

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2870

“So many of them died? How did this happen?”

The myriad beasts sect.

“Who are you?” an angry shout rang out in a large hall, shaking the surroundings.

“A demon can be a monster who’s not even a hundred years old?”

Then, there were exclamations of shock.

“How could there be such a heaven-defying monster in this world! You all immediately set off to the Azure meteor star and investigate. You must find out the identity of that person and confirm whether he is a monster or not. If he is not, immediately report back and this Lord will personally kill him!”

“If so, this matter will have to be put on hold for the time being.”

Soon, beams of divine light shot out of the hall. They all had the aura of the Dao integration realm. They boarded a large ship and quickly left the star.

The same thing was happening in the sun Moon sect, the Xuanyuan clan, the great emperor mountain and other forces.

The large ships once again headed toward Cangliu.

Their target was the devil.

If this devil was just an old monster, they would not hesitate to kill him. However, if he was a monster, they would have to consider the consequences of doing so.

Although this person might have come from the distant celestial realm and would probably take a few years to get here, for cultivators, a few years was just a matter of an instant. It was too fast.

If he killed this monster, his opponent’s master would find out and immediately come to kill him.

To be able to cultivate such a heaven-defying figure, how could it be an ordinary force? it was probably much more powerful than the Daluo heavenly Palace. The consequences of offending such a force would be very serious.

Somewhere in the starry sky, in a deep, dark void, a large ship was speeding.

At the bow of the ship stood many figures.

They were burly, muscular, and like iron towers. They were all wearing golden kasayas and were surrounded by divine light.

The person in the lead was particularly tall and had an ugly face with a fierce expression. He was the first elder of the sky of great joy, a peak realm expert.

Such a peak expert had different titles in various forces. For example, the Daluo heavenly Palace was called the Dao master, while in the heaven of great joy, they were called the Buddha.

After this person advanced to the peak, he was also given the title of the great joy Buddha.

He was looking into the depths of the starry sky ahead, and a shocking killing intent surged in his eyes.

In a few days, he would arrive at Cangliu. He would personally kill that demon, seize his celestial artifact, and refine his physical body into a puppet.

“Hmph! What monster? he’s just bluffing!”

Suddenly, he snorted and sneered in disdain.

He thought of the rumor.

Along the way, he had also been to the spiritual void realm a few times, so he had naturally heard of that rumor.

He scoffed at this.

It was already very heaven-defying for a cultivator in his nineties to have advanced to the ninth tribulation. How could he kill a Dao integration stage super mighty figure? this was simply impossible!

That guy must have been scared and deliberately spread such news to intimidate the nine forces.

However, he was not a fool. How could he believe such an obvious lie?

When the people around him heard this, they all sneered.

“This person is really ridiculous. Does he think that everyone in the world is a fool to believe such an outrageous rumor?”

“I’m 90 years old and I’m still at the 7th tribulation. He’s already able to kill a Dao integration expert. This story is ridiculous!”

They all sneered.

They didn’t believe the rumor at all.

“When we arrive at Cangliu, we’ll first find that guy. It’ll be best if we find him. If we can’t, then we’ll capture everyone related to him. If there’s no such person, then I’ll capture everyone in Cangliu and see if he still shows up!”

Buddha Dale said coldly. His face was extremely ferocious and terrifying.

It wasn’t like he hadn’t destroyed a star before on the day of great joy, so it didn’t matter if he did it again.

“Right! Capture all of them!”

“If he doesn’t show himself, we’ll slaughter Cang Liu Xing.”

The few people on the left and right shouted, their expressions somewhat excited.

“There’s no need for that!”

At this moment, an abrupt voice was heard.

“Who is it?”

On the ship, the monks’ expressions changed.

This voice clearly came from the void outside the ship.

However, when they looked around, they didn’t see anyone.

“Whoosh, whoosh, Whoosh!”

A few more sounds.

Beams of divine light suddenly appeared and surged in all directions. Upon closer inspection, one would realize that they were array flags.

In the next moment, layers of golden light screens spread out in all directions and covered the ship.

Everyone on the ship was stunned.

They didn’t panic at all. In fact, they even wanted to laugh.

There was actually someone who dared to ambush his big ship of the sky of great joy. Was this person a fool?

The people on this ship were not ordinary people from the sect of great joy. The elders were sitting on a Buddha from the sect of great joy, as well as eight great guardians. With such strength, even if the other big shots were to attack, they would not be able to stop this huge ship.

He didn’t know who this guy was, but he was really overestimating himself.

“This array is quite advanced!”

With his hands behind his back, the euphoria Buddha glanced at the formation flags in all directions. The corners of his mouth lifted and he laughed mockingly.

The person who attacked was really a fool. He wanted to ambush his people from the sky of great joy, so why did he use such a trapping formation? shouldn't he have used a killing formation?

This guy definitely didn't think that these great formations wouldn't be able to trap them, but would trap himself to death instead.

“Come out! We'll just stand here and wait for you to kill us!”

He even removed the formation on the ship and shouted in all directions.

“Come on!”

The protectors on the left and right also shouted and laughed.

At this time, in the void to the left, a ripple appeared, and a white-robed figure stepped out.

“Who are you?”

The euphoria Buddha focused his gaze and was stunned. He was slightly shocked.

He had a deep impression of this fellow. Wasn't he the white-robed demon? he had seen him before when he was searching his soul.

But why would this guy appear here?

Could it be that this person had already anticipated that the day of great joy would send someone to kill him, so he had been waiting here long ago to intercept and kill him?

Si si si!

Such courage!

What an arrogant fellow!

However, this fellow had probably miscalculated. The person who had come this time was no ordinary Dao integration expert. It was him, the great elder, a peak expert, and eight Guardian-level elders. This was more than enough to kill this fellow.

“You're really bold! Unfortunately, you've miscalculated!”

He sneered and waved his sleeve. Rays of divine light also flew out and spread in all directions, turning into layers of light screens. “You didn't expect that someone of my level would come, right?”

“No! I’ve been waiting for you!”

Tang Hao took a step forward. His body flickered like a ghost, and he was already in front of the warship.

“You ... You know who I am?”

When the euphoric Buddha heard this, he was slightly shocked.

“Isn’t it the great elder of happy heaven and the happy Buddha?” Tang Hao looked at him and smiled.

The look on the joyous Buddha’s face changed.

This guy knew it was him, yet he still dared to show up and kill him!

What was he relying on?

Could it be that there were still people hiding in the four corners?

He immediately turned around and activated his divine eyes to scan the void in all directions.

However, after scanning the area, he found nothing.

There was really only one person in front of him!

Could it be that this fellow wanted to kill him, a peak expert, and his eight great protectors by himself?

This was too arrogant and overconfident!
