

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2872

The starry sky was deathly silent.

At the rear of the broken warship, euphoria Buddha stood there in a daze. His golden Kasaya was already in tatters and he looked extremely pathetic.

He looked ahead in a daze, his face full of disbelief.

In just a short while, the eight guardians of his day of great joy were gone!

In the face of this fellow, Dao integration stage guardians were merely slightly stronger ants that could be easily slaughtered!

What was even more terrifying was that he, a peak-level expert, could not even fight back in front of this guy. He could only be crushed.

This guy ... Who the hell was he?

Which Emperor-level monster from the celestial realm?

Looking at the white-robed figure standing at the bow of the ship, he could not help but tremble in fear.

This was a true great emperor!

It had been a long time since such a person had appeared in this starry sky!

He was filled with regret. If he had known, he wouldn't have been so rash. He didn't even know who this person was before he came personally. Now, he had run into a terrifying great emperor. Even if he could escape, he would be skinned.

"What's that?"

Suddenly, he saw the dark golden furnace shake, and a huge ball of golden light flew out.

He took a closer look and gasped.

That was Dao attainment!

"How could it be so fast ... What kind of furnace is this?"

He looked at the furnace and felt his scalp go numb.

It was too fast!

In just a few breaths, a protector was refined to death.

One had to know that these guardians were not ordinary Dao integration experts. They were the best among the Dao integration experts, so it was very difficult to kill or refine them. If he were to do it, it would take him at least one or two months to refine one to death.

However, it had only been a few breaths!

It was so fast that he found it hard to believe.

This furnace must be a rare divine item!

Gulu!

Seeing that person open his mouth and swallow Dao attainment, his whole body trembled again, and he swallowed his saliva with difficulty.

His face was deathly pale.

This guy was not only a great emperor, but he was also a cruel and ruthless person. He was the kind of person that could not be provoked!

And yet, he had provoked such a person!

“If I can escape, I can’t go against this person anymore. When I return to the sect, I’ll immediately seal off the star field. This guy is so powerful, he must be close to Ascension. Once he ascends, everything will be fine!”

He pondered to himself.

At the same time, he was also thinking about how to escape.

In all four directions, there were layers of great formations set up by this fellow.

The surroundings were still deathly silent.

He just stood there, watching as the white-robed Emperor took out large golden Dao beads from the furnace and swallowed them.

“It’s done!”

Suddenly, a look of joy appeared in his eyes.

In the next moment, a destructive aura gushed out from the warship under his feet. The body of the warship began to expand, and endless golden light burst out.

Tang Hao, who had just swallowed a Dao attainment pill, looked toward the warship.

This was a sign of self-destruction!

The bald donkey wanted to take the chance to escape!

He kept the divine furnace and was about to rush forward.

However, at this moment, with a bang, the ship below exploded and swallowed him.

Peng Peng Peng!

The layers of light screens around him also cracked.

At this moment, it was as if a small star had exploded. Endless light continued to surge out and spread in all directions.

And within this light, there was a tiny stream of light that was caught in it and escaped.

After escaping for a distance, it entered the void.

“Hmph!”

After a while, the aftermath of the explosion slowly dissipated, and the light faded away, revealing Tang Hao’s figure.

The power of the warship’s explosion was not enough to hurt him, but it had delayed him.

“I’ll let you run for a while, I’ll deal with you later!”

He took out the divine furnace again and began to extract and refine his Dao attainment.

These eight protectors had good cultivation. They had more than one Dao bead in their bodies. Some of them had already formed their second one. In total, they had about 14 Dao beads.

Generally speaking, five Dao attainment points were the peak.

This was because his body had basically reached its limit after accommodating five Dao attainment beads. The immortal mansion and his physical body had both reached their limits and couldn’t hold any more.

This was especially so for the immortal mansion, because the Taoist connotation was born in the immortal mansion.

An immortal mansion was also the foundation of a cultivator.

Only by continuing to strengthen or even reforge the immortal abode could it continue to contain more Dao attainments. Only in this way could one knock open the gate of immortality and ascend to become an immortal.

This was because five Dao attainment points were far from enough to knock open the gate of immortality.

As long as one reached seven or eight beads, there was a great chance of knocking open the gate of immortality.

Therefore, when one reached the peak, most people would be stuck and unable to improve, because it was extremely difficult to continue to strengthen immortal mansion. What was needed was not ordinary materials, but immortal materials.

But this immortal material was something that was hard to find in the world.

As a result, many people would be stuck here. In the origin immortal domain, there were many peak experts, but only a few could ascend.

One was that Dao attainment was hard to condense, and two was that immortal materials were hard to find, which led to him being unable to advance.

However, in the Holy region, Supreme Xuan Hong and the others were not stumped by immortal materials, but by Dao attainment. In the Holy region, it was forbidden to kill each other, so they could not snatch Dao attainment. They could only rely on themselves to slowly condense it.

It was not like this place, where one could snatch anything they wanted as long as they were strong enough.

However, this rule did not apply to him.

Because his immortal mansion was Reforged with true immortal materials, the speed at which he condensed his Taoist connotation was much faster than others, not to mention the capacity, which was naturally several times that of others.

Even he didn't know how much cultivation this special immortal mansion of his could hold.

In any case, after devouring all of these people's cultivation, his immortal mansion would be fine.

If it had been an ordinary cultivator, the immortal mansion would have crumbled long ago.

"Fifteen Dao attainment!"

Tang Hao smiled delightedly after he swallowed the last Dao attainment pill.

The amount of Dao attainment in his body was three times that of an ordinary peak stage cultivator. His cultivation was also several times that of them, almost catching up with the realm of the physical body.

Now, he had basically reached perfection in both body and magic.

Now, he had the confidence to knock open the gate of immortality and ascend to become an immortal.

However, he didn't want to do that, because if he ascended now, he would go up to the immortal world created by those ancient rebels. Moreover, who knew if he could come back down after going up?

He still had many things to do in this world. As long as the threat of the nine-colored tribe was not eliminated, he would not be able to ascend.

Also, he hadn't found star pupil, sia, and the others, so how could he ascend easily?

He could only go back with peace of mind after everything here was settled.

He stood in place and pondered for a moment. Then he reached out his hand and took all the things on the protectors. He opened them and looked at them, then put them all into his clear sky ring.

"Now, it's your turn!"

After putting away the divine furnace, he looked into the distant starry sky with killing intent surging in his eyes.

To cut grass, one must remove the roots. This Happy Buddha could not be let go.

The next moment, he tore open the void and gave chase.
