

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2832

The flying boat sped through the air.

From time to time, he would travel through the void.

On the boat, two figures sat opposite each other, speechless. The atmosphere was a little dull.

Ji Ruyin was a little nervous.

After introducing the situation in Huangzhou, she didn't know what to say. In front of this person, she always felt particularly reserved. She really wanted to chat, but she was afraid that she would say something wrong and make this person unhappy.

Although he was about the same age as her, he was an extremely noble divine ancestor with a terrifying background.

"Why are you so nervous? I won't eat you!"

Tang Hao sized her up and laughed.

"No! I'm not nervous!" Ji Ruyin immediately shook her head and blushed.

Tang Hao shook his head and laughed.

"Do you have anything you want to say or ask me? I saw that you wanted to say something a few times just now, but you didn't say it." He said.

"I want to ask ... Where did you come from, divine ancestor?"

Ji Ruyin asked after a moment of hesitation.

"A place very, very far away. It's not in this immortal domain," Tang Hao said.

He didn't mention anything about Pangu or the sanctuary. The people here didn't even know about Pangu's existence. In fact, they didn't even know about the existence of the nine-colored race or the Dragon count divine clan.

"Oh!"

Ji Ruyin responded.

This was in line with her guess. There was no such person in the origin immortal realm who was a divine ancestor less than 100 years old.

"Then you must've traveled through many star fields before coming here! I haven't even left the Azure meteor star many times, so I don't know what's going on outside. I've only heard a few things about it."

As Ji Ruyin spoke, she looked up at the sky with a hint of longing.

“Why? is it too dangerous?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

He realized that the people here didn't like to leave the stars, which was completely different from the situation in the endless starry sky.

“Yup! The starry skies outside are too dangerous, so they rarely go out.” Ji Ruyin nodded.

“That's a pity!”

Tang Hao said.

“I also feel that it's a bit of a pity. However, it's not too late to go out after reaching the ninth tribulation, don't you think so?” Ji Ruyin said.

“That's true! With your talent, your chances of passing the Tribulation are quite high.”

Tang Hao said.

This person's talent wasn't bad, and with the help of a top-tier true spirit cultivation technique, he had a high chance of passing the Tribulation.

Ji Ruyin hummed in agreement and fell silent again.

She felt a little embarrassed. The divine ancestor didn't seem to be in a good mood.

Ji Ruyin, Oh Ji Ruyin, how could you be so useless!

She lowered her head and cursed in her heart.

She wasn't usually like this. She talked and laughed at ease in front of everyone and was extremely confident. But now, she was almost mute and couldn't speak.

“Since you don't want to talk, then have some tea!”

Tang Hao smiled and took out a tea set.

“Divine ancestor, let me do it!”

Ji Ruyin looked up and hurriedly stood up to take the tea set.

She was wearing a loose chiffon dress, and when she bent down, the scenery was extremely clear.

Tang Hao looked up and was stunned.

She didn't notice it and continued to fiddle with the tea set.

When she noticed that Tang Hao's expression was a little off, she was stunned for a moment. She lowered her head and saw that her beautiful and dreamy face had turned red.

She didn't sit down immediately. Instead, she pretended to be calm and only sat down after a while.

That face was already as red as a burning cloud.

She sat there, feeling her entire face burning. It was boiling hot, and even her body was a little hot. She was embarrassed, as she had never been seen like this before.

But at the same time, there was a wondrous feeling rising from the bottom of her heart.

He seemed to be ... Happy.

His eyes didn't seem so calm just now. Didn't this mean that he still had some charm? Unlike last time, when he looked at her with an extremely indifferent gaze, without even a trace of interest.

As she pondered, she felt a little happy.

Tang Hao did not know that she was thinking so much. He cleared his throat to ease the awkward atmosphere.

"Divine ancestor, I'll pour you some tea!"

After a while, she finally calmed down. She made a cup of tea and brought it over.

She glanced at Tang Hao. Her face was still a little red.

The two of them just sat there and drank tea.

The flowing cloud shuttle under his feet continued to accelerate, piercing through the void. A few hours later, they arrived in the sky above Huangzhou.

"Look, that's Cangliu city!"

Ji Ruyin stood up and pointed into the distance after a few more void leaps.

Tang Hao stood up and looked into the distance. At the end of the earth, there was an enormous city floating in the air. It was entirely golden, and the buildings on top of it were a little special. There were tall towers rising from the ground, and the shape was a little strange.

"It's quite big!"

Tang Hao sighed.

“Yup! This is the largest city in my vast meteor star. ” Ji Ruyin said proudly.

The flying boat continued to move forward.

After entering the city, they kept the flying boat and flew down.

The city was extremely lively.

The streets were packed with people. Xiuzhe of all kinds of clothing were everywhere.

In the sky, divine lights of all colors shuttled back and forth. From time to time, huge ships and flying boats landed, and divine lights swept down.

As soon as the two of them landed, they attracted a lot of attention from all directions.

The two of them were simply too outstanding. One of them was dressed in white and had jet-black hair. He was handsome like an immortal, while the other was breathtakingly beautiful like a fairy. The two of them were simply too eye-catching when walking together.

“Who are they?”

“Judging from his temperament, he must be a disciple of a big sect! Look at that beautiful woman, it’s the undying immortal radiance!”

The cultivators from all directions looked over and discussed in low voices.

Their expressions were somewhat fearful.

This was Cangliu city, the biggest trading city on Cangliu star. The people here came from the nine great continents of the world, and there were all kinds of people here. Disciples from big sects and clans were even more common.

These people were not to be trifled with.

In particular, the two of them had such outstanding temperament that their origins were definitely not small.

“That ... Seems to be fairy Ji!”

Very quickly, someone recognized it.

Ji Ruyin, Cloud Sea.

This name was somewhat famous. She was the most outstanding genius of the younger generation. Furthermore, she was especially famous for her outstanding appearance and beauty.

“It really is fairy Ji! Who’s that man?”

All the cultivators were excited.

This fairy Ji was famous for her unparalleled beauty in the vast meteor star, but she couldn't be seen normally.

However, when they looked at the person next to him, their expressions changed, and they revealed a strong sense of hostility.

Who was this guy? How did he end up with fairy Ji?

Tang Hao smiled wryly when he felt their murderous gazes. It had been a long time since he had felt such glares.

"You're quite famous!"

He whispered to Ji Ruyin.

Ji Ruyin looked around helplessly.

"Let's go! It's over there!"

She pulled on Tang Hao's sleeve and flew toward a tall tower in the center of the city.
