

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2869

The origin immortal realm was vast and boundless.

Star fields spread out in all directions, with countless stars. Among them, stars like the Azure meteor star weren't considered big, and there were hundreds of bigger ones.

The biggest one was naturally the Luo planet.

This star was located in the center of the celestial realm. It was the most ancient and largest star in the celestial realm.

At this moment, on a divine mountain in the Daluo planet, an old man in a white robe was sitting cross-legged by a pond. He was fishing leisurely with a fishing rod.

Suddenly, his expression changed and he looked up.

There, a golden light was breaking through the sea of clouds and rapidly approaching.

"There's finally news!"

He murmured as he reached out and grabbed the golden light. It was a communication jade talisman.

"What? Failed? How did this happen?"

When he opened it, his expression changed slightly.

"The people from the heaven of great joy are almost all dead, and the myriad beasts sect as well. How did so many of them die? Who is this devil?"

As he continued reading, his expression became more and more shocked.

He retracted his fishing rod and stood up with a serious expression.

For this trip to Cangliu, the Daluo heavenly Palace had sent a Dao fusing realm elder and dozens of Dao gathering and Dao pecking realm cultivators. He had thought that such a lineup was more than enough to deal with whatever situation there was.

However, he did not expect that the result would be a complete defeat.

Not only did Cangliu fail to seal the key and let the news spread, but they also failed to kill the demon who had challenged the authority of the nine magnates. He had embarrassed the nine magnates!

"Spirit void ... Spirit void ... Which senior is he?"

He looked up at the sky and muttered to himself, his expression extremely puzzled.

The Daluo heavenly Palace was the oldest force in this celestial realm. He knew a lot about the ancient genuine Immortals, and many of them were recorded in the ancient books of his heavenly Palace. He had also read them.

However, there was no such senior called Ling Xu among them.

“Maybe it’s an alias!”

He muttered to himself a moment later.

Seniors like him were all very powerful. Some of them might have countless clones and countless identities, so it was very normal for them to have a few Daoist names.

“This Senior Spirit void, what exactly does he want to do? Is it really to benefit the common people?”

He had a strange expression on his face.

He had been cultivating for more than nine thousand years, but he had never heard of such a thing, nor had he seen someone with such a broad mind and such a lofty goal.

To him, those words were even a little ridiculous.

He had spent so much effort to create such a magical world and open it to everyone. He had even taken out all the inheritances for people to exchange for them. Wasn’t this the behavior of a fool?

“Perhaps this senior has nothing better to do, so he’s looking for something to do!”

He shook his head and smiled bitterly.

Then, he frowned and fell into deep thought.

He was pondering how to deal with it.

The news of the key had already spread, and if they were to suppress it, they would have to pay a huge price. More importantly, it would cause this senior Ling Xu to be disgusted.

However, if they were not suppressed, the inheritance of a true immortal would spread in large numbers.

If it fell into the hands of a small force, it would be nothing. It was just an inheritance. They did not have enough Foundation and could not turn the world upside down.

However, if it fell into the hands of some major forces, there might be a few more giant forces in this starry sky.

He quickly came up with a plan. He took out a jade talisman and threw it out. Then, his figure flickered and he disappeared from the divine mountain.

When he reappeared, he was already outside the planet, on a large ship.

“My Lord!”

Seeing this person, everyone on the ship immediately bowed.

They were the people who had just returned from Azure meteor star.

“Let’s go to Cangliu!”

The old man flicked his sleeves and shouted, “you don’t have to worry about the key. I’ve already sent out orders to have people collect it. Kill every one of those preachers you find. Now, I’m going to meet that devil.”

“This is the first time that the nine of us have worked together, and we’ve lost so much face. As the Supremes of the celestial realm, we, the Daluo heavenly Palace, naturally have to show our gratitude. Moreover, we can’t let such a demon move freely in the Daluo celestial realm,” the palace Lord said.

When everyone on the ship heard this, they all had strange expressions.

A few people opened their mouths but stopped.

“What’s wrong? Do you have something to say?” The old man shouted when he saw this.

“Lord taixuan, we have just been to the spiritual void realm. There are rumors about this devil, they said ...”

Someone said hesitantly.

“What should I say?”

The old man was a little unhappy as he rebuked.

“They said that the devil ... Is less than a hundred years old. He’s a ... Demon!” The man laughed bitterly as he spoke.

“What ... What?”

The old man was stunned.

Wasn’t that an old monster, an old devil? How did he suddenly become a monster? he’s not even a hundred years old!

How could this be possible?

Such a monster had never appeared in the Daluo heavenly Palace!

“We also just heard about it. It’s the people from Azure meteor star. They sent someone to the spiritual void realm, and then the news came out. They said that the monster once obtained Emperor ao Tian’s treasure, and his age was measured inside. He was only in his nineties!”

“This ... This ...”

The old man’s hands trembled as he clutched his long beard, his expression one of extreme shock.

A Dao integration stage freak who was less than a hundred years old?

This was too abnormal!

Even the Daluo heavenly Palace could not cultivate such a genius. Which celestial realm could have cultivated such a shocking figure?

“Unbelievable, this is simply unbelievable!”

He was a little excited and kept mumbling.

“My Lord, what ... Do we do now?”

An elder asked in a low voice.

“Well, let’s go and take a look first and check out the situation. If his identity as a monster is true, we must not act rashly, because the power behind him is not weaker than our Daluo heavenly Palace.”

“Besides, we don’t have much of a grudge against him. No one from the Daluo heavenly Palace died, so we don’t have to provoke such a person.”

The old man said in a deep voice.

“Yes, my Lord!”

All the cultivators on the ship responded in unison.

Then, the warship turned around and headed toward Cang Liu star again.

At this time, on the other side of the universe, on a small ship, ning Yuzhen stood at the bow of the ship, holding a purple crystal in his hand, his expression extremely dazed.

She had just come down from the spiritual void realm, and she had heard the news from above.

How could that damn guy be a monster?

Furthermore, he was an existence several times more demonic than her.

She was the most outstanding genius of the Jing Yan house, and had been nurtured by the sect. She had also advanced to the ninth tribulation at the age of three hundred, but that guy was only in his nineties!

She couldn't believe it at all, and she couldn't accept it.

"Hmph! This news might not be true, but even if it is, I will take revenge for this, and I will do it ruthlessly."

Her red lips pursed as she muttered.

Her Phoenix eyes were filled with intense killing intent.
