

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2937

In the starry sky, a picture scroll lay across, shining with divine light.

Figures were still coming out from inside.

Everyone was so shocked that they lost their voices.

They had already lost count of how many people had walked out, one after another, as if there was no end to it.

Those figures were all shrouded in brilliant divine light, and with so many divine lights stacked together, it was impossible to see them clearly. It was too glaring.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

They attacked the stars that were coming from all directions, exploding into balls of dazzling divine light, making it even more difficult for them to see clearly.

“Heavens! There’s more than a thousand of them!”

“It’s too terrifying! Where did this force come from? Which celestial realm has such a terrifying force?”

After a long time, someone finally came back to his senses and let out a deafening cry.

“What’s going on? How can there be a power stronger than our Xuanyuan clan in this starry sky?”

The Xuanyuan clan was also boiling with excitement.

Everyone’s faces were filled with shock and disbelief.

The ancestor-level figures and the elders were shocked and panicked.

They had never thought that there were so many peak experts standing behind this guy, three or four times more powerful than their Xuanyuan clan. Such strength was already a great threat to the Xuanyuan clan.

Even though the Xuanyuan clan had many stellar formations protecting them, they could not withstand the crazy attacks of so many peak experts!

Once the formation was broken, the consequences would be unimaginable if so many peak experts charged in!

This was a threat to the survival of his Xuanyuan clan!

“No, we can’t let them bombard the formation! All the elders and ninth tribulation clansmen, follow me to activate our clan’s divine weapon and kill the foreign enemy!”

The first ancestor let out a loud shout and immediately sat down cross-legged.

The expressions of the people behind him turned cold as they sat down.

After the order was given, countless Xuanyuan clan members sat down cross-legged on the planets behind them.

Soon, on the central star, in an ancient stone Hall, a golden sword trembled and buzzed before flying out. In the blink of an eye, it was already in the starry sky.

The power of countless Xuanyuan clan members gathered from all directions and surged into the golden sword.

The golden sword buzzed and trembled, then expanded at a shocking speed, turning into a giant sword that was tens of millions of feet long. Countless ancient runes could be seen engraved on the golden sword, emitting a world-shaking aura.

“It’s the Xuanyuan sword, their clan protection treasure!”

The old man in the heaven desolate Palace exclaimed.

He was a little shocked. Although this was not the Xuanyuan sword from the ancient legends, it was still a Supreme-grade celestial artifact and the strongest celestial artifact of the Xuanyuan clan.

When activated by so many Xuanyuan clan members, the power was terrifying and could easily blow up a star.

“I didn’t expect it to be like this. Even the Xuanyuan sword has been used!”

He muttered, sighing.

This situation had truly exceeded his expectations.

However, he was happy about this. As a top force in the Tianhuang region, the greater the loss of the Xuanyuan clan, the happier he was.

“This sword isn’t easy to take!”

He muttered and looked outside the Stargate.

“Hmph!”

Tang Hao grunted as he glanced at the sword. He flicked his sleeve and the great void divine furnace flew out.

The grade of this sword was extraordinary. The divine spear that he had forged and the immortal sword that he had just obtained would not be a match for it. Only the great void divine furnace could resist it.

Behind him, the many Joss flame gods sat down cross-legged and began to pour energy into him.

The great void divine furnace flew up and spun around before it expanded crazily. The divine fire within it burned even more fiercely.

In the blink of an eye, the furnace had also expanded to ten million feet in size and smashed forward.

“What ... What kind of furnace is this?”

In the heaven desolate Palace, the old man’s eyes almost popped out.

The aura of this divine furnace was simply too shocking!

It was even more extraordinary than the Xuanyuan sword!

This must be a celestial artifact of a higher grade and more powerful!

“A great origin immortal artifact? Or a Celestial king’s treasure?” He mumbled excitedly.

In the Xuanyuan clan, the crowd was shocked to see the divine furnace that was tens of millions of feet tall. They also felt the terrifying aura coming from it.

“This aura is so ancient, like something from the ancient times! But how was that possible? How could they have such a treasure?”

The first ancestor’s heart trembled in shock.

But at this moment, he no longer had the choice to retreat. He could only face it head on.

Soon, the sword that the Xuanyuan clan had formed rushed out of the formation and hit the huge divine furnace.

Clang!

A deafening explosion.

There was also an extremely bright divine light that burst out like the explosion of stars.

Endless divine light spread out along with violent shock waves, shaking the starry sky formation of the Xuanyuan clan.

Puff! Puff! Puff! Puff!

At the same time, countless Xuanyuan clan members who were sitting cross-legged trembled and spat out a mouthful of blood.

Even the first ancestor and the others’ faces twitched in shock.

The Xuanyuan clan was at a disadvantage in this exchange.

The treasure in front of him was too powerful!

Moreover, there were thousands of them, and they were all at the peak stage.

“Again!”

The first patriarch roared, and once again, he thrust the Xuanyuan sword forward.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

A few more clashes.

Rings of light exploded, illuminating the starry sky.

Some of the Xuanyuan clan’s members vomited blood, and some of them even fell backward and fainted.

Pfft!

Even those ancestor-level figures spat out a few mouthfuls of blood.

“Are those people monsters? Won’t they get hurt?”

They were in disbelief when they saw the group of people outside sitting still.

Logically speaking, those people should have been injured and puking blood.

“Alright! There’s no need to make any more moves!” After a few more blasts, the first ancestor finally spoke.

After clashing so many times, the opponent’s strength had also been reduced by more than half. It was impossible to break the Grand array.

These formations were the foundation of the Xuanyuan clan and could not be broken!

Once it was broken, they would not be able to repair it with their current strength.

“Eh? What are they trying to do?”

Just as he was about to heave a sigh of relief, his eyes suddenly narrowed. He saw that among the group of people outside, many of them had stood up. The aura on their bodies began to surge wildly, becoming extremely violent. It looked like ... Self-destruction!

“Are they ... Are they crazy?”

“Is there a need for this?”

When the surrounding Xuanyuan clan members saw this, they all shrieked out in shock.

They couldn't believe that those peak-level experts would choose to self-destruct to destroy their formation!

What kind of enmity was this?

Was there a need to?

Isn't it just a Mystic fairy Pearl and a woman?

"This ... This is crazy!"

The cultivators around and the elder in the heaven desolate Palace were also dumbfounded.

They watched in a daze as the figures swelled up and crashed into the formation with a shocking glow.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

With a series of explosions, the formation trembled continuously. It could no longer withstand the pressure and began to collapse.

After dozens of explosions, the formation was already in ruins.

After another ten or so sounds, the formation completely collapsed, revealing the stunned Xuanyuan clan.
