

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2879

In the deep starry sky, beams of divine light flew.

Their destination was the same, the Forbidden Zone in the starry sky.

Originally, it wasn't a forbidden area, but an unusually prosperous star field.

But since the arrival of that giant starry sky beast, everything changed. Everyone began to flee, and when the stars inside were devoured one by one, this star field became a dead land, a forbidden zone, and no one dared to enter.

This time, someone was bold enough to take the risk and go in to explore, only to find out that the space beast was about to go into hibernation.

When the news spread to the spiritual void realm, it exploded.

There were people from all over the starry sky who had heard the news and were rushing over.

"We're almost there!"

After flying for a while, they slowed down.

In front of them, there was a ring of divine light.

They were all xiuzhe that had come early and had been waiting there.

They had all stopped there because the giant beast inside had not completely gone into hibernation. Once they entered and disturbed it, all their efforts would be in vain.

They slowly drove over and stopped there.

Figures could be seen on the ships.

Some of them visited each other and had a heated conversation. Some of them also ventured deeper into the restricted area from time to time, wanting to see if the giant beast had gone into hibernation.

"Waa! What kind of ship is that?"

Suddenly, from one side of the starry sky, a huge ship that was hundreds of thousands of feet long pierced through the void and slowly sailed over.

The arrival of this giant ship immediately attracted the attention of the xiuzhe in the surroundings.

This kind of body size was really too eye-catching.

Generally speaking, the larger the size of a spaceship, the higher the grade, and the greater the origin. A spaceship like this, which was hundreds of thousands of feet long, was usually owned by the nine magnates or the slightly inferior forces.

“It’s the proud Sun Star, the Wu clan ‘s!”

Someone glanced at the ship and recognized it from the symbol on the outside.

“So it’s the Wu clan! No wonder it’s so imposing!”

Everyone immediately came to a realization.

This celestial realm was very large, and there were countless forces. The top forces were naturally the nine magnates, and among the nine magnates, there was also a saying that there was one who surpassed the eight strongest. The one who surpassed them was the Daluo heavenly Palace, the unshakeable sovereign of the celestial realm.

The Daluo heavenly Palace alone had produced more than a dozen genuine Immortals.

The top eight were the rising Giants like great emperor mountain, great joy heaven, and Jing Yan house.

Further down were the thirty-six stars, which referred to the thirty-six superpowers that occupied a single ninth-grade star.

The Wu clan was one of them.

Each of these forces was not ordinary. They had at least one peak-level expert in charge, and the next Big Shot would definitely come from one of these forces.

Everyone looked at the slowly approaching warship with a look of awe.

In their eyes, these forces were no different from the nine magnates. They were all existences that could not be provoked.

“Look, there’s another ship coming. It seems to be the Yue clan. Another small big Shot!”

After a few hours, another huge ship passed through the void and jumped over, causing a commotion.

As time passed, more and more forces arrived. There were also many wandering cultivators who came from all over.

Currently, most of the people who were mixed in the spiritual void realm were still rogue cultivators.

“Eh? What’s that?”

When someone looked around the starry sky, he suddenly noticed a stream of light in the distance. It was moving at an incredible speed and arrived in front of him in the blink of an eye.

This speed had completely shocked him.

He had never seen an airboat that could travel so fast.

“That was fast!”

There were also quite a few people who noticed it, and they all cried out in surprise, somewhat speechless.

It was definitely the fastest flying boat they had ever seen.

“Who is that person? F * ck!”

When the flying boat stopped and they looked over, they were stunned.

On the deck of the flying boat stood four figures. The one in the lead was a man in white, and behind him were three beautiful women. Each of them was as beautiful as a flower, and their figures were graceful and moving. They were all rare and peerless beauties.

Most importantly, their temperaments were different. They were flowers in spring and chrysanthemums in autumn, each with their own style.

Their eyes were almost dazzled by what they saw.

Then, their eyes turned red as they looked at the man in white.

If looks could kill, they would have already cut this beast into a thousand pieces.

A man with three extreme beauties by his side, if this wasn't a beast, what was it!

“Animal!”

Someone gritted his teeth and said hatefully, his eyes full of envy and jealousy.

“What a good-for-nothing!”

More people noticed and turned around.

Many people glanced at it, and their eyes revealed a bit of disgust. Their eyes were even more contemptuous.

Behind the man in white, the three women looked extremely respectful. They were obviously servants or maidservants. This also showed that this man in white was a super dandy.

Only popinjays would bring a maid with them when they went out, because they were here to have fun, not to look for treasure.

Any decent person would know that this trip was risky. Why would he bring three maidservants over, and they were all so delicate and beautiful?

“I seem to be despised!”

Tang Hao stood at the bow of the ship. He touched his nose and smiled awkwardly when he saw the disdainful looks from the people around him.

Such a scene was familiar.

When he had taken Yun Rong out, he seemed to have encountered such a gaze.

“Young master, why do you care about them? they’re just envious of you!”

Behind him, Ji Qiu Ci chuckled.

“Young master, let’s just do it to the end. They’ll die of envy!”

She whispered in Tang Hao’s ear.

She smiled and fetched a chair for Tang Hao to sit on. Then, she and Ji chunxuan started massaging his shoulders.

“F * ck!”

“F * ck!”

The rows of ships in front of them instantly cursed.

“Where did this popinjay come from? You’re too indecent!”

“You beast! You animal!”

Countless people gritted their teeth, and their gazes swept over like knives.

“Although this person is a popinjay, I’m afraid his background is not ordinary judging from the looks of those three women! I don’t know which family has produced such a good-for-nothing!”

On the Wu clan’s warship, a few gazes swept over and discussed.

Looking at the three women’s appearances, all of them were extraordinary. One of them had an even more outstanding temperament. She was pure, beautiful, and Holy. Her beauty did not lose to fairy ning, who was famous throughout the entire immortal realm.

How could an ordinary power have such a beauty?

They glanced at him a few times and then stopped looking at him. He was just a popinjay and wasn’t worth their attention. He wasn’t a threat at all.

They activated their divine eyes and Dharma eyes and continued to explore the Forbidden Zone.

“If we can find some immortal materials this time, that would be great. Our ancestor will have a chance to break through, and our Wu clan will have a chance to become the tenth tycoon of the immortal realm!” One of them mumbled with a look of anticipation.

“Yup! We’re just one step away!”

As they discussed, they turned around and looked into the ship.

Their Wu clan placed great importance on this opportunity. Their ancestor was here personally, if there were immortal materials inside, their Wu clan would get them at all costs.
