

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2922

Tang Hao was surprised.

On this wugeng star, the spiritual void realm had been completely popularized.

“Perhaps it’s because it’s far away and unnoticeable, so it’s so widely spread.” Tang Hao said to himself.

In the past, the spirit void realm had still been suppressed by the nine magnates in the various parts of the origin immortal realm.

“This place is not bad!”

He smiled and walked around.

“Eh? What’s that?”

When his divine will swept past a Mountain Gate, he was suddenly stunned.

From within the mountain Gate, a deafening shout could be heard.

“Spirit illusion Saint, your merits are boundless and will last for thousands of generations!”

On a closer look, he saw that in a square, countless people were kneeling on the ground and kowtowing to a statue in front of them. That statue was the spiritual apparition of the Saint.

To Tang Hao’s surprise, a translucent figure appeared above the statue. It had white hair and a white beard, and it looked like a celestial being. It was very familiar.

“F * ck! Isn’t this the spirit image I created?”

Tang Hao was a little stunned when he saw it clearly.

This translucent figure was exactly the same as the one he had transformed into in the spiritual void realm.

“What’s going on? Did someone deliberately change their appearance to deceive people?”

That was Tang Hao’s first reaction.

“Something’s wrong! This doesn’t seem to be a human!”

However, after taking a closer look, he frowned.

This translucent figure was not a human, but ... More like a body of incense. From this figure, he sensed an aura that was somewhat similar to that of the incense Buddha.

“Oh right! It was the people on this planet who worshipped the statues of the saints every day, which resulted in the power of incense, and from there, the spirit illusion Saint was formed. That was how the Mahesvara heavenly Buddha and my avatar came about.”

“However, although they are all incense, there are still some differences. That is Buddhism, and this is the God of incense in Daoism.”

“This is good stuff!”

Tang Hao’s heart was immediately set on fire, and his eyes were burning.

He instantly realized the value of these statues of saints and the incense!

In this immortal realm, there were countless planets and billions of people. Their cultivation levels were very high, and there were many 9th tribulations and 8th tribulations. The power of Joss flames they produced was powerful and pure.

Every day, they were able to produce a large amount of incense.

If he were to collect all of these Joss flames, the amount would be shocking. With these Joss flames, he could cultivate countless experts, just like the Mahesvara Buddha.

“This Joss flame God is already close to the ninth tribulation. After absorbing some more Joss flames, he will be able to break through. It won’t be long before he reaches the peak. I believe that similar Joss flame gods have already been born on other stars.”

“I have to collect all of them. This way, I can quickly obtain a batch of peak Joss flame gods.”

“Why don’t I forge a treasure that is specially used to contain these Joss flame gods? I’ll call it ... The God spirit list.”

Tang Hao pondered for a moment, and many ideas came to his mind.

“Let’s first suppress this Joss flame God and subdue it!”

His body sank, and he instantly tore open the void and landed on the square. He reached out his hand, and a giant Golden Palm condensed and grabbed the Joss flame God attached to the statue.

“How audacious! Which demon dares to offend a trace of spirit illusion saint’s spirit sense!”

Someone in the crowd below rebuked.

“You have guts!”

“You’re courting death!” The incense God rebuked angrily. His body suddenly expanded, and he was about to attack. However, in the next moment, his expression changed as he sensed the unparalleled aura of this palm.

He turned around and was about to turn into a divine light to escape.

However, Tang Hao would not let him escape. He raised his hand and pulled the figure over.

“You’re so bold! Do you know who I am? I’m afraid you’ll be scared to death if I tell you!”

“If you want to live, then let go of this Lord!”

The Joss flame God struggled and rebuked.

“I still don’t know who you are!”

Tang Hao chuckled and pulled him closer. “You’re just a spirit formed from the power of incense. You want to pretend to be a Saint?” I’ll take you in today!”

“Aiya! Fellow Daoist, stop! It’s not easy for me to cultivate, please spare my life!”

Having his identity exposed, the incense God immediately begged for mercy.

Tang Hao showed no mercy. He wiped out the man’s consciousness, then his true spirit emerged and occupied the body.

He wanted to leave this true spirit behind so that he could continue to collect Joss flame power in the origin immortal domain and form more Joss flame gods.

“The God spiritual Atlas must be refined to the immortal level. After all, it will contain countless incense gods in the future!”

He returned to the star Shuttle and started to design the talisman array. Soon, the refining map of the immortal weapon grade God spiritual manual was completed.

He immediately started refining, and half a month later, the God spiritual manual was born.

It was a picture-type celestial artifact. When rolled up, it looked like an ordinary scroll, but when unrolled, it could be infinitely long. Inside it was a vast world that could accommodate an endless number of Joss flame gods.

Moreover, this painting could automatically collect incense, condense the incense, and create the incense God.

“Go! Take this God spirit list and collect more Joss flames. Also, take this token!”

Tang Hao took out another sacred ancestral token and gave it to the true spirit, along with the God spirit list.

With the sacred ancestral token, he could tear open the void and communicate with them when necessary. It was effective no matter how far they were.

After that, he started the star Shuttle and left wugeng star.

“As long as the spiritual void realm continues to expand and produce more Joss flames, my God spirit index will become the most powerful treasure in this starry sky.”

He stood at the bow of the ship and looked at the origin immortal realm in front of him. For a moment, his heart was filled with emotions.

Refining the spiritual illusionary realm had allowed him to harvest countless spiritual essences. Now, he had discovered another great use for the spiritual illusionary realm, which was truly a pleasant surprise.

“Let’s go!”

After a while, he turned around and urged the ship under his feet to rush into the dead silent starry sky ahead.

The starry sky was dark and lifeless.

After flying for half a month, the situation was the same.

“We’re here! That’s the true martial celestial realm!”

After flying for a few more days, dazzling Starlight finally appeared in the starry sky ahead. They had arrived at the true martial celestial realm.

After entering this celestial realm, he first found a ninth-grade star and threw in his clone and the key to the spiritual void realm. In this celestial realm, the same situation as in the origin immortal realm would soon happen.

Soon, the news would spread to every corner of this immortal realm, and the inheritance of the true immortal would also spread.

He stayed in this celestial realm for a month, inquiring for information while perfecting the spiritual void realm.

After all, the two celestial realms were far apart, and with so many people rushing into the spiritual void realm, it would cause congestion.

He used a large amount of Soul Source crystals to refine a few more small-scale boundary realms and placed them in various parts of the immortal realm. They were like extensions that could help the main computer take on a lot of load.

He didn’t find any useful information, so he left directly for the next celestial realm.

When he arrived at the next immortal domain, he would spread the news of the spiritual void realm again.
