

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2942

When they got closer, Tang Hao saw that there were many figures standing on the twelve warships.

Judging from their auras, they were all at the Dao integration stage.

There were at least two to three peak-level powerhouses on each ship.

“This lineup isn’t small!”

Tang Hao said to himself.

More than 30 Dao integration realm cultivators at the peak stage and nearly 200 Dao integration realm cultivators were already very powerful.

However, Tang Hao did not think that they could defeat Hei Long with this lineup.

If it was the Black Dragon of the past, a few peak-Stage Black dragons would be enough to suppress it easily.

But now, the Black Dragon had wreaked havoc here for more than two years. Who knew how much spiritual essence it had devoured and how many cultivators it had devoured? its cultivation must have recovered a lot.

When this Black Dragon was at its peak, it would take several true immortals to suppress it.

There were too many resources in this world. He was worried that the Black Dragon had already recovered to its peak.

If that was the case, even he would feel troubled, let alone this group of people.

“Who’s there!”

As he approached, many people looked over.

“I heard that there was a mad dragon wreaking havoc here, so I came to take a look!” Tang Hao cupped his hands at them and smiled.

When they heard this, they didn’t find it strange.

There were too many people like this.

“Fellow Daoist, the twelve major forces have joined forces to go to the spirit ring planet to kill the Dragon. There will definitely be a big battle at that time. In order to avoid being caught in the disaster, you’d better leave quickly!” One of the peak existences shouted.

“Dragon slaying?” Tang Hao furrowed his brows. “My fellow Daoists, aren’t you being a little too rash?”

“Eh? What do you mean by that?”

“Are you blind? Can’t you see that we have so many peak experts here? We also have immortal artifacts, so killing that animal is a piece of cake!”

A cold shout spread out from the ships.

Many people were unhappy.

They were full of confidence in this team. No one felt that they would fail. They even felt that this lineup was a little too big.

However, this fellow seemed to think that they were not strong enough. Wasn’t he looking down on the strength of the twelve giants?

“Fellow Daoist, you don’t have to worry about us. We’ve been preparing for a long time for this. It’s absolutely safe. You, on the other hand, shouldn’t get involved alone.”

On the ship in the middle, a beautiful woman in a moon-White Palace dress said.

“This time, my Taiwei Celestial Palace has sent three Dao Masters, 20 Dao integration elders, a Grand array, and a fairy weapon. This is already a top-notch lineup. The other forces are the same. How can we lose with such a lineup?”

As she spoke, she raised her head and looked very confident.

“That’s right! It’s absolutely foolproof!”

“You’re not from my Taiwei immortal domain, are you? Otherwise, how could he say such things?”

People from the other ships agreed.

“I just think that it’s better to be safe than sorry,” Tang Hao said. “Maybe we’ll stand a chance if you have more people!”

“Hmph! Are you looking down on us?”

“Who’s as timid as you!”

Sneers and cold shouts came from the ship.

“Don’t bother with this guy. Let’s get ready and leave quickly. We have to kill that beast as soon as possible. ” Someone shouted.

“Yes, yes! Don’t bother with this kind of person!”

Everyone responded.

After a while, these large ships started to move and headed toward the spirit ring planet not far ahead.

Tang Hao clicked his tongue as he watched them leave.

He was clearly warning them out of good intentions, but this group of people didn't listen.

"Forget it, just let them be! I've already warned you!"

He sneered and also flew toward the spirit ring planet.

When he arrived above the spirit ring planet, he heard rumbling sounds coming from the stars below. There was also a loud Dragon's Roar. Obviously, the battle had begun.

He didn't use his spiritual pupils or Dharma eyes. He looked down directly and saw that on the stars below, in a mountain range, there was a bright divine light blooming.

"It's so big!"

When he saw the size of the Black Dragon, he was shocked.

Back in Pangu, the Black Dragon was only nearly ten million feet long. But now, it had grown three or four times its original size and was even thicker. At first glance, it was a terrifying giant beast.

Around the Black Dragon, there were layers of formations that blasted down sword light and lightning.

The twelve ships were scattered in all directions, each blasting out countless divine lights that poured down.

It looked like this battle was extremely intense.

However, upon closer inspection, these people's attacks couldn't cause any damage to the Black Dragon at all.

Obviously, those people had also discovered it. They continued to urge their ships and formations to bombard it more violently.

"A bunch of little bugs, you dare to say you want to kill me? see if I don't swallow you all!"

"I'm invincible!"

The Black Dragon roared as it frantically moved its body, slamming against the four-sided formation. From time to time, it would open its mouth and blast out a divine light.

Peng Peng Peng!

Bright divine light kept exploding.

As for the people of the 12 superpowers, they had lost their previous confidence and were all a little dumbfounded.

This Black Dragon's strength was much stronger than they had expected.

They had miscalculated.

That guy was right, they were too rash.

But now, they were already riding a Tiger and couldn't stop. They had no choice but to continue.

This was because the moment they retreated, their formation would collapse, and it would be the Black Dragon's turn to pursue them.

"How can this Black Dragon be so powerful?"

On the Taiwei Celestial Palace's warship, the beautiful woman's face was a little pale, and she no longer had the confidence she had before.

Looking at the indescribably huge beast in front of her, her heart was filled with bitterness.

Before she came, her Taiwei Celestial Palace had investigated and found that this Black Dragon was far from its current strength. In just half a year, its strength had soared to such a terrifying level.

This was truly unbelievable!

"If only I had listened to that person's words just now!"

When she thought of the white-robed fellow Daoist just now, she felt even more regretful.

"Die!"

"You dare to disturb this daddy's sweet dreams, this daddy will blast you to death!"

The more the Black Dragon fought, the more excited it became. It opened its mouth and shot out a shocking divine light.

His head was like a spinning top, spinning madly. The divine light also started spinning madly, sweeping around.

"No! I can't hold on any longer!"

One of the battleships' defensive light curtains was struck several times and exploded.

All the cultivators on the ship cried out in shock, their faces turning pale.

They could no longer hold on. If they continued to fight, they would die Here.

“Fellow Daoists, let’s retreat!”

“Run!” They shouted and urged the ship to escape.

“You want to run? No way!”

The Black Dragon let out an angry roar and aimed at the warship. It opened its mouth and shot out a beam of divine light. Then, it swung its body and slapped its tail fiercely.

Bang!

The ship trembled and exploded.

Everyone on the ship screamed and escaped.

However, a few of them were too slow to escape and were hit by the divine light, their bodies immediately exploding.

They were all Dao integration cultivators, but even they could not withstand this terrifying divine light.

Before they could reincarnate, the Black Dragon rushed over, opened its mouth, and swallowed them all.
