

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2818

“Cough cough!”

Tang Hao’s face reddened. He was a little embarrassed.

A pair of sisters, one on the left and one on the right, accompanied by his side. Both of them were as beautiful as flowers, charming and moving, and had different temperaments. Just looking at them was already an extremely pleasing thing to the eye.

Furthermore, he was being served by them.

Even their body fragrances were completely different. One was simple and elegant, while the other was fragrant, both refreshing.

“Divine ancestor, are you satisfied with the taste?”

After tasting all the dishes, Ji chunxin said,”

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao nodded.

These dishes really lived up to the name of precious dishes. They all tasted pretty good.

“That’s good!”

Ji chunxuan smiled and said in a sweet voice,”the patriarch is afraid that you will not be satisfied. He said that, with your status, you must have tasted all the delicacies in the world and are very picky with your taste. He even looked very nervous just now.”

“No, I didn’t!”

Tang Hao smiled and shook his head.

In the past, he liked to eat and would try everything. Later on, he didn’t care and wasn’t particular about it.

At that time, he was busy cultivating and had many enemies. He didn’t have the time to taste any delicacies.

“Divine ancestor, are you not interested in the delicacies?”

Ji Qiuci asked,”What do you like?”

She widened her charming Phoenix eyes and looked over curiously.

She had once heard that all divine ancestors had their own hobbies. Some liked to eat delicacies, some liked to be beautiful, some liked to travel, and some were special, like playing chess and fishing.

In short, he must have some hobbies.

This was also because, after reaching the ninth tribulation, the advancement of the realm became unusually slow and long. Ordinary cultivation could not advance at all. Other than comprehending, cultivating some Taoist skills, refining weapons, and refining pills, they had nothing else to do.

Therefore, he had to find a hobby.

And this divine ancestor definitely didn't love beauty.

She had heard that he didn't even accept a fairy like ru Yin, who was famous in the entire Cang Liu star. Last night, the two sisters had served him in the spring with all their heart. Although it was a little flirtatious, they didn't stay in the end.

As for rare delicacies, this person didn't seem to be that interested in them.

"It's a treasure!"

Tang Hao said after some thought.

If one had to name a hobby, treasure was still the most important.

"Treasure?"

Ji Qiuci was stunned, and her ruddy little mouth opened wide.

Then, she burst into laughter, and her voluptuous curves moved along with her laughter.

Ji chunxuan, who was standing beside him, also laughed.

Although this hobby was a little vulgar, it was very practical.

"Divine ancestor, try this!" She leaned over, picked up a piece of fish, and gave it to him affectionately.

"Divine ancestor, try this!"

Ji Qiuci also picked up a dish, smiled, and put it to his mouth.

With the help of the sisters, the table of dishes was quickly finished.

They tidied up and heard the sound of something breaking through the air outside. A divine light descended in front of the door, and they knelt down and prostrated themselves on the ground. It was the patriarch of the Ji family, Ji juechen.

"Divine ancestor, Jue Chen requests an audience!"

He lowered his head and respectfully called out.

“Come in!”

Tang Hao glanced at him and said.

This Ji juechen was a smart person! Since last night, a pair of beautiful sisters had been sent over. Then, this table of delicious food was sent over this morning. She really knew how to conduct herself.

“Divine ancestor, are you satisfied with the dishes just now?”

Ji juechen stood up, walked in, and respectfully said.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“Since you’re satisfied with it, I’ll prepare more.” Ji juechen laughed.

Then, he glanced at the two beautiful sisters and said, “Divine ancestor, are you not satisfied with the two sisters?”

“No, I didn’t! Why do you say that?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

“You ... Didn’t ask them to stay? Are you not satisfied with their looks, or are they not serving you well? they are clumsy and have made you unhappy. If you are really not satisfied, I can change them. ”

Ji juechen said, his eyes turning sharp as he looked at the two women.

In an instant, Ji chunxuan and Ji Qiuci’s expressions changed.

“Please forgive me, ancestor!”

The two girls bowed and said in a panic.

Tang Hao glanced at him and raised an eyebrow.

How could he not see through this old man’s thoughts? he was just acting. If it were him, he would have changed his mind this morning. Why would he reprimand the sisters in front of him now? he was clearly trying to make him sympathize with the sisters and accept them.

“No need!”

Tang Hao waved his hand. “Just the two of them. I’m quite satisfied with them!”

“It’s good that you’re satisfied, divine ancestor!”

Ji juechen immediately put on a smile and said, “these two sisters are the most beautiful in the Ji family, apart from ru Yin. They are also meticulous. They will definitely serve you well, divine ancestor.”

“Remember, you must do your best and serve the divine ancestor well!”

He looked at the two girls again and warned them.

“Yes, ancestor!”

The two girls said respectfully.

“They’re considered geniuses! You’re really willing to do that?” Tang Hao looked at him and smiled.

“Divine ancestor, you’ve forgotten that the Ji family is yours. As members of the Ji family, the two sisters naturally belong to you!”

Ji juechen said respectfully.

“This will delay their cultivation. Have you given them any compensation?” Tang Hao said.

“No, I didn’t! It’s their honor and fortune to be able to serve you, divine ancestor. There’s no need for any compensation!” Ji juechen said.

“Is that so?”

Tang Hao smiled noncommittally.

He looked to the side and glanced at the two sisters.

He was quite satisfied with this pair of sisters. Not only were their looks outstanding, but they were also thoughtful, gentle, and considerate.

“You guys can stay!” He nodded and said, “however, if you want to follow me, your cultivation level is still far from enough. Take these things! If you’re fast enough, you’ll be able to pass the Tribulation today. Later on, you’ll only be qualified to follow me after you’ve reached the ninth tribulation!”

As he spoke, he flicked his sleeve and two divine lights flew out and landed in front of the two women.

There were some treasures that he had just prepared. There were some elixirs and spiritual essences suitable for the seventh tribulation, as well as a batch of wood element treasures.

Ji juechen’s jaw dropped.

Today ... He was going to transcend the Tribulation?

This was way too fast! How was that possible?

The two sisters had five to six thousand HP, which was still far from ten thousand. Even if they reached ten thousand HP, they would still have to make some preparations for the Tribulation! Who would undergo a tribulation today!

And the last sentence was even scarier.

Only those who have reached the ninth tribulation are qualified to follow this person?

Oh my God!

Could it be that even his maidservants were ninth tribulation divine patriarchs?

Who was this person?

What kind of power must it be that even an attendant or maidservant was a ninth tribulation divine ancestor?

The pair of beautiful sisters at the side also seemed to be shocked. Their Phoenix eyes widened, full of shock and disbelief.
