

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2803

At a corner of the cloud Sea, there was a group of islands.

Hundreds of islands were scattered in all directions. Each Island was shrouded in a ghastly ghost Qi.

An extremely Yin and evil Qi filled the entire ocean.

This was the Luosha Island.

The most terrifying place in the cloud Sea was the name of Luosha Island.

At this moment, a shrill horn sounded on the archipelago.

Then, pitch-black pillars of light shot out from the four islands and into the sky.

Layers of light screens opened up in the sky above the island.

Accompanied by black smoke, countless malicious ghosts surged out from all directions and covered the entire area.

The entire sea area had turned into an ocean of malicious ghosts. There were hideous and shrill ghost howls everywhere, which was extremely horrifying.

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

A few more pitch-black divine lights shot out from all directions. They were pitch-black pillars with different Demon God images carved on them.

The 12 pillars represented 12 demonic gods!

It was the twelve celestial capital Demon God formation!

This was an ancient formation that was extremely powerful.

The 12 Demon God pillars spread in all directions and shook in unison. The demon gods on them seemed to come alive, and huge Demon God phantoms appeared on them. They kept expanding until they were hundreds of thousands of feet tall, standing on the sea.

Hualala!

The sea around them surged and merged with the ghosts, turning into black water dragons that circled the island.

The entire world darkened.

This part of the sea area had become like a purgatory, dense and terrifying.

“I’d like to see what kind of ability this person has to dare to come to my Luosha Island!”

In the sky above the largest island in the middle, several figures stood. They were all dressed in battle armor and wore ferocious ghost faces. The aura they exuded was that of great emperors.

The one in the middle had the most imposing manner. He was wearing a pitch-black battle armor and a Shura ghost mask. The wide cloak behind him fluttered in the wind.

He was the Lord of Luosha Island.

He looked into the distance and snorted in disdain.

He could see a figure in eye-catching white clothes approaching from the distance. It was the mysterious old monster who had killed many great emperors on the Luosha Island with a proud treasure in his hand.

To be able to easily kill the two Rakshasas of the night and ghost, it meant that this person’s strength was indeed extraordinary. He was probably on par with him.

However, this man must be dreaming if he thought he could attack the Luosha Island with this little strength!

The defense of the Luosha Island was unbreakable. Not even a nine-tribulation Saint ancestor could break it.

If this person attacked, he would only be seeking his own death!

There were many killing formations on the Luosha Island. With the power of the killing formations, he could kill this man and get the aotian treasure.

“Island Lord, someone is coming!”

A venerable sovereign suddenly turned his head and looked at the island, calling out in a low voice.

The Luosha Island master glanced at them and snorted. “I’m afraid it’s those bastards from the demon Island!” They’re pretty optimistic. They want us to make a move and wear down that guy’s strength, then they’ll take advantage of it!”

“Do you want to chase them away?”

“No need! This is our territory, what’s there to be afraid of? I can’t wait for them to take action and take care of them as well. ” The Lord of Luosha Island waved his hand disdainfully.

Here, he was not afraid of anyone. Even if the nine tribulations were to come, he would still dare to face them.

Soon, the void around the Luosha Island rippled, and large ships and figures appeared one after another.

Their gazes were all focused on the approaching figure in the distance.

“Is that him?”

“You’re really bold to come to Luosha Island!”

Low discussions sounded in all directions, all with a bit of ridicule and ridicule.

He was overestimating himself and dared to attack Devil Island alone!

This was destined to be a failure.

Moreover, this guy could die Here if he was not careful. His enemy was not only Luosha Island, but also this group of people. They were wolves, waiting for him in the dark, and that guy was the sheep they were looking for.

The moment they showed signs of fatigue, they would swarm forward and tear them to pieces.

“Why is that guy so slow?”

Suddenly, someone wondered.

At this time, everyone realized this problem. That guy seemed to be walking over instead of flying over. He was walking slowly, as if he was taking a stroll.

“Is this guy stupid? if he had been faster, Luosha Island wouldn’t have had time to react, and he would still have a chance. Now the formation is fully activated and everyone is here. He won’t have a chance!”

Someone sneered.

Everyone around him laughed.

Under everyone’s watchful eyes, the white-robed figure finally came to a stop in front of them.

“I heard that you’re the one who wants to destroy my Luosha Island?”

The Luosha Island master and the others had already flown up and looked over from the formation.

“You’re quite well-informed!”

Tang Hao said indifferently, his hands behind his back.

“Hahaha! You’re really arrogant. I’ve never seen someone as arrogant as you in my entire life!” The Luosha Island master was stunned for a moment, then burst into laughter.

“You’ve seen it now!”

Tang Hao said.

“Then I’d like to see if your strength is half as powerful as you say!” The Luosha Island master sneered, “our Luosha Island is protected by 18 layers of formations, including an ancient formation like the 12 celestial demon gods formation. What are you going to use to break it?”

“Even if the nine tribulations come, they won’t be able to break this formation. Who Do You Think You Are? what a joke!”

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao said calmly as he walked forward.

He entered the ghostly mist and arrived before the first light screen.

“What do you mean?”

The Luosha Island master was stunned.

“Didn’t you say that not even the nine tribulations could break your formation?” Tang Hao looked at him through the layers of light.

“That’s right!”

The Luosha Island master shouted.

“Then I’ll have to try! Let’s see if your formation is really that hard!” Tang Hao chuckled. He raised his hand and pressed on the light screen.

“You’re overestimating yourself!”

Seeing this, the Luosha Island master sneered.

The sneers on the faces of the cultivators around him became even more intense.

This guy actually walked to the front of the formation just like that. Wasn’t this courting death? that was the most dangerous place. There were several killing formations surrounding it. If he wasn’t careful, he would be turned into ashes.

Tang Hao’s hand finally touched the screen.

BOOM!

The next moment, his body shook and his aura burst out. The dazzling nine tribulations immortal radiance shot up into the sky.

In an instant, a dazzling sun suddenly appeared between heaven and earth, driving away the darkness and haze, and illuminating the entire ghost domain.

The malicious ghosts in the surroundings all howled miserably and fled in fear, trying to avoid this Supreme aura that was extremely yang and fierce.

In the formation, the Luosha Island master and the hundreds of thousands of evil cultivators around the archipelago were all dazzled by the sudden blinding light. They couldn't see anything at all.

“My eyes!”

“It's so eye-piercing!”

They raised their hands to cover their eyes and kept exclaiming.

The xiuzhe on the large warships in the four directions also raised their hands to cover their eyes.

When they got used to it and looked forward again, they were all dumbfounded.

There, a dazzling sun was shining with endless divine light.

In this blazing sun, a figure could be vaguely seen. His eyes were emitting golden light, and his might was monstrous, like a god and a demon.
