

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2945

After dealing with the group of people, Tang Hao left the spirit ring planet.

He then headed to the other side of the Taiwei immortal domain.

That Black Dragon was so crazy that he had already forgotten where he was. He only remembered the rough location. He had to go and look for it.

“It should be here!”

Seven days later, he arrived at a star region.

According to the Black Dragon, he had come from this star field.

“Three ninth-rank stars!”

Tang Hao took out the star map and looked at it.

He randomly picked one and flew it over.

Jade Dust Star!

This was one of the many ninth-grade stars in the Taiwei celestial realm. There were many ninth-grade forces on this star. Although they were not at the peak stage, there were many Dao integration, Dao condensation, and Dao glimpse realms. Their overall strength was even stronger than big Luo's Cang Liu Xing.

When he arrived on planet Jade dust, he first went to the largest trade city on the planet.

It was easy to find the passage.

Where there was a passage, the void would be distorted or even broken. People would notice such a place.

Besides, since the Black Dragon could come out, Pangu and the others might have come through this passage and left some traces.

“Did you hear? the great bandit from Haotian has committed another crime and emptied another treasure vault.”

“This Haotian thief is too despicable!”

After entering a restaurant and sitting for a while, he heard the people at the next table discussing.

He spat out the wine in his mouth.

F * ck!

The Haotian Bandit?

This was clearly Liu heihu's style!

This guy had also come from Pangu, and he had been using his name to harm people everywhere.

"Don't let me catch you!"

The corner of his mouth twitched, and his face darkened.

He went to ask around and found out that the reputation of the clear sky Pirate had spread a year and a half ago. Liu heihu probably came out at that time.

"Since he's here, it means that Pangu should be fine."

Tang Hao breathed a sigh of relief.

"Look, it's the Tang family's warship!"

"The Tang Clan is here!"

At this moment, he heard a series of exclamations from the street outside.

He was stunned.

The Tang Clan?

Could it be the Tang Clan?

"The Tang Clan is so powerful! A few days ago, another force was destroyed!"

"Yup! Not only does the Tang family have many experts, but their treasures are also powerful. I've never seen such a powerful Starship that can destroy a star with one shot. "

Following that, the sounds of discussion could be heard.

Those xiuzhe's expressions were somewhat reverent. They were clearly very afraid of this Tang Clan.

"It seems like it's really the Tang Clan!"

Tang Hao said to himself.

The powerful Starship must be the divine Pangu ship he designed.

“I didn’t expect the Tang Clan to come out as well. With the rich resources here, the Tang Clan will certainly develop extremely quickly and produce a large number of nine tribulations. With the Pangu divine boat, they can really dominate the Jade Dust Star.”

“I wonder if there are people from other forces coming out. The divine temple, those dojos, and the big clans!”

Tang Hao thought for a while, then paid the bill and left the restaurant.

The atmosphere on the street was a little lively.

Everyone raised their heads and looked at the large ship in the sky.

He took a glance and saw that it was the Pangu warship.

The flag of the Pangu Tang Clan, the nine-clawed Golden Dragon, was hung on the ship.

“The Tang Clan is really impressive!”

“Exactly! The Tang Clan itself is very powerful, and it’s said that they’re also attached to a giant force. Who would dare to provoke them?”

The crowd discussed in low voices.

“Hahaha!”

At this moment, a figure was standing on the Tang family’s warship with his hands behind his back. He could not help but laugh when he heard the voices coming from all directions.

The Tang Clan was now at the height of its power!

What was the Holy Temple? what was the Haotian Daoist sect? as long as the Tang Clan kept controlling the passageway and continued to develop, those forces would be trampled under the feet of the Tang Clan sooner or later. Soon, the Tang Clan would dominate the entire Pangu world.

Then, it would expand in this starry sky and dominate an area!

Soon, his Tang Clan would also have a true immortal, ascend to the upper realm, and become a giant in the starry sky, eternal and undying!

As he laughed, he took a deep breath and felt the rich immortal Qi in the surroundings. He couldn’t help but reveal a happy expression.

This was the immortal land!

Pangu world was nothing more than a broken, narrow cage!

He didn’t even want to go back.

“It’s a pity that that guy has been missing since then. No one knows if he’s Dead or Alive. He didn’t get to see the glory of our Tang Clan at this moment. Soon, our Tang Clan will completely surpass his Haotian Daoist sect and then take it into our own.”

Then, the corners of his mouth curled up and a hint of mockery flashed on his face.

That guy was really unlucky!

At the last moment, he had been affected by the self-destruction of the nine-colored reverent-God and had disappeared.

Although that guy’s strength was heaven-defying, he was already exhausted from the battle. On top of that, the Hierarchy of the nine color race was so powerful that the power of his self-explosion was terrifying. Even if that guy didn’t die, he would probably be crippled.

It would take a few hundred years for him to recover and return to Pangu.

By the time that guy recovered, he might have already reached the realm of Ascension.

“What vast heaven Dominator? our Tang Clan is the Dominator. We will not only dominate Pangu but also this starry sky!”

He mumbled as he looked in all directions, and a sense of pride suddenly rose in his heart.

“We’ll conquer this Jade dust planet first, then this entire Star Domain. The resources here can produce countless nine tribulation powerhouses for our Tang Clan. Then, we’ll conquer the starry sky with this Pangu divine boat.”

In his heart, a Grand blueprint had already been laid out.

Although this starry sky was rich in resources, it was not as good as Pangu’s cultivation level. As long as he seized the resources here, it would be easy for the Tang Clan to conquer this starry sky with the help of the entire Pangu world.

“Who do you want to conquer?”

Just as he was in the midst of his excitement, a faint voice suddenly entered his ears.

He was stunned for a moment, and then became furious.

“Who is it?”

He shouted and looked around.

When his gaze swept past a Street below, he froze.

He saw a familiar figure in the crowd.

“It’s him!”

His mind was instantly shaken, and his face revealed a dazed expression.

He would recognize this figure even if it turned into ashes.

It was this fellow who had caused him to lose all face and even colluded with that Liu fellow to set him up, leaving an indelible wound in his heart.

But, why was this guy here?

When they had first arrived in this star field, they had searched all over the place but had not found any traces of this fellow. Why had he suddenly appeared now?

He widened his eyes and took a closer look. Only then did he confirm that this was the guy!

“You’ve appeared just in time!”

He looked at the figure below and sneered. His expression was somewhat contemptuous and disdainful.

Did this guy really think that he was still the ruler of vast heaven who had awed Pangu?

Now, the Tang Clan was the true ruler of Pangu!

Now that this guy had appeared, he was only asking to be humiliated!
