light. He grabbed the divine furnace behind him and smashed it.

Bang!

The divine light dispersed, and the shark's figure immediately appeared. It was smashed away by the furnace, spitting out blood.
