

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2952

“What? The chief sovereign has returned?”

Yunyue clan.

When Daoist yunyue heard the news, he jumped up with a whoosh.

“Children, follow your father to welcome our benefactor!”

He lifted the ship and brought his Dao companions and children to the sacred Palace.

“Senior ... He’s back?”

On sky sword Mountain, Qi Lingxiao also jumped up, trembling with excitement.

He followed the people from sky sword Mountain and rushed out toward the sacred Hall.

“The chief sovereign has returned!”

When the news reached the Haotian Daoist sect, the weapon masters and alchemy Masters were the first to boil and rush out.

“I knew it, this kid would be fine!”

On the summit of great heaven peak in the Taoist sanctum, the old Chinese scholar tree shook its branches and leaves slightly as it smiled.

“Little Tang ... He’s really back?”

Qin Xiangyi was pacing back and forth in the hall, extremely excited.

When the heaven and earth origin core clone appeared and told her the news, she still couldn’t believe it. Now that the news came from the divine temple, it shouldn’t be fake!

“He has something to do in the Holy Temple. We’ll wait for him here. He’ll be back soon!”

She soothed the excited women and began to wait in the hall.

The other parts of the Dao Plaza, including the gate of fortune, Kunlun, and the demon God’s sect, were in an uproar. Countless people rose into the sky and looked in the direction of the sacred Hall.

When Tang Hao came out of the temple, he was shocked by the scene in front of him.

Countless cultivators from all over the Holy region had already gathered in front of the sacred Palace.

“Welcome back, chief sovereign!”

No one knew who started it, but everyone bowed and called out.

The voices of hundreds of millions of cultivators gathered into a tide that resounded in the void.

“You’re welcome!”

Tang Hao waved his hand.

He looked around and saw many familiar figures. He heaved a sigh of relief every time he saw one.

“Senior, I’m here!”

In the crowd, Qi Lingxiao kept waving his hands and shouting in excitement.

Behind him, the little Junior Sister Yu ‘er was still standing, looking at him with a face full of admiration.

Tang Hao smiled at them.

He had a deep impression of these sky sword Mountain disciples.

After a long time of excitement, the crowd finally separated, revealing a path to the Haotian Daoist sect.

“We welcome you, chief sovereign!”

As Tang Hao walked down the stairs, more and more people gathered and cheered excitedly.

“Greetings, senior Ying long!”

Halfway through, he saw a giant dragon flying over from the void in the distance. It was emitting a shocking divine light. It was the resurrected Winged Dragon.

“It’s good that you’re fine!”

Yinglong stopped not far away and nodded at him.

“Hahaha! You’re finally back!”

When he was about to reach his own training hall, he saw a group of people coming over to welcome him. Upon a closer look, he saw horizon, the Daoist priest, the child-maker, Fu Yunzi, Jiang Yun of the demon God clan, Yu Shi, Jin Lin, Yin Feng, the old silver Dragon, and Mo hun.

The group of people laughed, and the atmosphere was extremely warm.

“I’m back! I’ve made you worry!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“It’s good that you’re back!”

Yu Shiyan stood in the crowd and smiled at him. “Hurry up and get off. Sister Qin and the others are waiting for you!”

Tang Hao greeted them one by one, then landed. He saw Qin Xiangyi, Seixue, Tamamo, and the other girls in the hall.

“I heard that you also brought a maidservant back?”

Qin Xiangyi suddenly said after a moment of affection.

Her beautiful eyes were fixed on Tang Hao.

“Not a maidservant, but an assistant!” Tang Hao said.

He did not treat Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci as his maids.

“Greetings, Madam Qin!”

The two women bowed to Qin Xiangyi as soon as they appeared.

“Look, this is it!”

Qin Xiangyi glared at him and complained, “You, ah, when did you start putting on such airs? What maidservant, aren’t you bullying people!”

After all, she was born on earth, and her concept was more modern. She couldn’t accept things like maids and maidservants.

Tang Hao touched his nose. He felt wronged.

“You guys can just call me sister Qin!” Qin Xiangyi looked at the two girls and smiled.

Tang Hao summoned his star pupil and met with the girls.

After a long while, Tang Hao finally left. He went to the peak and met the old locust tree. They had a good chat, and he told them everything he had seen and heard in the outer space.

The old locust tree felt a little emotional when he heard this.

“You should go to the immortal world to take a look. There shouldn’t be anything going on here. Don’t make a move on the nine-colored God race. If you do, they’ll know about our Pangu’s transformation, and it might alarm even more Dragon count God race.”

The old locust tree said.

Tang Hao nodded when he heard that.

Indeed, judging from the current situation, the Dragon count celestial race didn't attach any importance to their Pangu world at all. They had only left behind an immortal rank Dragon count and a group of puppets to deal with Pangu world.

If he were to exterminate the nine-colored God clan, it would alarm the Dragon count divine world and bring about a great disaster.

"I won't go for the time being. I'll guard here for you! Protecting Pangu is more important to me."

The old locust tree continued.

"Alright!"

Tang Hao did not try to persuade him.

"These should be able to help senior break through to the immortal realm as soon as possible!"

He took out a ring and handed it over. It contained many plant essences that he had prepared, including the immortal level green Lotus seed.

"You're so considerate!"

The old locust tree took it and looked at it. He smiled and said in relief, "don't worry. I will guard this Pangu for you."

"Many thanks, senior!"

Tang Hao thanked her and stood up.

At this moment, two figures appeared on the side. They were his origin core avatar and Joss flame avatar.

"Take these!"

Tang Hao first took out a ring and handed it to the origin core clone. There were countless spiritual essences inside that could help the clone improve quickly and reach his level.

As for the Joss flame clone, he took out the God spirit manual and kept it.

In the future, the Joss flame clone would be the commander of the Joss flame gods in the scroll.

Then, Tang Hao left the mountain and went to the three great factions, Kunlun, the gate of fortune, and the demon God's sect. He learned about their development and bestowed them with many treasures so that they could cultivate more ninth tribulation cultivators.

Before long, a large number of nine tribulations would appear in his Haotian Daoist sect, and they would continue to flow.

He had brought back so many spiritual essences and beast souls that he couldn't count them.

“Daoist priest horizon, the child-maker, and Jiang Yun ... Just these three! I'll ascend to the immortal realm and guard Pangu.”

He considered for a moment and decided on the candidate.

It was easy for the Son of Heaven Daoist and the child of creation. They could reforge the immortal abode with some immortal materials and refine eight Dao attainments to knock open the gate of immortality. As for Jiang Yun, he was from a unique Demon God race. He did not need Dao attainments. As long as he had enough spiritual essences, he could smash the gate of immortality and transcend the Tribulation to break through to the immortal realm.

Any living being who broke through to the immortal realm naturally had a threshold. However, the method was different. The demon God race also had the same threshold as knocking on the gate of immortality.

His heaven and earth original embryo was an exception. Even if he advanced to the immortal realm, he didn't need to go through tribulation. He just needed enough spiritual essence.

He told the three of them about his plan to advance to the immortal realm, then gave them the Dao attainment and the spiritual essence.

In at most half a year, his Haotian Daoist sect would have three genuine Immortals.
