

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2857

“The Ji family will be destroyed? What a big tone!”

A cold shout shook the sky.

The Cold Moon-like glow suddenly dissipated, revealing a figure in white clothes, black hair, and a handsome face that was covered in a layer of bone-chilling frost.

On the warship, the evil child squinted his eyes and frowned.

It seemed that this guy wasn't going to stop and was going to go against his heaven of great joy.

Hmph!

Really overestimating his own ability!

He was just a guy who had just reached the Dao condensation realm. No matter how powerful his divine power was and how he had a defensive immortal artifact, so what? the heaven of great joy was a giant of the immortal realm and even had several peak experts in his sect, let alone Dao integration experts.

A mere Dao condensation cultivator dared to oppose the heaven of great joy. That was no different from courting death!

There was no need for the sect's powerhouses to make a move. Just his group alone was enough to deal with this guy!

He was close to the Dao integration realm, and his combat power had basically reached the Dao integration realm.

There were more than a dozen elders on the ship, many of whom were at the Dao gathering realm. Together with the few ninth tribulation Warriors of the Tian long divine dynasty and the ship under their feet, it was more than enough to deal with this guy.

Of course, it would be best if there were no conflicts.

Wouldn't it be easy and happy to snatch the beauty and leave?

“Fellow Daoist, are you still not going to move? This cannon has no eyes. If it hurts you, don't blame us.”

He sneered and shouted.

In the next moment, the aura of the warship cannon under his feet suddenly rose a few degrees.

If this guy didn't give way, then he would just directly fire and see how many cannonballs this guy could take.

“Yo! You’re still not leaving? it seems you’ve made up your mind to go against us. You’d better think it through. This is the matter of the nine powerhouses of the origin immortal realm, and you’ve not only offended the great joy heaven, but all the powerhouses of this immortal realm!”

Then, he laughed coldly, and his eyes were filled with ridicule.

Was this guy an idiot?

For the sake of a small Ji family, he actually wanted to go against his heaven of great joy. He was really stupid and not like a nine tribulations old monster!

“Nine magnates? So what if I’ve offended him!”

The white-robed figure spoke coldly with disdain.

Everyone on the ship was stunned.

Their faces were a little dazed, as if they were wondering if they had heard wrong.

“Hahaha!”

Then, the entire Hall burst into laughter.

The evil child even held his stomach and laughed so hard that his body swayed.

This was the first time he had seen such an arrogant and foolish person!

A mere Dao condensation cultivator dared to look down on the nine magnates!

Wasn’t this the biggest joke in the world?

Even if this guy was from another big Shot of the celestial realm, once he came here, he would be under the rule of the nine big shots. Anyone who dared to look down on them was courting death!

“I’ve changed my mind. Today, I’ll kill you first, then destroy the Ji family. Didn’t you look down on my nine big shots? today, I’ll show you the strength of my joyous sky!”

The evil child’s face darkened and he shouted.

“Activate it with all your might and blast him to death!”

Then, he shouted behind him.

Buzzzzzz!

The next moment, the ship shook and a shocking light bloomed around the ship. Layers of light and killing formations were activated one after another. The light from the cannons at the bow of the ship grew crazily and its aura soared.

“Hahaha! This guy is really looking for death!”

On the ship, ao Hong’s face was filled with ecstasy.

He had never expected things to turn out like this. He had thought that there would be some conflict at most, and that senior evil child would teach this guy a lesson and then destroy the Ji family. But now, senior evil child was determined to kill this guy with all his might!

And all of this was because this guy was too arrogant, and he brought it upon himself.

“Senior, the Sky Dragon divine dynasty will lend you a hand to kill this fellow!”

He shouted excitedly and waved to the people behind him.

The few nine tribulations Saint ancestors of the Tian long celestial dynasty responded in unison and took out their treasures.

“No need, you guys just watch.”

The evil child waved his hand and said arrogantly, “with the invincible battleship of the sky of great joy and so many elites, it’s easy to kill this guy. We don’t need any help!”

“BOOM! BOOM! Until he’s dead!”

Then, he shouted, and the ship under his feet trembled. A shocking divine light shot out from the bow of the ship and pointed at the white-robed figure.

At the same time, countless rays of divine light surged out and blasted out.

These were the killing formations on the ship.

This Starship was the strongest Starship in the sky of great joy. It was filled with killing arrays and was armed to the teeth. Over the years, many forces had been destroyed by this Starship.

In this part of the universe, this large ship could strike fear into any force.

Today, this arrogant guy would be annihilated just like the other forces.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

In the next moment, a series of deafening explosions rang out.

All the divine lights were hit and exploded into boundless brilliance.

Seeing this, the evil child sneered.

This wave was enough to make that guy suffer. As long as there was another wave, that guy's celestial core power would be exhausted. At that time, it would be easy to kill him.

A moment later, the ship trembled again, and a wave of divine light shot out.

Bang Bang Bang ...

There was another earth-shaking explosion.

"Hahaha! It's almost time!" The evil child laughed out loud with a smug look on his face. "All the elders, follow me and seal the void. Don't let this guy have a chance to escape!"

"Yes!"

With a burst of loud responses, many figures rose into the sky and scattered in all directions.

They waved their hands and threw out array flags, completely sealing off the void.

As for the evil child, it was flying forward.

At this time, the Cold Moon-like glow had long dissipated, and the White-clothed figure was revealed again.

Looking at the figure, the evil child's face was full of disdain.

After a few rounds of bombardment, this guy's celestial core power had long been squeezed dry, and he might even be injured. How could he be his opponent? there were more than a dozen ninth tribulation elders in all four directions who had sealed the void together. This guy could not escape.

"Tsk tsk! How stupid! You're definitely the stupidest person I've ever met. I didn't want to kill you because it was too troublesome, but since you insist on seeking death, I'll have to grant you your wish!"

He sneered and walked away.

His eyes were filled with greed.

After killing this guy, that celestial artifact would be his!

"Now, I'll send you on your way!"

He laughed and his body shook. With a boom, the aura around him burst out and turned into a light pillar that shot into the sky.

His small, child-like body suddenly expanded rapidly and turned into a burly man. He was as strong as an iron tower, and his skin was golden and covered with mysterious patterns.

Then, with a few clanking sounds, a set of golden Buddhist armor flew out and instantly assembled.

“Die!”

With a shout, his figure moved and immediately turned into a flash of lightning, rushing toward the white-robed figure.
