

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2911

“Hmph!”

Tang Hao’s eyes were cold as he surveyed his surroundings.

The nine superpowers, the thirty-six stars, the blazing fire sect, the flowing cloud Palace, and the other powers from the beast planet, plus some peak experts from other places, the total number of peak experts from the four sides was more than sixty.

This number was extremely shocking!

However, he was still fearless!

So what if there were more than 60 peak experts!

Facing the pressure from all directions, he shook his body and his aura exploded. In an instant, endless celestial light shot out from his body and turned into a pillar of light that shot into the sky.

The light was so bright that it covered all the divine light in the surroundings and seemed to be able to illuminate the heavens and the universe.

People in all directions immediately cried out in alarm and raised their hands to cover their eyes, but they were dazzled by the piercing divine light.

They were all shocked.

Why was this divine light so blazing?

Before they could recover, an indescribably powerful aura suddenly burst out from the blazing divine light. It presented a monstrous momentum and gushed out madly. The momentum of the peak experts from all directions was smashed apart as if it was a piece of rotten wood.

Then, the aura spread out in all directions.

The figures of the peak experts all swayed, and their faces changed.

As for those with weaker cultivations, their bodies trembled violently and they were forced to retreat.

By the time they steadied themselves and looked up again, their faces were filled with extreme shock.

“This ... How is this possible?”

Someone mumbled, his face full of disbelief.

More than 60 peak stage cultivators attacked together and used their aura to suppress him, but this kid easily broke through with his own aura.

This was unbelievable!

There were more than 60 of them at the peak. How terrifying would their auras be when they were combined? How could he not be able to suppress this kid!

Wasn't he at most at the level of six Dao attainment?

"Your ... Your aura ..."

A cry of surprise came out of the mouth of the beautiful woman from Jing Yan Zhai.

Her beautiful eyes were wide open, full of shock.

"This ... I ... I've seen a ghost!" The Wu clan's ancestor also cried out in alarm.

The top experts all had the same expression.

Many of them were in the six paths, so how could this kid break it when they attacked together?

"He can't have seven Dao attainment, right?"

Someone shouted. It was raging fire ancestor.

After he finished speaking, he frowned and muttered, "That's not right! Even Qi daoqing doesn't have such a terrifying aura!"

"Seven Dao attainment? That's nothing!"

A sneer suddenly came from the divine light.

Everyone's hearts trembled, and they became more and more shocked.

Seven Dao attainment was nothing?

Could that be ... Eight Dao attainment?

Isn't that the realm of Ascension?

A cultivator with eight Dao attainment could knock open the gate of immortality and ascend to become an immortal!

In the divine light, there was no more sound.

The next moment, a figure could be vaguely seen inside. He raised his hand, and the void in front of him rumbled and shook. A huge Golden Palm condensed, with astonishing flames and lightning lingering on it.

“What a terrifying aura!”

In front of the giant palm, the few peak experts were all shocked.

Then, they all raised their hands and took out all kinds of treasures.

Peng Peng Peng!

With a series of explosions, there was a continuous explosion of bright divine light.

The faces of those top powers became uglier and uglier. Their attacks were all slapped away by the palm. The momentum of the palm was getting stronger and stronger, and it came with an unstoppable momentum.

Looking at this palm, their scalps went numb.

This was a palm condensed by a Divine Art. It was the simplest technique, but it was such a simple technique that its power was so terrifying. It was enough to show how terrifying the kid’s cultivation base was.

Eight Dao attainment?

He probably wouldn’t be able to produce such a palm strike!

They couldn’t retreat, so they had to take out their defensive treasures to resist the palm.

Bang!

A deafening explosion.

Then, there were a few muffled groans. The old monsters at the peak stage trembled and flew backward. They only managed to stabilize their bodies after retreating a few hundred feet.

“Heavens!”

Everyone exclaimed in shock.

All the cultivators were dumbstruck. Such a simple palm had sent several peak old monsters flying. This strength was too frightening!

“He ... What is his cultivation level?”

Ning Yuzhen had already retreated far away. She looked ahead, her face blank.

“There’s something wrong with this kid’s strength!”

The Lingxiao holy man and the others were also dumbfounded.

The strength that this boy had displayed was completely beyond their imagination. Even Emperor aotian didn't have such terrifying strength when he ascended!

What kind of monster was this kid?

They were all a little shocked, but it was hard to stop now.

They could only fight with all their might and suppress this monster. That was the only way.

"Let's attack together!"

The beautiful woman from Jing Yan house shouted and waved her sleeve. A crystal flying sword shot out, and the sword light on it expanded greatly, exuding a shocking true immortal aura. It was an immortal sword.

"That's right! Only by working together will we have a chance to suppress this monster!"

On the side of the great emperor mountain, a middle-aged man in a golden robe shouted. He raised his hand and a Golden Bell flew out. It spun and instantly expanded to the size of a small mountain before smashing forward.

It was also a celestial artifact.

From all four directions, the peak cultivators took out their strongest treasures and attacked the figure in the middle.

"So many celestial artifacts!"

The xiuzhe that were watching from all sides were slightly shocked.

They had never seen so many celestial artifacts appear at the same time.

Many people were even more excited. The battle before them was probably the most intense one in the past 10000 years in the origin immortal realm!

On one side was a heaven-defying genius who had reached the Ascension realm before the age of 100, and on the other side were more than 60 peak-stage cultivators from the origin immortal realm, who were using many celestial artifacts.

No matter what the result of this battle was, it would probably go down in history.

In the arena, Tang Hao clenched his fists as he faced the divine light that filled the sky from all directions. His eyes were burning with a shocking desire to fight.

He retracted the divine light a little and strode forward. Facing the incoming celestial sword, he threw a punch.

BOOM!

In his body, his qi and blood surged wildly, and his 23 Dao attainment beads trembled violently. The two forces gathered on his fist at the same time.

Clang!

Under the extremely shocked gaze of the beautiful woman from Jing Yan Zhai, her sword was directly blown away.

Her beautiful eyes were wide open, and she couldn't believe her eyes.

That was an immortal sword!

This guy had sent an immortal sword flying with a punch!

What a terrifying strength!

Before she could recover, she saw the figure continue to move forward. Facing the incoming divine light, he punched out again and again. The great emperor immortal Bell on the great emperor mountain was blown away by a single punch, and the immortal seal on the myriad beasts sect was also blown away.

Then, the fairy weapons of the fen clan, the sun Moon sect, and even the Daluo heavenly Palace were also sent flying.

The divine lights of the spells were also easily destroyed!

The figure's aura did not weaken at all. Instead, it grew stronger and stronger.

His white robe and black hair were fluttering in the wind. He was surrounded by a shocking divine light, like an ancient God. He was so powerful that no one could look at him directly.

He strode forward with an unstoppable momentum, with an unrivaled and invincible aura!
