

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2916

In the hall, the dark gold furnace hung high.

The Golden divine fire was burning inside.

Tang Hao sat up straight. He flicked his sleeve, and divine light flew out. All of them were rare divine items. There were even a few immortal-grade Green Lotus seeds that bloomed with dazzling light.

“One hundred and eight Supreme-grade divine materials, even immortal materials, and my blood essence. This pill’s effect is heaven-defying!”

He glanced at it and laughed.

He had refined many divine pills, but none of them could compare to the one he was about to refine.

He felt that, judging from its effect, the grade of this pill should be half-step immortal level.

If he could find some immortal materials in the future and add them in, it would become a true immortal pill.

“First, I’ll refine the Lotus seeds!”

This Green Lotus seed was undoubtedly the highest grade among all the materials, and also the most difficult to refine. Naturally, he had to start from this material.

With a thought, a lotus seed flew up and entered the furnace.

BOOM!

The divine light shone brightly as he began to refine the Lotus seed.

After a full day and night of refining, the Lotus seed was finally refined into the purest divine liquid.

He immediately threw in all the remaining materials. They were all rare divine fruits, divine herbs, and the like, all of which were extremely old.

It was very easy to refine them, and they were completely refined in no time. Then, he took a deep breath and fused them all together.

Then, he summoned a Jade bottle and opened its lid. A handful of immortal blood flew out and poured into the furnace. It was his own blood essence that he had collected.

His physical body was extremely strong, and he was invincible under the true immortal realm. His blood essence was naturally rare.

Last time, a little bit of blood was enough to completely transform lady SU's physical body into a rare divine body. The nine magnates had their eyes on her and fought over her. This time, it was a drop of essence blood, and the effect was even stronger.

"Collect!"

With a thought, the blood essence in the furnace, the divine liquid formed by the green Lotus seed, and a huge ball of divine liquid formed by the other materials collided and began to merge.

The different colored divine liquid completely fused together after a moment, turning into a light green divine liquid.

This was the pill embryo that had been successfully fused.

Next, he just had to keep calcinating the pill embryo.

Just like this, he refined for a full seven days and seven nights before the pill was successfully refined.

The moment the pill was formed, the divine furnace trembled. The green divine pill rushed out of it and hung in the air. It was the size of a fist and was round and crystal clear.

At the same time, there was also a strange phenomenon that assailed his nose. It was somewhat elegant, like the smell of the green Lotus.

A light sniff would make one feel comfortable and light.

"Not bad!"

Tang Hao reached out and took a closer look.

This pill didn't have any fancy techniques, so it didn't have any special pill veins.

For a pill of this level, there was no need for any technique. The simpler the technique, the better.

"I'll refine another one!"

After a short rest, he continued to refine. Eight days later, another divine pill was refined.

"How about ... I refine another one!"

He was about to keep the furnace when he suddenly thought of Yun feiwan.

After some thought, he decided to refine another pill and a clone. He took a pill and a ring with him and left for the planet of the sacred beast.

She hadn't ascended yet, so she should still be able to make it.

He didn't know what was going on in the immortal world, but with these two treasures, she would be much safer. This was all he could do now.

"There's no hurry for chunxuan and the others. It won't be too late to refine them on the way. For now, let's go to the stellar mountain to take a look."

He took the other two clear sky elixir pills and headed to the star Mountain.

The stellar mountain was a little far away, and he only arrived after ten days.

Just like the heaven of great joy, this was an entire star field with hundreds of stars orbiting around it. In all directions, there were layers of huge Star Rings.

"The entrance is here!"

He glanced around and found a Palace outside the ring of stars.

That was the entrance to the star Mountain. If one wanted to enter, one had to register there and then let the people of the star Mountain lead them in.

Otherwise, if he tried to force his way in, he would trigger the perfected immortal formation.

"Woof! It's so lively!"

Tang Hao approached the palace. He saw countless divine lights coming from all directions. They all gathered at the palace, and from the palace, many divine lights poured out and spread in all directions.

This was a bustling and lively scene with people coming and going.

"Eh? Brother, what a coincidence! You're also wearing white!"

When he landed and came to the front of the hall, many streams of light landed beside him and many figures appeared. Among them, there were a few who were dressed similar to him. They were also dressed in white and looked quite young.

They looked at him and smiled.

"Look, this brother is good! She's wearing Suyi!"

"Al! I also want to wear plain clothes, but it's too unsafe. That thing will break at the touch!"

When they took a closer look, they were all shocked.

Then, he gave Tang Hao a thumbs-up.

"Brother, you must really admire that person! I can understand, I'm just like you, I'm in awe!"

“He’s also my idol. He’s dressed in a snow-white robe, and his divine might is unparalleled. With a wave of his hand, he crushed nine big shots. He’s simply too awesome!”

They all said excitedly.

Tang Hao was shocked when he heard that. He grinned.

F * ck!

You can even imitate this?

He cursed in his heart.

The few of them stood in place and chatted excitedly, as if they hit it off very well. They only hated that they had not met each other and were just short of becoming sworn brothers on the spot.

Tang Hao chuckled when he saw that. He shook his head and walked toward the palace.

This Palace was extremely large. There were many high platforms set up inside. Behind them were xiuzhe wearing the clothing of the star Mountain sitting. In front of them, many people were lining up. After registering something, they would obtain a command token and then be led to the back of the main hall.

Tang Hao waited in line for a while, and it was finally his turn.

“Where are you from? What’s his name? What are you doing at my stellar mountain? The planet you went to?” An old man raised his head and asked.

When he saw Tang Hao’s white clothes, he was clearly surprised.

He shook his head and mumbled, “why do young people nowadays like to follow the trend so much!”

“I’m looking for someone. Let’s go to the central planet!” Tang Hao said.

Then, he randomly came up with an identity.

The old man narrowed his eyes and sized him up. Then, he nodded, took out a token, and threw it over. “Remember, you must carry this token with you. Once it leaves your body, you will be locked down by the great formation of my star Mountain. That will be troublesome.”

“Many thanks!”

Tang Hao took it and glanced at it, then hung it around his waist.

“Go to the back!”

The old man pointed behind him.

Tang Hao walked over, and someone led him onto a large ship. When there were more people, the ship set off and slowly flew toward the star field in the ring.
