

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2893

"It's just an act, it won't take long!"

The black-robed woman said.

Tang Hao furrowed his brows.

He had never thought that this person's request would be so strange. He didn't want the treasure, but instead wanted him to pretend to be his Dao companion.

"Can I ask the reason?"

Tang Hao thought for a moment, then asked.

"Of course, I have to explain the reason clearly, because this matter may have some risks." The black-robed woman nodded.

"Fellow Daoist, do you know the history of the planet of the Holy beast?" she asked after a pause.

"I know a little!"

Tang Hao said.

"Then you should know that there used to be many ancient true immortals on this planet, but they all left after the celestial world was established. Although these true immortals took most of the people with them, a small number of people still stayed."

"And this is the origin of my Yun clan!"

The black-robed woman said.

"A descendant of a true immortal?"

Tang Hao's expression changed.

"That's right!" The black-robed woman nodded, and then there was a trace of bitterness in her tone, "this identity sounds very powerful, but in fact, it is of no use at all. Instead, it has brought endless suffering to my Yun clan."

"In the ancient times, the Yun clan was still extremely prosperous. But later on, we were constantly plotted against, and because of the internal strife within the clan, our strength plummeted."

"After I was born, the Yun clan was almost exterminated ..."

"Why?" Tang Hao could not help but ask.

“It’s because when I was born, my body was already pregnant with a spiritual Pearl. It’s a Supreme immortal treasure. It’s also this treasure that attracted the covetous eyes of all the forces on sacred beast planet, causing the Yun clan to be in trouble.”

“After that catastrophe, only a part of the Yun clan managed to escape. They found a remote place and survived. Now, we have finally recovered some strength.”

“However, those people still won’t let go of the Yun clan. Now, they’ve come to our door and forced us again!”

Tang Hao raised an eyebrow when he heard that.

A natural treasure!

This kind of talent was similar to the natural divine bones and divine eyes. They were all very impressive talents.

Considering that this person was a direct descendant of a true immortal, this spiritual Pearl was probably not ordinary. No wonder it had attracted so many people.

“But what does this have to do with pretending to be Dao-companions? If they force you, I’ll help you get rid of them. That’s all!”

Tang Hao was confused.

“Fellow Daoist, do you know which forces those people are from? They’re all the top forces on the planet, and some of them even have powerful forces backing them.”

The black-robed woman said with a bitter smile.

This white-robed fellow Daoist’s strength might be quite extraordinary. She could tell from the seal on the ring that he was here. That was why she wanted to find him.

However, compared to those forces, they were still far from it.

“And the reason why I asked you to pretend to be my Dao-companion is also because this spirit Pearl ... Is somewhat special.”

Then, she paused, as if she found it difficult to speak.

“What’s so special about it?”

Tang Hao was confused.

“Although this spiritual Pearl is born in my body, I can’t take it out or use it. The only way to take it out is ... To combine with someone and use the dual cultivation method.”

As she spoke, her tone gradually lowered, revealing a bit of shyness.

“There’s such a thing?”

Tang Hao’s jaw dropped when he heard that.

What the hell was this thing?

But after thinking about it carefully, he felt a little relieved.

This thing was somewhat similar to the mystic fairy Pearl in Xing Tong’s body, but there was no such F*cking restriction that it could only be taken out by dual cultivation.

“That’s why! There are countless people on sacred beast planet who want to be my partner. They want both my spiritual Pearl and me. That’s why I want you, fellow Daoist, to pretend to be my Dao partner and help me block the attack!”

“As long as I can hold them off for a while, when I reach the peak, I won’t have to fear them anymore.”

She said.

“I see!” Tang Hao nodded. “How long will that take?”

“A few months, I guess! Three months at most!”

She said, “although I’ve just advanced to the Dao integration realm, there are still several elders in the Yun clan, one of whom is about to advance to the Dao integration realm. By then, I can gather all six Dao beads and advance to the peak.”

Tang Hao furrowed his brows and pondered.

Three months at most, which was not a long time. He just happened to want to take a walk around the Holy beast planet and excavate the ruins left behind by True Monarch duo Bao, so he might as well agree.

Wasn’t it just blocking a bullet? it was too simple!

“Yes! But I need to get my ring back first. After all, you said it yourself, this is a risky thing to do.” Tang Hao said.

“Alright!”

She very generously pushed the ring over.

Tang Hao took it and immediately opened it.

The inside was still the same as before. His previous collection, the immortal materials, the immortal King Jade bottle, and the mobile cave abode were all still there.

After scanning through it, he put away the ring and looked at the black-robed woman opposite him. He cupped his hands and said, "I still don't know. How should I address you, fellow Daoist?"

"Just call me Fei Wan! In these few months, we'll be intimate Dao-companions."

The black-robed woman stood up and lifted her Jade-like hand to remove the veil.

A dazzlingly beautiful face was revealed. A pair of picturesque eyebrows, eyes like bright stars, and a pair of full, moist red lips under the tall nose.

Her skin was like white jade, so white that it seemed to be glowing.

Looking at her age, she seemed to be around 25 or 26, but the charm between her brows was extremely mature.

Tang Hao was stunned. He did not expect to see such a beautiful face under the veil.

Moreover, she had a mature charm that he rarely saw.

Then, her Jade-like hands pulled again, and the black robe fell.

A plump, graceful body appeared in front of him.

She was slender, tall, and especially mature. She was round and smooth, and her curves were particularly shocking under the black chiffon dress.

Tang Hao was surprised.

Very quickly, his eyes regained their clarity.

The woman in front of him really made his eyes light up.

Unlike the ye girl, Chun Xuan, and Qiu Ci, who had a slightly immature temperament, this one was especially mature and had the temperament of a mature beauty.

This kind of temperament was the most alluring, making people unable to help but be intoxicated.

No wonder she said that countless people on the planet of the sacred Beasts wanted both her spiritual Pearl and her.

She was slightly stunned to see him regain his senses so quickly.

With her charm, there were few men who could resist her.

"Then ... What should I call you?"

She asked.

“Surnamed Tang, name Chuan!” Tang Hao did not plan to change his identity, so he used that name.

“Oh! Then I’ll call you Chuan lang!”

She said with a smile.

When she smiled, her Phoenix eyes were filled with a myriad of flirtatious expressions.

“I won’t ask about your identity. You can just make up a story. This way, they will investigate you and it will drag on for a while. Is there anything else you need to do? If not, we will leave and return to my Yun clan!”

With that, she smiled sweetly and extended her slender hand.
