

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2960

“That’s the immortal Emperor’s relic?”

“So black! I can’t see anything!”

Tang Hao heard a commotion ahead of him.

Most of the people stopped in their tracks, hesitating.

After all, this place looked too horrifying. When they thought about how even true immortals could die in there, they became even more nervous.

Most of his initial passion had also been worn down.

“Why don’t we just go back?”

“I also think so!”

Quite a few people gave up and turned to leave.

“Hmph! All trash! Coward!”

After a while, a cold laugh suddenly came from the starry sky behind them.

Tang Hao turned around and was stunned.

A magnificent warship was approaching from that direction. It glowed with a golden light and was incomparably magnificent. Tang Hao was very familiar with the symbol on the ship. It was the Xuanyuan clan.

When he looked up, he saw a familiar figure standing at the bow of the ship.

He was dressed in a golden immortal robe and had a handsome face. He was Xuanyuan Hongyi.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Hongyi was standing proudly at the bow of the ship. He raised his head and looked around in disdain.

“This guy! Eh? Why does he still have another immortal robe? didn’t I strip it off?”

Tang Hao was surprised.

Last time at the Xuanyuan clan, although he had let this guy go, he had already stripped him of everything.

“He’s indeed a fat sheep!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself. He was overjoyed.

The reason why he let this guy go was because he felt that this guy's luck was amazing, and he could be slaughtered like a fat sheep. If he met him in the future, he could even give him many treasures.

Now, it seemed that this decision was correct.

He stared at the immortal robe on this fat sheep and almost drooled.

But very quickly, he retracted his gaze, because he saw a few figures standing beside the fat sheep. They didn't seem to have any aura at all, as if they were mortals.

Clearly, these were all true immortals!

It would be bad if these true immortals noticed him.

"You're already here, but you still don't dare to go in. What are you if not trash!" Xuanyuan Hong glanced around and sneered.

"I wonder if that guy is here yet. If he dares to come, I'll teach him a lesson!"

Then, his face darkened and his eyes were filled with hatred.

He thought of that bastard again, and anger rose in his heart.

Previously, he was the first descendant of the Xuanyuan clan, who was feared by everyone in the Tianhuang region. But since that time when he was killed in one move and stripped naked, he had become the laughingstock of the Tianhuang region!

Moreover, not only him, but the entire Xuanyuan clan would become a joke!

There was an irreconcilable hatred between the Xuanyuan clan and that bastard!

When the true immortals beside him heard this, their brows furrowed slightly, and killing intent appeared in their eyes.

Those who dared to provoke the Xuanyuan clan deserved to die!

Moreover, that person had killed many of his Xuanyuan clan's people. He deserved to die.

"Young master Hong Yi, in my opinion, if he really dares to come, he might already be inside!" At this moment, a clear and melodious female voice came from the ship.

Tang Hao was stunned when he heard that.

This voice was also familiar to him. Wasn't it that green tea B * tch from Jing Yan house, ning Yuzhen?!

Looking up, sure enough, Ning Yu really walked out of the ship and came to the bow.

She was dressed in a white dress and her body was shrouded in a layer of clear light. Her already beautiful face looked even more dreamy and moving. She was really like a goddess from the nine Heavens, elegant and Holy, and could not be profane.

Her white dress clung tightly to her skin, outlining her slender and perfect figure.

Xuanyuan Hong turned around, and his eyes widened.

His eyes swept back and forth between that beautiful face and her graceful figure. He couldn't help but gulp and swallow his saliva.

As the first inheritor of the Xuanyuan clan, he had many beautiful women outside, but none of them were as attractive to him as this one.

Her otherworldly and inviolable temperament was simply deadly.

Sensing his burning, almost naked gaze, ning Yuzhen wasn't embarrassed. Instead, the corners of his mouth lifted slightly, and he looked a little proud.

She had seen too many gazes like this. Most of the blue-face confidants around her were like this, being charmed by her charm until they were disoriented.

The more infatuated they were, the more accomplished she felt.

Young master Hong Yi's status was even more extraordinary. He was the first inheritor of the number one clan in this starry sky, the Xuanyuan clan. Conquering him would undoubtedly be a greater sense of achievement than conquering those stinky fish and rotten shrimp.

"Fairy ning!"

Xuanyuan Hongyi called out enthusiastically.

Ning Yuzhen bowed and smiled."I don't know how bold that devil is. Since these people dare to come, that devil will definitely come."

"Hmph! I hope that he will come so that my Xuanyuan clan can wash away our shame! I'm going to use his blood to pay tribute to my thirteenth uncle's spirit in heaven!"

Xuanyuan Hongyi said with hatred.

"I also hope that he will come. If he comes, I can also take revenge for my humiliation!"

Ning Yuzhen said.

She squinted her eyes, and a strong killing intent emerged.

She had never hated someone so much before. It was simply unforgettable.

In the past few years, she had been thinking about revenge all the time. Unfortunately, that bastard was too powerful, and she could only think about it. But now, the ancestors of her sect had come down to the lower realm, and this Xuanyuan clan had come to find her, which gave her hope of revenge.

This time, if she joined hands with Xuanyuan, she would definitely be able to get her revenge!

“Fairy ning, don’t worry. If he dares to show himself, he’ll be dead! With the Xuanyuan clan’s old ancestors around, how could he still live?”

Xuanyuan Hongyi shouted and laughed.

“Fairy ning, you have to be careful later and follow me closely. It’s very dangerous inside. Don’t worry, I, Xuanyuan Hongyi, will definitely protect you!” Then, he patted his chest and made a vow.

“Then I’ll thank young master in advance!”

Ning Yuzhen bowed and laughed.

“Hahaha! Don’t worry!”

Xuanyuan Hongyi laughed heartily.

“Alright, get ready. We’re going in!”

At this time, a true immortal beside him said.

“It’s very dangerous inside. Once you step in, all your cultivation will be suppressed, and you won’t be able to use any spells or divine arts. Also, your physical bodies won’t be able to make it. They’ll be suppressed as well. You won’t be able to use any divine arts and can’t be reborn. You’ll be no different from an ordinary person.”

“So, you must be mentally prepared. Don’t panic!”

“Now, take out everything that can be used from your rings and hold them in your hands. Once you go in, you can’t even use your rings.”

Another true immortal shouted.

When everyone on the ship heard this, they all opened their storage rings and took out some weapons and pills.

Soon, the warship sailed forward and burrowed into the darkness.
