

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2810

“Cough, cough! Senior, if you’re really interested in that fierce beast, you can learn from that ninth tribulation and kill more fierce beasts. I think he’ll appear.”

Ji juechen said.

“I killed him! But he just didn’t show up, so I asked you!”

Tang Hao said.

“Then how many did you kill?” Ji juechen was startled. “Perhaps you haven’t killed enough!”

“Oh, really? I’ve already killed more than 600 of them!” Tang Hao said.

Ji juechen immediately smiled. “Only six hundred? that’s still far from enough. You’ll have to kill hundreds of thousands of them to attract that person’s attention.”

“They’re all great emperors!”

Tang Hao said.

The smile on Ji juechen’s face froze.

Then, his eyes widened so much that they almost popped out of their sockets.

F * ck!

More than 600 eighth tribulation beasts?

You must be joking!

There are only a few eighth tribulation beasts in the entire Cloud Sea, and you’ve almost killed all of them!

Wait a minute, after killing so many, how could that nine tribulations beast still not appear?

Could it be that this senior was so terrifying that even the sea Legend didn’t dare to show itself?

When he thought of this possibility, his mind trembled and he was overwhelmed with shock.

The group of elders behind him were also extremely shocked.

What kind of monster was this person!

He easily broke the great formation of Luosha Island, swaggered into the sea and slaughtered eight tribulation fierce beasts, and scared the legend of nine tribulations so much that he didn't dare to come out. This man was too terrifying!

Perhaps it was a great opportunity for the Ji family to submit to this person!

Then, they all felt excited.

"There are so many nine tribulation Holy ancestors in Azure meteor star, but I've never heard of such a person. Could it be ... That he's from the outside? That's right, no wonder I've never heard of him. If he's from our planet, he wouldn't have subdued our Ji family!"

Ji juechen muttered to himself.

He felt that this was truly a heaven-sent opportunity. If he could firmly get close to this person, his Ji family would be able to rise completely and become one of the superpowers of the Azure meteor star.

He rolled his eyes, and his expression became more and more enthusiastic.

"Divine ancestor, let's take a seat in the main hall first. I'll order someone to prepare a banquet. After the banquet, you can go to the attic to rest!" He brought Tang Hao into the main hall.

After chatting for a while, someone from the Ji family prepared a banquet and sent it in.

Ji juechen took the lead, and the group of elders followed suit. They toasted each other with great enthusiasm.

"This wine ... Is pretty good!"

Tang Hao had been to many places and drank a lot of wine. The wine here had a different flavor.

"This is called Drunken Dragon wine. It means that even a true dragon will be drunk after drinking it. This is good stuff. It's a wine from the Ji family's collection. I've specially brought it out today for you, divine ancestor!"

Ji juechen laughed.

"This wine has a history of several thousand years. It was obtained by an ancestor of my Ji clan from an ancient cultivation residence. Even an eighth tribulation would be drunk after drinking it."

"I can tell!"

Tang Hao looked around and smiled.

Quite a few of the elders were already a little tipsy after drinking this wine.

This was the first time he had seen such a strong wine. Although it was not as strong as the legendary immortal wine that could make a true immortal drunk, it was still one of the best strong wines in the world.

“Good wine!”

He took another mouthful, savored the aftertaste, and praised.

When he was on earth in Qiyuan, he had drunk the immortal wine for a long time. It was also the best wine. This Drunken Dragon wine was even stronger and more powerful. It was an extremely strong wine.

“If you like it, divine ancestor, then drink more! Come, come, come!”

Ji juechen took out another pot, placed it on the table, and filled it up for Tang Hao.

Towards the end, many of the elders collapsed, drunk.

After the banquet was over, Ji juechen called for two maids and brought Tang Hao to the pavilion.

“The scenery is really not bad!”

Tang Hao looked around when he landed on the roof of the building. He was surrounded by beautiful mountains and rivers, and there was a pond next to him with a spirit spring.

“Divine ancestor, do you need to take a bath in the spiritual spring?”

The two maidservants stood at the side and respectfully said.

Tang Hao glanced at them and was shocked.

At this moment, he discovered that these two maids were both beautiful young female cultivators. Their looks were extremely outstanding, and their figures were graceful and lithe. Compared to fairy Ji, they were only a hair’s breadth away.

Presumably, among all the members of the Ji family, these two were the two most beautiful women.

Moreover, each of them had their own characteristics. One was gentle like water, while the other was charming and moving. The two delicate bodies were wrapped in light clothes, accentuating their charming curves.

“This old man!”

“F * ck!” Tang Hao cursed.

It was obvious that Ji juechen had deliberately arranged this. He had not accepted Ji Ruyin before, but now he had arranged for two.

F * ck! Did he look like that kind of person?

“There’s no need!”

Tang Hao waved his hand in refusal.

“Divine ancestor, just go! The patriarch said that if you don’t go, he’ll punish us!”

The one on the right, who was more charming, said.

She opened her beautiful eyes wide and looked at Tang Hao with a pleading look.

“Yup! Divine ancestor, you should go!”

The one on the left also said.

Tang Hao felt a little helpless when he saw them. The two men’s eyes were clear, and their expressions were natural. They were not lying to him. The old man had arranged everything.

“Good! Then go!”

Tang Hao smiled helplessly.

“Many thanks, divine ancestor!”

The two of them were immediately overjoyed, and their smiles were like flowers.

“What are your names?”

Tang Hao asked after sizing them up again.

“I’m called Chun Xuan!”

“I’m Qiu CI!”

The two of them bowed.

“Chunxuan? Qiu CI?” Tang Hao was surprised. “This name is ...?” He asked.

“We are sisters. Spring is the elder sister, and autumn is the younger sister!” The one on the left said in a gentler voice.

Tang Hao was surprised.

And they were a pair of beautiful sisters!

Looking at their cultivation, they were both at the 7th tribulation, so they must be geniuses of the Ji family!

A pair of genius sisters!

That old man really put in a lot of money!

“You’re Chun Xuan?” He looked at the gentler one and said.

“That’s right! In the future, we sisters will be your personal maids! As long as you’re in the Ji family, we’ll be by your side.” Ji Chunyuan said.

“It’s my sister’s honor to serve you, divine ancestor!”

The more charming younger sister, Ji Qiuci, also said.

She took a step forward and extended her hands toward Tang Hao’s chest. “Divine ancestor, I’ll undress you first!”

“Wait a moment!”

Tang Hao took a step back and blushed.

He was really not used to this kind of situation. He had never arranged for an attendant or a personal maid. In the past, fairy Yunrong was just an attendant. She had followed him everywhere, and there was no such personal maid.

Ji Qiuci was stunned. Her outstretched hand also froze there.

“Are you ... Embarrassed?”

She said in shock and disbelief.

The dignified nine tribulations divine ancestor was an unparalleled and Noble figure. Moreover, weren’t these people old monsters who had lived for thousands of years? how could they blush and feel embarrassed when they were just taking off his clothes?
