

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2956

“True immortal?”

Tang Hao stood in the chaotic void of the spiritual void realm.

As he listened to the rumors about true immortals coming from all directions, he frowned slightly.

There were already more than a dozen such news, and it didn't seem to be fake.

It seemed that true immortals had really appeared, and there was more than one.

“That's strange. No one has come down for thousands of years. Why is there one all of a sudden?” He was a little puzzled.

He immediately went down and passed the news to the Holy sanctum.

Now that a true immortal had appeared, they had to be even more cautious.

In the next few days, there was a lot more news about true immortals. There was even news that true immortals had taken action and exterminated some forces, which instantly caused panic in people's hearts.

Many forces in the starry sky began to shrink. Those with perfected immortal formations hid in their formations, and those without could only hide.

“Our cultivation is also useful for true immortals. In their eyes, we are walking tonics. We must not let them see us! Otherwise, you'll lose your little life!”

“Aiyo! It's too scary!”

In the spiritual void realm, many 9th tribulation experts looked worried.

It was not a good thing for a true immortal to descend to the lower realm.

Soon, more news came, saying that the ancestor of a powerful force who had ascended had returned.

Such news gradually increased.

Tang Hao stayed in the virtual spirit realm, paying close attention to the development of the situation.

On this day, he suddenly had an idea.

“Not good!”

He let out a low cry and immediately left the spiritual void realm.

Just now, he had sensed the distress messages from his two clones.

Only a true immortal would be able to make his two clones call for help.

The next moment, the void in front of him rippled, and a passage opened. It was the origin core clone that had used the sacred ancestor token.

He immediately passed through it and flicked his sleeve, cutting off the passage at once.

Then, he looked around and understood the situation.

The two avatars were driving the star Shuttle, fleeing madly in the starry sky. Behind them, a Bright stream of light was chasing them at an extremely fast speed with an astonishing aura.

Tang Hao's expression turned ugly.

This aura was indeed that of a true immortal!

"Fellow Daoist!"

The two avatars called out to him when they saw him.

The avatar continued to control the star Shuttle, while the second avatar opened the God spirit list. From time to time, figures rushed out and collided with the flowing light behind, exploding into boundless brilliance.

Each explosion would cause the stream of light to pause for a moment.

But very quickly, it accelerated and caught up.

"Motherf * cker!" "F * ck!" The incense clone cursed in anger. "We've already chased him across half the celestial realm, and he's still F * cking chasing us!"

"Yo! Another one! This time it's the main character!"

A flirtatious voice came from behind.

Tang Hao focused his gaze and saw a woman's figure in the stream of light. She was wearing a black chiffon dress and had a voluptuous figure. Her face was gorgeous and she had put on extremely seductive makeup.

Her Phoenix eyes were long and narrow, with a hint of Foxy charm and an evil aura.

Tang Hao's brows furrowed tightly.

Motherf * cker! She was clearly a female devil! His evil aura was almost soaring to the sky. He killed people without blinking, the kind that was evil to the core!

This is over!

He hurriedly helped to activate the star Shuttle and escape forward.

Although he had a lot of cultivation now, he had not yet advanced to the realm of true immortals. He was not a match for a true immortal, let alone this tricky female devil of the immortal world.

“Little brother, why are you running? Don’t I look good?” Behind him, the female devil giggled.

That tone was coquettish to the bone. If it was an ordinary person, they would immediately be hooked.

However, Tang Hao’s mental fortitude was not something an ordinary person could compare to. Even the six desires heavenly demons could not affect him, let alone ordinary seduction techniques like this.

“Are you waiting for death if you don’t run?”

“Go!” Tang Hao roared.

“Keke! Little brother, you’re really interesting. If I’m not wrong, these two are your clones! Tsk tsk! A rare heaven and earth original embryo clone, and a Joss flame clone ... Little brother, your luck is really heaven-defying!”

“And that treasure, it’s full of incense gods, all of them peak level. So far, how many have exploded? There must be five or six hundred of them. Little brother, your methods are really amazing!”

The female devil chuckled.

She stared at the white-robed figure on the ship in front of her, and a hint of surprise flashed through her eyes.

When she first saw the two avatars, she was truly shocked.

Just the heaven and earth origin core was already shocking enough!

In addition, there were the Joss flame clones and countless Joss flame gods in the treasure ...

How could there be such a powerful figure in the lower realm’s starry sky!

“Looking at him, he doesn’t seem very old. He must be a monster! The kind with heaven-defying luck! Take him as my own, or kill him, and I can enjoy this amazing luck!” She mumbled, a little excited.

“He looks quite handsome ...”

She looked at his face and licked her lips, her face showing some excitement.

“Little brother, if you don’t stop, just give in to big sister! I’ll take you to the immortal world and let you experience the feeling of being happier than an immortal!” She said with a charming smile.

I don’t believe you!

Tang Hao's face twitched.

He wouldn't believe a single word of this female devil's.

"Little brother, don't you want to try it? That feeling of ... Bliss!"

"F * ck!"

"Die!" The incense clone roared and sent out a few more incense spirits to crash into the enemy.

"Actually, the more you struggle, the more you resist, the more excited I am!"

The female devil said in a sweet voice.

"I, F * cking ..."

Tang Hao felt like he was about to split open.

How could he have met such a shameless female devil!

"To the starry sky forbidden zone!"

He quickly thought of the star Devourer beast.

This place was not far from big Luo. His two avatars had received news from him and ran into this She-Devil on their way back. In three to four days, he would be able to reach the Forbidden Zone in the starry sky and hide in the body of the star Devourer beast.

At that moment, he activated the star Shuttle crazily, while the incense clone activated the God spirit manual to block the demoness behind.

Just like that, after three days of escape, they finally arrived at the Forbidden Zone of the starry sky.

"Eh? Where is he?"

The female devil who was chasing after him looked around and was immediately stunned.

The ship suddenly disappeared without a trace.

It didn't seem like he had traveled through the void, because she didn't sense any fluctuations in the void just now.

"Is he hiding in this star?"

She focused her eyes and looked at the huge pitch-black Star not far away.

"Wait, something's not right!"

When she took a closer look, she couldn't help but change her expression.

This was not a star at all. It was clearly a star-devouring beast! Judging from its size and aura, it was clearly a true immortal level star-devouring beast!
