

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2904

The starry sky was in an uproar.

In every sect and city, everyone was discussing the amazing friend system.

Instant messaging, smooth chatting, pairing up, and making friends of the opposite sex ...

These wondrous functions shocked all the xiuzhe around.

They had never seen such a novel thing.

For those who had the key, the first thing they did when they met was to add each other as friends, and then exchange their names in the spiritual void realm.

As for those who didn't have the keys, they were just itching to join in. They couldn't join in the heated discussion about adding friends, and they instantly felt that they were outdated.

However, they still had some concerns. After all, this key was something that the nine magnates had explicitly forbidden.

Now, the nine magnates were still collecting keys everywhere. From time to time, there would be news of some sects being targeted by the nine magnates and having their keys forcibly taken away.

But very quickly, another piece of news came from the spiritual void realm, saying that with this update, people who entered the spiritual void realm could change their appearance and hide their identities. Even the broadcast of exchanging for true immortal inheritances had been canceled.

They were immediately tempted.

With this update, they could completely hide their identities in the spiritual void realm. Even if they exchanged for a true immortal's inheritance, they would not be discovered.

For a moment, everyone's hearts were burning with passion, and they went everywhere to ask for the key.

Those big forces couldn't bear it any longer. In the past, exchanging for inheritances in the upper spiritual void realm was a very risky thing, and it would immediately attract the nine magnates' starships. But now it was different. As long as there was no internal leak, even if they exchanged for the inheritance of a genuine immortal, they wouldn't be discovered by the nine magnates.

As a result, in just a few days, the number of people surging into the spiritual void realm increased by a hundred times!

The spiritual void realm was bustling like never before.

After learning of all this, the nine magnates almost vomited blood.

Originally, they could not control the situation. They could only catch a few and kill them as an example to deter the major forces so that they would not dare to exchange for the inheritance of true immortality.

But now, they couldn't do anything to these forces.

The update of the spiritual void realm seemed to be specifically targeted at them.

"As expected of an ancient saint-like existence. This friend system is truly incomparably magical. Adding on all those changes, I'm afraid that it won't be long before everyone in this starry sky will enter the spiritual illusionary realm."

"The momentum has been formed, and we can no longer stop it! Get everyone to retreat! We can no longer stop this spiritual void realm. "

In the Daluo heavenly Palace, the Ling Xiao holy man went up to the spiritual void realm to take a look. After he returned, he sighed repeatedly.

In his heart, he was completely in awe. The various things in the spiritual illusionary realm were so magical, especially this friend system. Even he could not help but admire it. As for that so-called "shake it" and "match the opposite sex" thing, it was an even more ingenious move that could attract countless people to the spiritual illusionary realm.

Such an idea was really like a Heavenly Horse flying in the sky, truly wonderful!

After the Daluo heavenly Palace, the other Giants also withdrew their forces one after another.

"Sage lingxu created this realm and brought us benefits. We should set up a statue for him and worship him for generations!"

"That makes sense! On every star, there should be a spirit illusion saint's statue to worship!"

In the spiritual void realm, many people proposed to erect a saint statue.

Very quickly, this suggestion received everyone's approval.

Thus, in all directions of the starry sky, on the stars and in the mountains, saint statues were erected one after another. Each statue was the same, with white beards and white hair, and a Sage-like appearance. The four words "Saint Ling Xu" were engraved on them.

The people of the nine magnates wanted to stop him, but when they saw that the commotion was so great that it spread throughout the entire celestial realm, they could only give up.

The starry sky continued to boil.

Every day, more and more people would rush into the spiritual void realm.

Tang Hao was overjoyed as he watched from within the chaotic space.

Now, the spiritual void realm had truly become the Second World and had the ability to influence the entire celestial realm. His current influence had completely surpassed the nine magnates.

As more and more forces poured in, the number of spiritual essences he obtained also increased. He simply didn't have enough time to refine them. He could only store them in dimensional rings and refine them when he had the time.

Very quickly, half a month had passed.

Tang Hao came out of the spiritual void realm and went to visit Chun Xuan and the others.

He returned to his own palace and sat down. Just as he was about to reforge the immortal rings, he suddenly thought of Yun feiwan.

It had been more than twenty days since she left with the Yun family members and headed to the Saint Beast Celestial Palace. Logically speaking, she should have found the treasure, refined it, and ascended.

However, he had never heard of any news of someone ascending from the planet of the sacred beast.

Ascension wasn't an ordinary tribulation, and the commotion was even greater. As long as he appeared, the people on the Holy beast planet would definitely notice, and then the news would spread to the spiritual illusionary realm.

But now, there was no news at all.

"Could it be ... That he's in trouble?"

He mumbled.

"She's already at the peak, and her cultivation base is in the six paths. She should be fine!" But then, he shook his head.

After pondering for a while, he finally relaxed and began to refine the ring.

After he finished refining a ring and went to the spiritual void realm, he heard a piece of news.

A Celestial Palace had appeared on sacred beast planet!

It was the ancient Holy beast sect's Celestial Palace!

This news had already spread for two days, and the spiritual illusion realm was already in an uproar. At this moment, countless people from all over the starry sky were rushing towards the sacred beast planet.

The Holy beast sect was a true immortal sect from ancient times. The immortal Palace they had left behind contained immortal materials, Immortal Weapons, and countless treasures.

“The immortal Palace has appeared, but there’s no news of Ascension ... Could it be that they’ve really encountered trouble?”

Tang Hao could no longer sit still.

Although it was only a night of pleasure, they had been intimate after all, and he naturally could not sit by and watch her get into trouble.

“I should make a trip to the beast planet and see what’s going on!”

He immediately stood up and went to inform Chun Xuan and the others. Then, he left the blood sea and headed towards the sacred beast planet.

On the way, he was also paying close attention to the news of the spiritual void realm.

In his eyes, there were no secrets in the spiritual void realm. No matter who it was or what they said, he would know.

“The immortal Palace is surrounded by a great formation, but no one can enter? Several major forces have arrived and are also bombarding the perfected immortal formation?”

Tang Hao was even more confused after he had investigated the spiritual void realm.

He could not figure out what was happening in the immortal Palace at all.

He rushed to the planet of the sacred beast as fast as he could.

When he arrived, he saw countless divine lights surging over from all directions of the sacred beast planet. They were all large starships, leaping through the void from afar and shuttling over.

He followed the divine light and flew toward a place on the planet of the sacred beast.

Soon, he saw a Golden Star hanging high in the sky in the distance. Upon a closer look, he realized that it was actually a large formation. A layer of golden divine light spread out and enveloped the vast divine mountains and palaces within.
