

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2954

“Uncle Huang Xie is too weak!”

When asked about the old demon desolation, the little Phoenix spoke in a childish voice with a look of disdain.

Tang Hao grinned.

The old demon of desolation was still rather powerful. After all, he had the bloodline of the ancestral Dragon, which might even be slightly higher than the bloodline of the pure-blooded Phoenix.

He was just giving in to this little girl!

Tang Hao felt a sense of warmth as he held the little Phoenix and interacted with the girls.

He really wanted to have a few.

But after thinking about it, he threw this thought away.

He still had too many things to do. He couldn't stay here forever. He was only ninety years old, and for Xiu Zhe, he was still very young. He still had a lot of time.

In the following period of time, Tang Hao was busy with the sanctuary's Affairs while accompanying sis Xiangyi and the others.

He had taken back all the treasures such as the Azure smoke spear, the Galaxy barrier, and the blood slaughter saber. Apart from the blood slaughter saber, he had divided the rest. As for the blood slaughter saber, it was given to Jiang Yun for safekeeping. After all, most of the demon God race was in the blood slaughter world.

He had also seen those great evils. In a corner of the Haotian Daoist temple, he had marked out a mountain range for them.

Seeing him, this group of great beasts was truly shocked.

In their eyes, this human brat was the true unparalleled evil.

Previously, when they saw that this kid had gone missing, they were still a little happy. They did not expect that in less than three years, this kid had returned again, and his aura had even become more terrifying.

Tang Hao had only set up a formation to surround them and did nothing else.

These great evils had extraordinary strength and were a powerful fighting force. They were of great use to the Haotian Daoist sect and the entire Pangu.

He took out the ten thousand beasts immortal Palace and placed it above the Haotian Daoist sect. Then, he moved the people of Kunlun, the gate of fortune, and the demon God's sect inside.

He gave the golden seal to sis Xiangyi to control the palace.

In the future, when he was not around, everything would naturally be decided by her.

Outside the training hall, it was also a lively scene.

The reform of the sacred Hall and the contest for the true immortal candidates were both hotly discussed by the world.

As for the Tang Clan, there was no movement.

The Tang Clan was once again a joke whenever people talked about it.

A month later, news came from the divine temple that the candidates had been confirmed. He went to the divine temple and handed over his cultivation and immortal materials to elder Ling Qing, as well as the formula for the many child pill and a large amount of Silver Dragon flesh and blood.

After that, Tang Hao went to meet some old friends, such as Daoist numinous treasure, Lord Qin, The Blood King, the old demon Huang Xie, Ling Zhanxu, and so on.

Then, he brought the girls to the Kunlun planet to meet his old friends.

Then, through the passage on Kunlun, he returned to the lower realm, on Qiyuan star.

He went to the ruins of Kunwu.

The remnant soul of the eldest son of Kunwu was still there, but it was even weaker.

Just like before, he accompanied the eldest young master for a while and told him about the starry sky outside.

When he left, he took a good look at this person and felt a sense of loss.

This person was really too persistent. If he didn't stay in these broken ruins or had him set up some arrays, he could have lived for a few hundred or even a thousand years.

But looking at the current situation, he didn't know how many more years this remnant soul could live, or if it could wait until he killed Dragon Count and took revenge for Kunwu.

He sighed and left.

After passing through the tunnel, he returned to earth.

This time, she came back mainly for star pupil. She had not been back for a long time.

After so many years, the earth had changed quite a bit, especially in terms of technology. However, for places like Tang village, dragonrock village, and Stonegate town, the changes were not that great.

Although most of the buildings had been refurbished, many places still retained their original appearance.

Of course, his grandparents and sis Xiangyi's family members no longer lived in these places.

They had all taken the pills and would no longer age. Naturally, they could not live in the city like before.

He went around, but many people were no longer there.

He was now ninety-five years old. People of the same age as him were basically gone. Those who were older than him had also left early.

His Haotian group, on the other hand, had been developing and growing.

Of course, he didn't care about these things anymore.

After three months, he brought the girls back to the Holy region.

At this moment, horizon, the child-maker, and Jiang Yun had all broken through to the immortal realm.

Tang Hao could rest assured with the three true immortals guarding the training hall.

The demon God clan, in particular, had a limitless future and would be the most powerful force in the Haotian Daoist sect.

He brought along Chun Xuan, Qiu Ci, and Ji Ruyin, and once again passed through the tunnel, returning to planet Jade dust.

The passage was now under the jurisdiction of the divine temple.

Anyone who entered or left had to go through the strict approval of the Holy Cathedral.

After all, the passage was too important for the Holy region and the entire Pangu world.

In the Beiyang mountain range, a Palace had already been built, and it was covered by layers of arrays.

"Let's go back to da Luo!"

Tang Hao first left the mountain to meet with the people the twelve leaders had left behind in the four corners of the mountain range. Then, he set off for the origin immortal domain.

He had already brought the Kunlun mirror with him on this trip. He was going to open up a passage to the zenith heaven, directly connecting the ten thousand beasts immortal Palace to the Azure meteor star of the zenith heaven immortal realm.

This way, if the passage to Jade Dust Star was exposed, there would be a backup.

The distance between Tai Wei and zenith heaven was five celestial realms apart, but it still took them four months to travel.

Along the way, he also investigated the development of the spiritual void realm and found some evil forces to exterminate.

He had taken over a hundred Dao beads on this trip back to Pangu, and he urgently needed to replenish them.

“Big Luo ... We’ve arrived!”

As soon as he returned to the origin immortal realm, he took out the God spirit chart and had his second clone take it to absorb the power of Joss flames. After he had collected all the power of Joss flames in this area, he could go to the square immortal realm, the developed places in the spiritual void realm, and continue to collect.

As long as there was a spiritual void realm, there would be the statue of a Saint, and there would be an endless stream of incense.

Then, he headed towards Azure meteor star.

“Young master, we’ve arrived at the Azure meteor star!”

As soon as they approached Cangliu, the three women on the ship shouted excitedly.

Ji Ruyin, in particular, was elated.

“I wonder how the old ancestor and the others are doing after so long!” She mumbled.

It had been almost three years since he had left the origin immortal domain.

This starry sky was simply too vast, and just hurrying on the journey had already consumed a large amount of time.

“So many statues of saints!”

As soon as he entered Cangliu, Tang Hao discovered a large number of statues of saints on every continent. Each statue was taller than the last. He could even sense the intense Joss flame aura.

On Wu province, the spirit illusion divine statues were even more densely packed. It was also very lively there as many large ships came from outer space and gathered on Wu province.

Tang Hao looked over and realized that they were all here for sightseeing and to pay their respects to the saint’s remains.

The so-called ruins were, of course, the place where he had hidden the key.
