

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2885

In the blood sea.

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve, and countless pieces of metal flew out.

With a flash of fire, the gold and iron were all refined and turned into various parts.

Clang clang clang!

Soon, these parts combined and turned into a Grand Hall.

Then, he took out even more gold and iron to cast palaces and pavilions, lining them up in order.

“Alright, I’m done!”

After four hours, he stopped.

A majestic palace complex had already been built.

He summoned the three women and told them his plan.

“This is a really good place!”

Hearing this, Ji Ruyin smiled in delight.

No one would have thought of building a cave dwelling in the body of an immortal level beast. Even if they knew, they would not dare to come here. This was indeed the safest place in the starry sky.

“Young master, aren’t we still looking for the ring?”

Ji Qiuci said after entering the palace and decorating it.

“No rush!”

Tang Hao said.

He had some new ideas on how to find the ring.

In the past half a month, he had only found a few stars. At this speed, he would have to spend several years to find every star.

He could not afford to waste so much time.

These days, he had been thinking of other ways, and one of them seemed to be quite feasible.

“We won’t be going out for the time being. You guys cultivate well.”

“Let’s go,” Tang Hao said, then returned to his own palace.

He sat down cross-legged and flipped his palm, and a purple crystal appeared in his palm. It was the key to the spiritual void realm.

He used his divine sense to investigate, and in the next moment, his divine soul was stripped away and entered a chaotic space.

As he floated upwards, he saw many people rushing in from all directions and floating upwards.

“Ai! Hurry up!”

“Don’t cut the queue!”

It was noisy upstairs.

Tang Hao floated to the top and waited in line for a long time before entering the spiritual void realm.

As soon as he entered the yellow mud village, he looked around.

This was the first time he had entered the spiritual void realm with such an identity after it had opened.

“Hey! Look, that’s a Virgin!”

Many people looked at him and laughed.

“You guys are the chicks!”

Tang Hao rolled his eyes at them and said to himself.

He blended into the crowd and walked along the street.

The yellow mud village was different from what he had designed. It had expanded and there were many restaurants on both sides of the street. These were all rented by some forces using fragments.

The currency in this world was all sorts of fragments.

“Four treasures Pavilion!”

After taking a few steps, he stopped in front of a restaurant. The words “four treasures Pavilion” were written on the plaque.

“Sir, are you here to drink or to do business?”

As soon as he entered, someone came up to him and said warmly.

“Business!”

Tang Hao said to him.

This four treasure Pavilion was one of the largest Chambers of Commerce in the origin immortal domain. After renting this restaurant, they had also started the business of selling fragments. Whether it was buying or selling fragments, they could do it here.

“Then, Sir, please come inside!”

The man led Tang Hao to a private room.

A middle-aged man came out after they were seated. He cupped his hands at Tang Hao and said, “May I know what kind of business you are doing?”

“I’m selling!”

Tang Hao reached out and flicked his hand over the table. A fine piece of purple gold appeared, shining with divine light.

The man’s eyes froze.

Even his breathing had quickened.

Purple gold fragment!

This was good stuff!

In the spiritual void realm, a total of five types of fragments were produced. The first grade was dark gold, a rare item. It seemed that only by offering could one obtain one or two fragments. By killing ferocious beasts, only one fragment had dropped so far. This probability was almost impossible.

As for the second grade, it was the purple gold fragment.

The drop rate was also extremely low. Ever since the opening of the spiritual void realm, only a hundred or so had dropped.

“Hahaha! What an honored guest!”

The next moment, he laughed out loud and his expression became even more enthusiastic.

“What do you want? Go ahead, Jingshi? Or an immortal medicine? Or a pill?”

“I ... Don’t want any of these!”

Tang Hao shook his head. “I need to gather some information!”

“Oh? What’s the news?”

The man was shocked.

What kind of information could be worth a purple gold fragment?

This was probably not some simple news!

His expression turned grave.

“Not long ago, I lost a ring, and I want to find it! Therefore, I want your four treasures Chamber of Commerce to help me investigate. At the same time, spread the news and offer a huge reward for clues.” Tang Hao said.

“Just this?”

The man was startled and somewhat stunned.

He had thought that it would be something incredible, but it turned out to be just finding a ring.

That’s weird, how could something like a ring be lost?

He sized up Tang Hao and felt that something was off.

The ring was the most important thing to a xiuzhe. Usually, unless they were dead, they would not lose it.

“Alright! Don’t worry, our four treasures Chamber of Commerce’s branches are spread all over the starry sky. It’s definitely the fastest way to find out information. We’ll also help you make a reward order and post it on every star in the spiritual void realm.”

He didn’t ask much and said enthusiastically.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded.

“Please draw the ring so we can post the reward. Also, the time when it was lost is also very important.” The man said.

After he finished speaking, he took out a piece of paper and handed it over.

When Tang Hao was done, he put it away.

Tang Hao left the room and found a seat by the window. He sat down and ordered some food and wine.

“With the four treasures trading company’s ability, they will soon spread the bounty to every star. There will definitely be someone who has seen this ring and can provide some clues.”

“If the person with the ring sees it, there’s a high chance that he’ll hand it over in exchange for the reward. After all, the ring is useless in his hands. It’s just a burden.”

“Also, there are so many people in the spiritual illusionary realm from various stars. I might be able to find some clues, but I can’t post it myself. I can only rely on the four treasures Chamber of Commerce.”

As he drank, he muttered to himself.

“The next step is to wait!”

He mumbled to himself and shook off these thoughts, drinking his wine in peace.

“In this world, communication is still a little troublesome. There are too many people, and they’re all scattered around the villages. Why don’t I add a friend system? it’ll be much more convenient to communicate this way.”

After drinking for a while, Tang Hao pondered how he could perfect this world.

The friend system seemed to be a good idea.

With a thought, one of his true Spirits in the Sky began to deduce how to add a friend system in this world.

As he was drinking, his ears suddenly twitched. He heard a loud noise coming from the street below.

“Move! Move! Don’t you see fairy ning is here?”

Then, someone shouted.

Tang Hao’s expression changed when he heard that.
