

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2905

“What a great true immortal mountain!”

“Amazing!” Tang Hao exclaimed after he examined it.

Within the Golden formation, there were countless divine mountains, islands, and palaces. They were all extremely majestic.

The aura exuded by the Golden formation was even more astonishing. It was a true immortal formation.

“It’s a four symbols formation at the true immortal level ... No wonder so many people can’t take it down.”

In this array, he could see the shadows of four huge beasts guarding the four directions. They were the Azure Dragon, Vermillion Bird, Black Tortoise, and white Tiger. Each of the shadows was hundreds of thousands of feet long.

The Azure Dragon, in particular, was millions of feet long. It shuttled between the clouds and the divine mountain with a terrifying aura.

At this moment, there were countless large ships hovering around the formation. There were also dense divine lights. These were all cultivators who had heard the news and had come from all directions. Basically all the factions on the planet had arrived.

Those who were rushing over now were all xiuzhe from the distant starry sky.

He swept his gaze around and saw the ships of a few major powers. There were Jing Yan house, myriad beasts sect, Fen clan, and other forces. Next to them were the Wu clan, Zhou clan, and other 36-star forces.

These warships were all accumulating divine light and bombarding the formation.

They were all gathered in the same direction, The White Tiger position.

Tang Hao retracted his gaze after a while.

He swept forward and came to the front of the formation.

Looking through the Golden divine light and into the array, he frowned.

The Yun family should have entered this immortal Palace long ago. Since the treasures inside were prepared for the Yun family, it shouldn’t be difficult to get them.

Could it be that the Yun family had just obtained the treasures and were preparing for their Ascension?

Was it because they had obtained the treasures and controlled the immortal Palace that the immortal Palace suddenly appeared?

He pondered and couldn't figure it out.

Therefore, he didn't make a move. He just stood in front of the array and watched.

As time passed, more and more people arrived. The nine magnates were all here, and the forces from all sides attacked at the same time, bombarding the formation from The White Tiger position. The rumbling sound was like muffled Thunder, and it didn't stop for a moment.

"It's broken! It's broken!"

After an unknown period of time, a deafening cheer suddenly rang out.

Tang Hao looked up and saw that a hole had been blasted in the golden light barrier at The White Tiger position.

From the giant ships that filled the sky, numerous divine lights shot out, fighting to charge into the formation through this opening.

The four sides were in an uproar.

Countless figures swarmed over and fought to squeeze into the formation.

Tang Hao followed the crowd and successfully entered the formation.

Once they entered the array, the crowd dispersed in all directions. Many people pounced toward the surrounding divine mountains, while the nine magnates and the 36-star forces all headed toward the central area.

Tang Hao looked around and headed toward the center.

If the Yun family was still here, they were most likely in the central area.

After passing by the floating divine mountains and islands, a continuous mountain range appeared in front of him. The divine mountains connected with each other and formed a long Dragon that wriggled up.

At the dragon's head, there was a dazzling Golden Palace.

"Looks like that's the main palace of the Saint Beast immortal Palace!"

Tang Hao mumbled. He moved toward the Golden immortal Palace.

At this moment, a cry of surprise came from behind. Tang Hao turned around and saw that the gap in the Golden barrier had been repaired. The divine light on the Golden barrier was even brighter, and its aura had increased greatly.

He frowned and immediately noticed that something was wrong.

Before he could react, another round of exclamations came from all directions, mixed with some screams.

He looked around and saw that there were restrictions and killing formations in the void around him. Many people were caught off guard and were hit by various killing formations, causing them to vomit blood. Those with weaker cultivation, such as those at the seventh tribulation and eighth tribulation, died on the spot.

Then, divine light also appeared around him. It was a group of sword lights.

Tang Hao's expression changed. He dodged the attack.

He looked at the Golden Palace again, and his expression was extremely serious.

This was undoubtedly a trap!

He wanted to lure the cultivators from all directions in and then use the killing formation here to kill them.

Was it because the Yun family wanted revenge that they set this up?

Tang Hao's mind raced.

This made sense. A few thousand years ago, the Yun family had almost been destroyed. It was the work of the various factions on the sacred beast planet. Perhaps they wanted to take revenge before they ascended.

Tang Hao dodged the attacks as he made his way toward the Golden immortal Palace.

These killing formations were of extremely high grade and should have been set up by genuine Immortals. However, the person controlling them was not a genuine immortal, so their power was greatly reduced. The highest one was only at the ninth tribulation of the way of the virtual entity, which posed no threat to him.

But in all directions, screams continued to ring out. From time to time, people would die, being ground into dregs by all kinds of killing formations.

Above him, the teams of the major forces were also surrounded by many killing formations, unable to move an inch.

They had no choice but to form a circle to resist the divine light that was coming from all directions.

"Damn it, how could this be!"

“There’s something fishy about this. It seems that this immortal Palace already has an owner, and they want to kill us all here!”

Many people from these forces also saw the clues.

If it was an ownerless immortal Palace, it would definitely not deliberately let people in.

“Hmph! I’ll see! It must be the Yun family! More than a month ago, the Yun family suddenly disappeared without leaving a single person behind. I was puzzled at that time, but now it seems that this group of people was secretly plotting this matter. ”

Someone shouted.

The man was dressed in a red robe. He was raging fire ancestor.

“The Yun clan is a descendant of the Holy beast Celestial Palace. They do have this ability!” Someone at the side echoed.

“This Yun family is really bold! Don’t let me find them, or I’ll exterminate their entire clan!”

Someone immediately raised his head and shouted angrily at the Golden immortal Palace above.

“The Yun clan? Then, could this matter be related to that demon surnamed Tang?” Someone asked in confusion.

As soon as he said this, everyone was shocked.

Even the expressions of the nine magnates changed slightly.

This monster surnamed Tang had a heaven-defying aptitude and an extremely shocking background. He was an existence that they did not dare to provoke easily.

“I’ve heard that young master Tang has some connections with the Yun family and once stood up for the fairy of the Yun family. However, he’s not from the planet of the Holy beasts, so there’s no need for him to do such a thing for the Yun family!” In the Daluo heavenly Palace camp, the Ling Xiao holy man spoke.

In front of him, a Golden Bell was suspended, and divine light was constantly gushing out of it, turning into a light curtain that protected everyone in the Daluo heavenly Palace.

The bell was emitting the aura of a true immortal.

“I think so too!” A Dao master of the fen clan nodded and said.

“Seniors, aren’t your words a little too arbitrary? everyone knows that Tang is extremely arrogant and audacious. Isn’t such a thing something that only someone like him can do?”

On the side, a beautiful figure flashed out from Jing Yan Zhai’s camp and spoke.

It was ning Yuzhen.
