

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2900

Tang Hao looked at the spot on the map and nodded.

He had done a lot of research, so he naturally knew about the treasure Mountain.

“However, many people have explored the treasure Mountain, and there’s basically nothing left.” Yun feiwan frowned and said.

“That’s not for sure!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

He had already seen the means of true Lord duo Bao in the body of the star-devouring beast. Only a few people under the true immortal realm could crack such profound array Dao. There must be a similar array in the place where he lived.

“Then let’s go and explore first!”

Yun feiwan didn’t argue. She nodded and said softly,”

Of course, she felt that she wouldn’t be able to find anything, but since this person was willing to go, she naturally had to accompany him.

After six hours, they finally arrived at their destination.

“That’s the Treasure Mountain!”

The carriage stopped, and she stepped out of the carriage, pointing to a vast mountain road ahead.

Tang Hao stood up and looked up. He saw clouds and mist enshrouding the mountain, and immortal Qi exuding from it. He was surprised. “Why isn’t anyone occupying this place?”

He could tell at a glance that there were Supreme-grade immortal veins in this mountain, which should be a place that all forces must fight for.

“This is the residence of a true immortal,” Yun feiwan said. “No ordinary force would dare to occupy it. Furthermore, there are some true immortal restrictions on the mountain, making it extremely dangerous. Only a few rogue cultivators would dare to occupy an area and open up a cave.”

“I see! It’s a waste of a good place!”

Tang Hao said, shaking his head.

“Let’s go!”

Yun feiwan kept the Dragon carriage and led the way into the mountains.

“Look at these palaces. They’ve been searched countless times. Anything of value has been taken away. The tiles and floor tiles have all been taken away.” As he flew, he saw some palaces and buildings in the mountain.

Every one of them was clean, and what was left were some broken walls.

Tang Hao scanned through them but did not find anything.

“Let’s continue searching!”

He continued to sweep forward and spread out his divine sense, exploring every inch of the mountain range.

Yun feiwan followed behind him without saying a word.

Once this person finished exploring the place and found nothing, he would naturally leave.

After walking around the entire mountain range, she saw his disappointed face and couldn’t help but smile, “Young master Tang, is there anything? Why don’t we go? there are still many immortal ruins!”

Tang Hao shook his head.

“Turn it again!”

He mumbled, turned around, and continued to explore.

This time, he was even more careful. He walked and stopped, closing his eyes from time to time to carefully sense.

“There’s something strange about this place!”

After a while, he stopped in a Valley, sensed for a while, and pointed at the valley.

“What’s strange?”

Yun feiwan swept her gaze across the room and her eyes were filled with shock.

This was a medicinal garden that had been visited countless times. There was not even a single weed left, and it was a bit too clean. She carefully sensed it, but she did not find any mystery.

If there was a secret here, wouldn’t it have been discovered long ago?

Tang Hao didn’t say anything. He stood still and closed his eyes again to sense his surroundings.

After a long time, he opened his eyes and grinned.

“Right here!”

As he spoke, he lowered his body and descended.

“Follow me. You’ll follow me wherever I go!” He said to Yun feiwan, who was behind him.

After he finished speaking, he took a step forward and began to walk in the valley.

Yun feiwan was stunned.

Could it be that this person had really discovered something?

But, how was that possible!

It had been several thousand years since anyone had discovered anything new in this place, yet this person had already discovered the profoundness of this place despite only being here for a short period of time?

She landed on the ground and followed him in a skeptical manner.

“It’s gone!”

After walking for a while, she suddenly saw the figure in front of her suddenly disappear. She was shocked and then realized that what this person said was true. There was really a mystery in this place.

“How did he find out? and how did he break it so easily?”

She stood rooted to the ground, feeling a little shocked.

This should be a bewildering formation. Moreover, it was one of the most difficult to detect and crack bewildering formations. This formation was set up here and it was completely undetectable. No one had discovered it for tens of thousands of years.

And this person had discovered it the moment he arrived.

This was truly unbelievable!

After a long while, she finally stopped her shock and calmed down. She followed his footsteps and took a few steps forward.

Suddenly, she felt the void around her change. She looked around and found herself in another space.

All around him, there were plants and trees of all shapes and sizes. They were all blooming with brilliant divine light, and their auras were all very shocking.

“This is ... Another herb garden?”

She mumbled, her heart and mind becoming more and more shocked.

This was actually a hidden medicinal garden!

“Could that be ... A Green Lotus?” She looked around and was almost dazzled by the divine light in all directions. She almost couldn’t see clearly what kind of plants were there. One of them was particularly eye-catching, and it was emitting a green divine light that soared into the sky, emitting a world-shocking aura.

Upon closer inspection, it was a lotus flower, similar to the legendary Green Lotus.

“That’s right! This is a Green Lotus, and it’s almost fifteen thousand years old!”

Tang Hao, who was standing next to the green Lotus, turned around and said to her,”

When he turned around and looked at the green Lotus, he also revealed a look of admiration.

This Green Lotus was the best among the lotuses. It was a divine item and was very rare. Moreover, it was extremely difficult to cultivate it. In order to cultivate a Green Lotus to maturity, it would require an extremely shocking amount of immortal spirit Qi and a long time.

He had obtained a few of them before, but they were not very old and did not grow well. They could only be considered as seedlings.

But the one in front of him had lotus leaves that were two to three stories tall. It was a mature plant.

The astonishing immortal Qi it exuded also proved that this Green Lotus had reached the immortal level. Its leaves, branches, and Lotus seedpod were all immortal materials that could be used to refine treasures, and the Lotus seeds were rare spiritual essence.

One lotus seed could temper one’s body to the extreme.

“Good treasure!”

Tang Hao sighed as he circled the green Lotus.

This place was somewhat similar to the treasure refining Pagoda on the other side of the blood sea, where immortal Qi was constantly extracted to cultivate immortal materials. The only difference was that there was only a piece of immortal gold there, while there were many plants here.

It wasn’t just this Green Lotus. There were also several other plants here, all of which had reached the immortal level.

“That’s ... The mysterious heavenly vine! Immortal level!”

He walked to a patch of golden vines and exclaimed in admiration.

“This is dragon blood wood. It’s also immortal grade!”

He took a few more steps and arrived in front of a Spirit Tree that was a thousand feet tall. He looked up and smiled.

As for Yun feiwan, she was standing in the distance, dumbfounded.

She was already stunned!

Her mind was blank.

She didn't dare to think that not only were there treasures here, but they were also rare immortal materials. If these things were thrown out, the entire planet would be in chaos.
