

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2894

In the sky, a ray of light was flying.

It was a carriage pulled by two flood Dragons.

Tang Hao sat cross-legged in the luxurious carriage.

His mind had already entered the vast heaven ring and was checking his herb garden. Meanwhile, his split souls were transferring the things that were originally in the immortal execution king ring into the vast heaven ring.

To him, this immortal execution king ring was already useless.

With Yun taking care of the herb garden, it was neat and all the plants were growing well.

Tang Hao planted all the plants that he had collected during this time.

At this moment, a pair of beautiful eyes peeked over from the other end of the carriage and sized him up.

“This person ... Is a little strange!”

Yun feiwan muttered in her heart.

She had not been able to distinguish this person's aura. It was very erratic and unpredictable. She could only tell that this person was at the ninth tribulation level. As for which level he was at, she could not tell.

Moreover, looking at this person's appearance, he didn't seem to be interested in her at all, which made her a little surprised.

She didn't think that her charm was so great that every man in the world liked her, but at least, every man would take a few more glances at her and be quite enthusiastic about her.

“Forget it. As long as he can help me and buy me some time, it's enough!”

As she thought of this, she shook her head and threw these thoughts to the back of her mind.

After flying for half a day, the carriage finally slowed down.

“Chuan lang, we've arrived at the Yun family!”

Yun feiwan opened her mouth and called out.

That tone was especially soft and intimate, as if they were really Dao companions.

Tang Hao opened his eyes and stood up.

“There are many spies in the Yun family. You have to act naturally later.” Yun feiwan got up and walked over. She looked at him carefully and shook her head. “Change your clothes!” How can there be nine tribulations, if one wears plain clothes, wouldn’t he look poor!”

“Then what should I exchange?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

He hadn’t worn the treasured clothing for a long time, and his ring didn’t have such things.

“Don’t you have any treasured clothing?”

She asked in surprise.

“No! I’ll wear plain clothes!” Tang Hao said.

This time, it was her turn to be surprised.

This was the first time she had seen someone with such a strange habit of dressing.

“Let me see!” She rummaged through her ring and found a black treasure garment.

Looking at the set of treasured clothes in her hands, she was a little hesitant, as if some memories had been evoked and she was a little scared.

“Why don’t you wear this one?” She hesitated for a moment before saying.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao took the clothes and quickly changed into them.

She turned around and focused her eyes. She was stunned, and her eyes were a little dazed.

“Who did you think of?”

Tang Hao glanced at her and smiled.

He was meticulous and good at observing people’s expressions, so he could naturally guess why she was like this.

“En!”

She replied softly, “but that’s all in the past. It’s been two or three thousand years. I can’t remember it clearly anymore.”

Then, she stepped forward and reached out to straighten his collar.

“Alright, I’m done!”

She took another step back, looked up and down, and smiled in satisfaction.

“Then let’s go out!”

She flicked her sleeves and opened the car door. Then, she grabbed his wrist and dragged him out.

There was a mountain outside, and the carriage was parked in front of the mountain Gate.

There were many figures standing in front of the door.

When they saw the two of them come down, they looked at Tang Hao from head to toe.

Many people frowned and revealed a bit of suspicion. There were also a few gazes that revealed strong hostility.

“You’re back!”

In front of them, a white-haired old man laughed and came up to them. “Fei Wan, this is the one you always mention, right?” He really has an extraordinary temperament and looks like a talented person! Come on! Don’t just stand here, hurry up and go in. ”

As he spoke, he led the two of them inside.

“Yup! Great elder, he’s the river Boy I was talking about. ”

Yun Fei smiled.

She held Tang Hao’s arm affectionately with one of her dainty hands, and her voluptuous body pressed against his.

“Greetings, great elder!”

Tang Hao was very cooperative. He put on a very intimate appearance and then warmly greeted the great elder.

“Ai! Don’t be so polite, we’re family! Hahaha!”

The great elder stroked his beard and laughed.

His acting skills were superb, and even Tang Hao could not find any fault with them.

Following that, many more people came up to them and escorted them through the mountain Gate.

They were very polite all the way up to a mountain peak. When they arrived at a Palace, everyone put away their enthusiasm.

“Fellow Daoist, thank you for agreeing to help!”

The great elder stepped forward and cupped his hands at Tang Hao.

“You’re too polite!”

Tang Hao returned the gesture.

“First elder, I think ... This person can’t do it!” Suddenly, someone stepped forward and pointed at Tang Hao with a disdainful look in his eyes.

This man looked to be in his forties and was also wearing a black robe. He was a little thin and had an ordinary appearance.

Judging from his aura, he was at the Dao integration stage.

A few of them looked at Tang Hao with dissatisfaction.

“Fourth brother, why is he not doing well?”

The first elder rebuked.

“Look at his appearance. He’s frivolous and not mature at all. He’s more like a young boy or a lecherous man. How could you find such a person to pretend to be Fei Wan’s cultivation partner?” The man rebuked.

He looked at the two of them who were so close to each other, and his eyes were filled with jealousy.

“What fourth brother said makes sense. His appearance is too young!”

Someone echoed.

Generally, old monsters who had lived for thousands of years would rarely choose to use such a young appearance.

“Fourth elder, how can you judge a book by its cover? besides, this person has already given our Yun family a lot of face by agreeing to help.” Yun feiwan scolded.

“What Fei Wan said makes sense! Fourth brother, you’ve crossed the line!”

The great elder nodded.

“But, with his strength, can he suppress that group of people? If you’re not strong enough, you’ll lose your life!” The fourth elder said.

“You don’t have to worry about that. When the time comes, we’ll help out more and not let those people get their way. As long as we delay it for a few months, when seventh brother has his cultivation, our Yun family will have a peak Supreme martial artist. Then we won’t have to be afraid of them.”

The great elder said.

The fourth elder didn't say anything more, but his face was still very gloomy.

"Alright, this matter is settled! Fei Wan, please send this guest to rest!" The great elder looked around and said in an unquestionable tone.

"This way!"

Yun feiwan smiled and led Tang Hao out of the hall.

When they reached the front of the hall, she leaned over and held Tang Hao's hand. She smiled affectionately and sweetly as she called out, "Chuan lang, you must be tired from the journey to the Holy beast planet. Let's go and rest first!"

Then, he pulled Tang Hao toward a nearby mountain peak.

The crowd in the hall gradually dispersed.

Only the fourth elder remained standing, looking in the direction of the door. His face was particularly gloomy, and his eyes were a little cold.
