

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2910

“You?”

Tang Hao glanced at her and snorted.

“You ... What a big tone!”

Elder autumn water was furious. Her beautiful eyes were wide open as flames of anger spewed out.

“I’d like to see if you’re half as strong as you claim!” She shouted and the ancient sword on her back shot out.

There was nothing fancy about it. The ancient sword turned into a stream of light and directly attacked.

However, the power it carried was extremely shocking, as if it was going to split the sky and earth.

“This sword is enough to give this kid a hard time!”

“I’ve heard that this kid’s body is very strong, but is it stronger than a flying sword? Elder autumn water’s flying sword has a great origin. It was once used by the person who ascended to the quiet Speech House, and its power is only second to the immortal sword.”

“He seems to have a defensive celestial artifact, but it can’t withstand more than a few sword strikes!”

A burst of discussion broke out in all directions.

Many people even revealed gloating expressions.

Tang Hao’s expression didn’t change when he saw the incoming sword. He didn’t even move.

When the sword was right in front of him, he reached out and grabbed it under the shocked gazes of everyone.

“Is he ... Is he crazy?”

Exclamations of shock instantly erupted from all directions.

Everyone’s expression was incomparably shocked.

He directly grabbed the flying sword with his hand, and it was a full-force Sword strike from a powerful man who had three Dao attainment?

Only a madman would do such a thing!

Even elder autumn water was stunned and in disbelief.

However, in the next moment, an even more unbelievable scene happened. Her flying sword stopped and was firmly grasped by the palm, which was unscathed.

“This ... How is this possible?”

She cried out in shock, unable to believe her eyes.

In this world, how could anyone receive her sword with their bare hands?

The surroundings instantly became deathly silent.

Everyone looked at the flying sword that was firmly held in his hand, and their expressions were extremely dull.

Even Ling Xiao and the other Dao Masters widened their eyes in disbelief.

“This sword is still lacking!”

Tang Hao glanced at the sword in his hand. He slowly clenched his fist, and the sword began to shake violently.

Elder autumn water shouted, and the three cultivation beads in her body shook. In her sea of the path, her celestial core power surged crazily and started to drive the flying sword to break free from the restraints.

“Break!”

Tang Hao’s eyes widened as he shouted.

In his body, his qi and blood were surging wildly. At the same time, the 23 cultivation beads in the immortal abode moved with a bang. Waves of extremely powerful force rushed to his palm.

Kala! Kala!

The sword started to crack.

“Heavens! It’s going to shatter!”

“This is crazy! This was crazy! He’s really crazy!”

In all directions, some people grabbed their heads and screamed, their faces full of horror.

The scene in front of them was too crazy!

That brat actually wanted to crush the flying sword of an expert with three Dao attainment with his bare hands!

What an abnormal physical body!

“Impossible!”

Elder autumn water mumbled as if she had gone mad. She bit the tip of her tongue and began to burn her blood essence.

She didn't believe that she couldn't beat a kid who was less than a hundred years old!

If her flying sword was crushed by this kid in front of everyone, what face would she have in the future?

Her 7,000 years of cultivation had been in vain!

However, her resistance was destined to be in vain.

With his powerful qi and blood, as well as the support of the twenty-three Dao beads, Tang Hao's palm gradually clenched. In the end, with a bang, the ancient sword was completely crushed, exploding into pieces.

Pfft!

Elder autumn water's delicate body trembled and she immediately spat out a mouthful of blood. Her beautiful face instantly turned pale.

All the cultivators around were stunned.

“Gulp!”

Many people swallowed their saliva, and their faces turned pale.

To crush the flying sword of an expert with three Dao attainment with his bare hands, and it was an ancient sword that was only inferior to the immortal sword, this kind of strength was really a bit frightening.

How could this kid be so powerful?

“This body of his is a little heaven-defying!”

“Three Dao attainment can't suppress him at all. Only a peak expert can suppress him!”

A moment later, a shocking uproar broke out.

“Cough! Everyone, in fact, this child's cultivation is no longer at the level of one Dao attainment. I'm afraid he's already at the level of five Dao attainment, or perhaps even higher, reaching the level of six Dao attainment.”

At this time, someone said.

Everyone was stunned. They turned around and saw that it was a day of great joy.

The person who spoke was the Great Buddha of compassion, who was leading the team from the heaven of great joy.

The great compassion Buddha had the appearance of an old man. His body was as thin as a house and he was wearing a worn-out golden Kasaya.

“Previously, after the Cangliu incident, the euphoria Buddha of the heaven of great joy personally led people to Cangliu to kill this person. However, I didn’t expect that there would be no news of him after he left. The life plates they left in the sect were also broken.” He said to the crowd.

“What? There’s such a thing?”

“That’s impossible! The happy Buddha is at the peak of the five Dao attainment. How could he have killed him?”

All the cultivators were shocked and couldn’t believe it.

“This is actually real?”

The Ling Xiao holy man and the others trembled in fear.

Then, they all gasped.

Naturally, they had heard that the euphoria Buddha of the joyous occasion had not appeared for a long time and was suspected to have disappeared. However, they did not know what had happened.

It turned out that it was actually done by this kid!

But how was that possible?

How could someone at the peak of the five Dao realm be killed?

“At that time, we didn’t believe it either. We thought that it was done by all of you. After some investigation, we ruled out this possibility. The only possibility left is this kid!”

“We think that this person must have set up some formation and used some tricks to kill the joyous Buddha and a group of Guardian-level elders.”

The Great Buddha of compassion smiled bitterly.

This possibility was indeed very shocking. Back then, they were the same. They didn’t dare to believe it at all.

However, this was the truth!

After the happy Buddha and the others died, their cultivation naturally fell into the hands of this kid. He could easily reach the peak.

“I was wondering why the heaven of great joy slipped away. It turns out that a peak stage cultivator died!”

“How long has it been since the peak existences of the origin immortal realm have fallen?”

The crowd exclaimed again.

They looked at the white-robed figure again, and their scalps went numb.

He had plotted to kill a man at the peak of the five Dao realm!

This kid’s strength and schemes were truly terrifying!

“Oh my God!”

The Wu clan’s ancestor shivered.

He was a cultivator of the five Dao, just like the euphoria Buddha. If this kid could kill the euphoria Buddha, he could naturally kill him as well.

For a moment, he was a little afraid.

“No! We can’t retreat. Today, we have to suppress this brat, strip him of his cultivation, and throw him out of the origin immortal domain. Otherwise, what if he comes for revenge in the future?” But then, he gritted his teeth and revealed a ruthless expression.

There were many who had the same thought as him, and they were all peak experts.

At this moment, they were all a little afraid.

This brat was simply too terrifying. If he continued to stay in the origin immortal domain, they would be in danger as well. They had to get out!

They looked at each other and nodded.

Then, his body shook and his aura exploded.

In an instant, countless beams of immortal light shot into the sky from all directions, and a shocking aura exploded at the same time. Like a raging tide, they pressed down on the white-robed figure in the middle.
