

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2886

“Get out of the way!”

“Get lost!”

On the street, a few young men were walking in large strides, driving away the pedestrians.

They all had fierce and overbearing expressions.

The pedestrians turned around to look, and their expressions changed drastically. They didn't dare to resist, and they all moved to the sides in a panic.

Behind him, a group of people was walking over. All of them were emitting golden light and had an extraordinary aura.

They were like stars surrounding the moon, surrounding a woman in the middle.

This woman was born with an alluring and peerless face. Her temperament was even more out of this world, like a goddess from the nine Heavens, noble and inviolable.

“It's fairy ning!”

“That group of people are his confidants!”

A few cries of surprise came from the crowd.

Everyone's expression was somewhat fearful.

Fairy Guang Ning herself had an extraordinary status. She was one of the nine big shots and the successor of the Jing Yan house. Not to mention her group of close friends, all of them had extraordinary status and were heaven's favorites.

This group of people was basically the most outstanding group of people in the younger generation.

Who would dare to provoke such a formation?

“You people are really bold to still dare to stay in the spiritual void realm. Don't think that we can't catch you. What are you still standing here for? What an eyesore!”

Among this group of people, there was a young man who pointed at the people on both sides of the road and shouted arrogantly.

“Fairy ning, look. These people are really shameless and Rascals. With their status, do they deserve to be in the spiritual void realm?”

He then looked at fairy ning, who was in the middle, and said.

This man was the genius of the Xuanyuan clan, Xuanyuan long, who had appeared on the Azure meteor star.

“It is! How could they be qualified to enter the spiritual void realm! Originally, this spiritual void realm should have belonged to us nine magnates!” Someone in the group of young men responded. He looked around with a look of contempt and arrogance.

Ning Yuzhen pursed his lips and smiled, but did not respond.

However, her gaze that looked around her carried a hint of coldness.

Indeed, this spiritual void realm should have been in her nine magnates ‘pockets.

It was a pity that it was ruined by that senior Ling Xu.

Although in reality, the nine magnates were still collecting the keys to suppress some forces that wanted to exchange for the inheritance of true immortality, the effect was not good.

This immortal realm was simply too vast.

As for those preachers, they were too cunning. They appeared and disappeared unpredictably. There was no way they could catch or kill all of them.

They were even more unable to stop these people from swarming into the spiritual void realm.

“Al! Young masters, you can’t say that!” A moment later, she smiled and said in a tender voice, “the senior who created this spiritual void realm said that everyone can come here to benefit the common people. Therefore, this spiritual void realm does not belong to anyone!”

“This senior Ling Xu’s mind is really as vast as the sea of stars. It’s worth learning from!”

As she spoke, she raised her head and looked up at the sky.

The group of young men in the surroundings were stunned for a moment before they hurriedly nodded and said, “Yes, yes, yes! Well said, fairy ning!”

“I think fairy ning’s breadth of mind is not inferior to this senior ‘s!”

There were even people who started to flatter and praise him.

In the restaurant, Tang Hao almost spat out the wine he had just swallowed.

F * ck!

A bunch of bootlickers!

He cursed in his heart.

“Al! Young master Lu, you’re overpraising me. Yuzhen’s magnanimity is far inferior to this senior!” Ning Yuzhen smiled sweetly, but his eyes were quite pleased.

“Young masters, we haven’t gathered for a long time. It just so happens that this spiritual void realm is convenient for us to meet. Today, let’s go around for a stroll, look at the scenery, recite poems, and do something right. Wouldn’t that be great?”

Ning Yuzhen said.

Her tone was a little pretentious, and Tang Hao felt uncomfortable when he heard it.

However, to the group of young men, it was like sweet dew, and they enjoyed it.

“Good, good, good!”

“With this spiritual illusionary realm, it’ll be much more convenient for us to meet. I heard that there are many beautiful places here, and it’s the most suitable for a scenic tour!”

They all laughed.

“Fairy, today is a great day. We must celebrate!” Xuan Yuanlong said.

“Hahaha! That’s right, that demon was really stupid beyond cure! For an immortal material, he buried himself in the body of the star Devourer beast. Let’s see how he’ll come out. That’s a terrifying beast that even great emperors are afraid of!”

“That’s an idiot! Idiot!”

The group of young men laughed mockingly.

The news that the star-devouring beast was going to sleep had spread throughout the spiritual void realm. Many people had rushed there, including many forces. However, they were a step too late. When they arrived, they saw that the huge beast had already woken up.

Later on, they heard that the white-robed demon who had once caused a sensation had also rushed over to join in the fun. In the end, for an immortal material, he took the initiative to awaken this giant beast and trapped himself inside.

It’s been almost a day, and he still hasn’t come out. I’m afraid he’s really going to die inside.

When they heard the news, they almost wanted to celebrate.

This devil in white dared to attack the goddess in their hearts. He deserved to die. They wanted to cut him into a thousand pieces.

However, because that guy was too strong, they didn’t dare to really make a move. They only dared to curse.

Now that they heard that this guy was seeking his own death, they were naturally overjoyed.

Ning Yuzhen also smiled, his expression somewhat happy.

This news was truly comforting!

“Hey! That guy didn’t seem to be much! If he dares to come to the spiritual void realm, see how I’ll deal with him! I’m going to kill him until he cries for his parents!”

“That’s right!”

Another person sneered, his expression full of disdain.

In this spiritual void realm, only the divine soul could come up, and nothing else could be brought up. The battles here were all based on Dao techniques.

They would not lose in this aspect.

If that guy dared to come up and was caught by them, he would only end up being chased to death.

“I’ll block him until he can’t even leave the village!”

Some even raised their hands and pointed to the sky, extremely arrogant.

“Aiyo!”

But then, he gasped in a low voice. A plate of leftovers was thrown out from the restaurant next to him and covered his head.

“Who is it? Who the hell threw it! Get out here!”

He wiped his head, his face contorted in anger.

D * MN it!

He dared to ruin his image in front of his goddess. How could he tolerate this?

He immediately shouted at the top of the restaurant.

The others also raised their heads to look, their faces full of anger.

This dish must have been thrown out on purpose. Otherwise, how could it be so fast and just happened to be on the head?

Who was this person who was so audacious!

“Hello!”

In the next moment, a handsome face peeked out of the window and smiled at them. He even waved at them, his smile exceptionally bright.

The group of people focused their eyes and were stunned.
