

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2841

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

Countless beams of divine light flew in from all directions and fell into the divine furnace.

These were all top-notch gold and iron divine materials. Phoenix Gold, immortal tear gold, they were all priceless treasures.

Most of them were from Emperor aotian's treasures, but there were also a few that were just picked from the treasure vault of Great Yan Dynasty.

After all, it was the second strongest force in the vast meteor star. After thousands of years, it had naturally accumulated a lot of good things.

After entering the divine furnace and being refined by the Taixu divine fire, these materials quickly dissolved.

After refining for a while and removing all the impurities, Tang Hao fused all the materials together.

Then, he used the divine fire to refine it continuously.

After refining for three days and three nights, he finally obtained a plate-sized silver steel.

He called it the clear sky divine steel, and it was a formula he had created.

This was probably the most luxurious kind of steel in the world. All the materials used were the top materials below immortal materials. So many pieces of divine materials, but only a small piece of steel was refined.

"Not bad!"

Tang Hao took out the steel and squeezed it. He was satisfied with its performance after examining it closely.

Below immortal materials, this was the strongest metal material.

Be it creation true gold or great void true gold, they were all far inferior to his clear sky divine steel.

"Finally, there's the Kongming true gold!"

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve, and a piece of hollow true gold flew out.

In order to forge the dimensional ring, this netherworld true gold was indispensable.

Following that, he threw the steel and the Kongming true gold into the furnace and refined them again.

Then, he pulled the empty nether gold into a thread and fused it into the clear sky divine steel.

Soon, a silver ring was formed.

“Add a Hao!”

He mumbled to himself. With a thought, he carved the character “Hao” into the inner ring. He then polished it carefully, making the ring even more perfect.

As for the design, it was very simple and plain.

He was going to use this one for himself, so it had to be simple. He didn’t like it to be too gaudy. It didn’t suit his low-profile and reserved temperament. He would make it for sis Xiangyi and the others later. The more gorgeous and beautiful it was, the better.

“Alright, I’m done!”

After polishing the exterior, the next step was to inscribe the talisman matrix.

This process was the most time-consuming.

In order to make this ring reach the level of an immortal ring, he had designed countless talisman arrays, which were more complicated than the Haotian armor he had refined before. A small ring could contain billions of talismans.

In order to speed up the process, he summoned all of his true spirit and began to draw.

Even so, it still took nine days to finish carving.

“Hu!”

Tang Hao breathed a sigh of relief when he was done. He was exhausted.

He had no other choice. He was not a true immortal yet. If he wanted to make immortal-level things, he had to make up for it with talisman Dao.

He grabbed the ring and poured a trace of immortal essence into it.

The next moment, the simple silver ring shone with a shocking divine light. A majestic aura was about to sweep out in all directions, but Tang Hao managed to stop it in time. If it were to spread, not only the pavilion, but the entire Island would be in trouble.

“It’s so big!”

He sent a wisp of his consciousness into it to check the space inside. It was boundless, like a small world. It was more than a hundred times larger than the space in the immortal execution king ring he had used.

Not to mention some ten million Zhang *(3.33m per Zhang) large beast, even stars could be stored inside in a dozen or so.

“This space has definitely reached the immortal level. Even a ring made by a true immortal would only have this much space.” Tang Hao was very confident.

Then, he tried out other functions, the most important of which was the defensive ability. He was quite satisfied with it.

He once had a defensive celestial artifact called the Galaxy barrier.

After all, this ring was still a dimensional ring and not a true immortal tool. In terms of defensive power, it was still a bit inferior to the Galaxy shield, but the difference wasn't big. It had truly reached the immortal level.

“Good treasure!”

Tang Hao caressed the ring on his finger. His face was full of joy.

After putting the ring on and moving everything on his body into the ring, he was about to refine another ring for sis Xiangyi. At this moment, he was suddenly stunned as he remembered the promise he had made with the Crown Prince of Great Yan.

Yan Qing had said that he would pick him up after twelve days. This refinement had taken thirteen days!

He hurriedly put away his things and the formation outside the building.

When he opened the door, he saw a huge purple ship hovering not far away. It was the ship of Great Yan Dynasty.

There were a few people on the ship, and he saw Ji juechen, Ji Ruyin, mirror flower Palace mistress, and the Crown Prince of Great Yan.

“Holy ancestor!”

Seeing him come out, two figures flew over from the attic to the side and landed in front of him. It was the sisters, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci.

“You've refined it?”

Tang Hao looked at them and found that Qi of true spirit was flowing out from their immortal apertures.

“Yes! Holy ancestor!”

Ji chunxuan said respectfully.

Divine ancestor, we heard that you're going to Great Yan to take part in the Royal immortal gathering. I wonder if you can take us there. We'd like to see your heroic bearing and elegant demeanor! Ji Qiuci raised her head and said in a coquettish tone.

"Yup! Holy ancestor!"

Ji Chunxuan followed. Her beautiful and moving face was full of anticipation.

"What heroic bearing?!"

Tang Hao chuckled.

"Alright! You guys can follow me, but be careful when the time comes. There will be a lot of nine tribulations in this immortal gathering. "

After a moment of hesitation, he nodded and agreed.

"Many thanks, divine ancestor!"

The two sisters were overjoyed.

"Let's go!"

Tang Hao stood up and headed toward the warship.

At this time, a group of people had already swept out from the large ship to welcome them.

"Sorry, I was in seclusion to refine some small things and almost forgot the time. I've waited for a long time!" Tang Hao cupped his hands at the Crown Prince of Great Yan and smiled.

"No harm! Don't worry!"

Yan Qing said hurriedly.

This person was probably refining things for the sake of the Huangji immortal gathering. He was extremely happy, so why would he care?

"There are still two days before the immortal gathering, isn't it still early!" He smiled and said, "come, board the ship!"

He turned to the side and led Tang Hao to the ship.

"You must be the sisters that patriarch Ji was talking about! She was indeed a heavenly beauty! Fellow Daoist, you're quite lucky with women!" He glanced at the two sisters behind him and smiled.

He looked at Tang Hao with a mischievous and envious gaze.

As the Crown Prince of Great Yan, he was used to seeing beautiful women, but these two were not ordinary beauties. Not only were they extremely beautiful, but they were also at the true spirit realm. Most importantly, they were sisters.

Having such a pair of beautiful sisters was something that all men in the world would be envious of!

“Crown Prince Yan!”

The two women boarded the ship, bowed, and stood behind Tang Hao.

Tang Hao did not explain further. He just smiled at him and sat down.

“I’m not going, I still have to take care of the Ji family!”

“Let’s go!” Ji juechen said. He bowed to Tang Hao and left the ship.

Then, the ship started and left the Ji residence, heading toward Huangzhou.
