

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2816

“Senior, can that pillar be retracted?”

After collecting all the treasures in the hall, Tang Hao looked around, and his eyes lit up.

The materials used to build this Hall were also divine materials!

“What?”

The Emperor’s Soul was stunned for a moment and couldn’t react in time. There’s no longer any pillar-shaped magic treasure here, everything has been taken by you.

“That!”

Tang Hao raised his hand and pointed at the huge golden pillar not far away.

The split soul looked at it and was stunned again.

Then, his face twitched and the corners of his eyes twitched.

That was just an ordinary pillar, and you actually didn’t let it go. That was too much! Don’t tell me you’re going to tear down the floor tiles and the roof too!

He roared in his heart.

Tang Hao pointed at the ground and said, “Senior, I think this floor tile is also quite good. It’s a divine material! You’re not in this world anymore, so you don’t need them. Why don’t I take them all?”

The split soul was stunned, and its mouth opened wide.

F * ck! You really want to dig the floor tiles! You’re too beastly!

He roared in his heart again.

He felt that he couldn’t see through this kid at all. His talent was so monstrous, and his vision was so high. He wasn’t even satisfied with a broken celestial artifact, but in the end, he wanted to dig up the floor tiles and pillars of his palace.

They were two extremes!

This person was really too strange!

“Senior, you won’t be that stingy, right?”

Tang Hao said, his face pure and innocent.

The split soul's face twitched a few times before it laughed and said, "How is that possible? Am I, aotian Emperor, such a petty person? Take whatever you want, I have no use for it anyway!"

"Many thanks, senior!"

Tang Hao laughed so hard that he almost burst out laughing.

He reached out his hand, and all the floor tiles flew up. He also took down the Golden pillars and pulled them over. In the blink of an eye, the originally magnificent and immortal-like Hall was stripped bare, not even a tile was left.

The split soul stood where it was, looking at the barren land around it in a daze.

This was too F * cking clean!

"Senior, many thanks! If I'm lucky enough to go to the immortal world in the future, this junior will definitely pay a visit to senior!"

Tang Hao bowed to the split soul and thanked it.

Then, he turned around and dashed out.

"Aiya! I forgot that these stairs are also treasures!"

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he looked at the stairs.

Behind him, the split soul's eyelids twitched, and it wanted to curse.

You've already torn down my Palace, and now you're even thinking of taking the stairs? can't you see that those people are still up there?

"Forget it!"

Tang Hao mumbled again. He shook his head with a regretful expression, as if he had just missed out on a few hundred million.

He found the Dao platform he had entered from and was about to return.

"Fellow Daoist, please wait!"

At this moment, someone called out to him.

He paused and turned his head to look. He saw the devilishly handsome man in a navy blue robe sweeping over. He smiled at him from a distance and cupped his hands in an extremely warm manner.

"Fellow Daoist, what's the matter?"

Tang Hao returned the bow.

The man flew over and smiled, "fellow Daoist, you're from another star Domain, right?" I am the master of the mirror flower Palace from the rain province. If you don't mind, we can be friends. If you have time in the future, you are welcome to visit my mirror flower Palace!"

His tone was very polite, and his attitude was very humble.

In his view, this person must have a shocking background and came to the Azure meteor star to travel, which was a good opportunity to make friends.

"Yuzhou!"

Tang Hao mumbled.

"Has fellow Daoist been there?" Mirror flower Palace head said with a smile.

"No, I didn't!"

"Then you can come to rain province for a stroll, fellow Daoist. Our land is vast and abundant with all kinds of spiritual essence and rare items. We're famous even among the nine great continents of Cangliu."

"Alright!"

"Okay!" Tang Hao nodded.

The mirror flower Palace's status should be similar to that of the Gu God sect and the heaven slaying sect. It could be considered a major power, similar in strength to the Ji family and the ye family of the Sacred Realm. It would be good to make friends with them.

They chatted for a while longer before Tang Hao bade them farewell. He returned to the platform he had come from, passed through the tunnel, and returned to the Ji residence.

Then, the passage slowly disappeared.

That golden Broken Sword also lost its glow and fell to the ground with a clang.

"The harvest is not small!"

Tang Hao sat down cross-legged, opened the clear sky ring, and carefully examined his gains from this trip.

There were many kinds of treasures of high grades, especially the immortal herbs and many elixirs, which could be used to restore the body. He was most satisfied with them.

After sorting them out, he took out all the immortal herbs and medicinal pills, opened his mouth, and swallowed them all.

As soon as it entered his stomach, it dissolved into the purest spiritual essence and was absorbed by his body.

Very quickly, four more cracks appeared on his body.

“Not bad!”

He grinned and was a little happy.

Then, he focused his mind, closed his eyes, and continued to deduce the method of refining the Mirage.

Not long after, as the major forces completed the test and left with the treasures, the events that happened in the small world spread throughout their continents.

The great Emperor’s treasure has been opened!

The seven parties competed for the first place, but in the end, a mysterious white-robed divine ancestor won first place and took most of the treasures.

And this mysterious divine ancestor was a heaven-defying figure who wasn’t even 100 years old. He was more than 200 years younger than the youngest divine ancestor in the history of the origin immortal realm.

Once the news spread, the four sides were shocked.

The people of the world found it hard to believe.

A divine ancestor who was less than a hundred years old?

This was too shocking and unbelievable!

If it wasn’t for the fact that this news came from the true spirit stage cultivators, they would never have believed it.

“Hundred-year-old divine ancestor? This is too scary!”

“I really don’t know where this monster came from!”

All the continents were in an uproar.

As the news spread quickly, the uproar was still spreading rapidly.

In the cloud continent, the first heaven region, where the heaven slaying sect was located, was the most sensational.

As soon as the news came out, the cultivators of the heaven slaying sect all guessed that this mysterious holy ancestor was the one who had driven away the Gu God ancestor and caused a sensation in Yunzhou not long ago.

They were all a little shocked. They didn't expect that after more than ten days, this person would make such a sensational event and take away Emperor aotian's treasure in one fell swoop.

What shocked them even more was the age of this mysterious holy ancestor.

Not even a hundred years old!

This was hard for them to believe.

The Tianyi region was in an uproar overnight.

The news quickly spread to the Gu God sect.

The Gu God patriarch almost fell off the stage when he heard that. His face was full of fear and panic.

The person he thought was a senior was actually a young monster, and he was not even a hundred years old?

This was too terrifying!

A sacred ancestor who was less than a hundred years old was much more terrifying than an old monster!

This was because there must be an unimaginably powerful force behind this young divine ancestor.

"This is bad!"

For a moment, he was extremely frightened and could not sit still. He was afraid that the young divine ancestor would bear a grudge against him for what had happened that day.

The news continued to spread like wildfire, and one region after another was stirred up. Soon, the news had spread throughout the entire cloud plane.
