

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2797

Underwater Cemetery.

Tang Hao sat cross-legged, and a silver ring floated in front of him.

He used his divine sense to explore it and was drawing talismans.

He quickly carved out golden and mysterious runes. In the blink of an eye, he had carved hundreds of thousands of runes to form a complicated rune array inside the ring.

About ten minutes later, he was done.

He stretched out his hand and grabbed the ring, injecting a trace of immortal essence into it.

In an instant, the ring lit up and emitted a dense silver light.

A ninth tribulation dimensional ring had been formed!

“Not bad!”

He sent his divine sense in and was satisfied.

The space within the ring was almost as big as the immortal execution king ring.

After all, it was made in a hurry, and he was already very satisfied with this effect.

Such a large ring was enough for him to use for the time being. When the immortal ring was successfully refined, he could replace this ring.

“Let’s just call it the clear sky ring! It’s also simpler!”

He muttered after a moment of silence.

Then, he stood up, opened his ring, and put the entire mine into it.

“Take these too, they can be sold for a lot of money!”

He looked at the corpses in the cemetery, and with a wave of his sleeve, he collected all of them into his clear sky ring.

“Let’s go!”

After putting on the ring, he turned around and walked out of the crack.

He swept all the way to the South, searching for traces of an eight tribulation beast.

His existence seemed to have spread throughout the beast Realm in the sea. These eight tribulation fierce beasts had all hidden themselves, making it difficult to find them. However, they could not hide from his divine eyes. He caught them one by one and refined them all.

Soon, another ten or so eighth tribulation Transcenders turned into divine liquid and entered his stomach.

He also plundered the seabed along the way. The relics piled up in various nests, the spiritual herbs at the bottom of the sea, ores, and even the entire mine vein, as long as it was a treasure, he took it all.

A day later, he came out of the sea.

In two days, all the eight tribulation fierce beasts in this area had been swept clean by him. He was going to go to the nearest trading Island and Exchange all the useless treasures on him for crystals.

“The closest one is ... Crayfish Island!”

He took out the sea Map and looked at it. He found the nearest trading Island, identified its location, and then flew over.

“What?”

After travelling for a distance, his expression suddenly changed. He sensed that not far ahead, the void was suddenly rippling. A passage was torn open, and there was a sound coming from the other end.

Before the people on the other side could travel over, ripples appeared in the void not far away.

Then, there was another void.

In the blink of an eye, ripples appeared in the void in front of him.

“The people who want to snatch the treasure are here!”

Tang Hao glanced at it and raised an eyebrow. He suddenly understood.

With one look, he could tell that this formation was aimed at him. It was for that so-called aotian treasure!

He stopped and waited with his hands behind his back.

Soon, the ripples in the void expanded, and large warships emerged from the ripples. Four of them were the largest, tens of thousands of feet long, and their auras were extraordinary.

A white bone ship was covered in ghostly Qi.

A pitch-black ship exuded a demonic aura.

There was also a shimmering golden ship with Dragon roars and ethereal clouds. It was full of immortal Qi.

The Last Ship had the familiar nine-headed Sea Dragon flag.

Without a doubt, these were the four major forces of the cloud Sea.

Behind the four large warships, there were many smaller warships. They were obviously from the other forces in the cloud Sea.

“That’s right! It’s him!”

As soon as these large ships descended, many gazes swept over them, followed by a few shouts.

“Look, he’s standing there motionless. I’m afraid he’s stunned!”

“Hahaha! I’m afraid he’ll never know how we managed to track him down!”

More gazes peeked out from the ships, followed by bursts of laughter.

“I didn’t expect that this guy didn’t run away and was still in the sea. I thought he had already reached the seaside! This guy is quite bold!”

On the white bone warship, GUI Luosha glanced ahead and snorted.

“Perhaps he thinks that the most dangerous place is the safest place. He’s schemed thousands of times, but I’m afraid he didn’t expect that we’d be able to track him down with a Sea Map he’d accidentally kept.”

On the Golden warship, the white-bearded and white-haired immortal haocheng stroked his long beard and said with a proud smile.

“This person ... Is indeed unfamiliar. Have any of you seen him before?”

On the demon race’s warship, the burly whale Emperor turned around and said to the demons behind him.

“I’ve never seen him before!”

“I’ve seen most of the venerable sovereigns in the cloud Sea. There’s no one like him in the major forces or the wandering cultivators. I think it’s just as we expected. He’s from the outside.”

All the Yao shook their heads and discussed.

“This person’s temperament ... Is really extraordinary. I’m afraid he really has some background. He’s an elder of a big force in the cloud continent or the Thunder continent!” On the sea Dragon warship, the beautiful figure standing at the bow of the ship glanced over and said softly.

“Hmph! Even if he’s from the Gu God sect or the great sun Palace, we don’t have to be afraid. If he wants to leave the cloud Sea alive, he has to hand over the treasure. Otherwise, only death awaits him!”

GUI Luosha said in a deep voice, his tone ruthless.

“That’s right. No matter who he is, he has to hand over the treasure obediently today!” The whale Emperor laughed and said.

“Al! The one in front, what’s your name? Where did it come from? Tell me your name first!”

The whale Emperor rushed forward and shouted.

“No sect, no sect, just a rogue cultivator! As for his name, there’s no need to mention it!” Tang Hao put his hands behind his back. He looked at them and smiled.

“Yo! You’re pretty calm. You can’t possibly think that you can escape from so many of us, right?”

The whale Emperor was stunned.

The white-robed man in front of him was too calm, too calm, and somewhat unusual.

He’s just a wandering cultivator, a mere great emperor. What’s there to worry about? he’s probably just confident in his divine abilities and isn’t afraid of being hunted down. That’s why he’s so calm and doesn’t put us in his eyes!

This guy had miscalculated. They weren’t ordinary great emperors, but true spirit cultivators. They could easily kill an ordinary great emperor, not to mention that they had ten of them.

No matter what escape techniques this fellow had, he would not be able to escape from their grasp.

Thinking about it this way, he was relieved.

Tang Hao smiled but did not reply.

“He’s just a wandering cultivator, why are you wasting your breath on him! Hey! Hurry up and hand it over. Otherwise, don’t even think about leaving this place alive!” GUI Luosha snorted in anger and shouted in a rude manner.

“You guys want this thing, right?”

Tang Hao raised his hand, and a golden Broken Sword appeared, floating in his palm.

“But there are so many of you. How do I know who I should give the thing to?”

He chuckled as his eyes swept the surroundings, revealing a playful look.
