

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2973

“This immortal world is incomparably vast, and there are many forces here.”

“Pure lands, blessed lands, and heavenly caves are everywhere. There are also many ancient clans, immortal sects, and great sects. The structure of the forces is very complicated, and it’s hard to say for a while.”

“Your Tianhuang Hall is one of the most powerful forces. After all, the name Tianhuang is the title of the immortal Emperor ...”

“The Xuanyuan clan? That was still rather impressive. Devil Heart sect? It’s also quite famous and has a golden immortal overseeing it. ”

“When can we descend to the lower realm? It’s hard to say. In the past thousands of years, the immortal court has never opened the passage. This time, it’s only because of the pressure from all sides that the immortal court opened the passage because of an immortal Emperor’s remains in the lower realm. ”

“If you want to wait for the next time the passage opens, then you’ll have to wait.”

“.....”

Tang Hao asked a lot of questions. He had a basic understanding of the immortal world.

In the immortal world, not everyone was an immortal. There were many sages.

Most of the immortals here were in the human immortal stage. Earth Immortals were already considered strong, and heaven Immortals were even rarer.

With his current cultivation of 7000 Dao attainment, he had just entered the late-stage human immortal realm. He was considered to have some strength.

With his Sacred Arts and ten thousand laws divine mountain, he would be able to protect himself even if he encountered an earth level deity.

As for celestial Immortals, that was hard to say.

Every heaven immortal had more than 50000 Dao attainment, which was quite terrifying.

“Let’s keep a low profile for now and develop!”

Tang Hao said to himself.

The reason why he was in a hurry to ascend was to hide his identity. Once he was exposed, the consequences would be quite terrible. The two immortal Emperor-grade Supreme treasures on him could attract all the perfected golden Immortals.

With his current strength, he would die without a doubt if he encountered a perfected golden immortal.

“Fellow Daoist, if you still have any doubts, you can wait until you reach the heaven desolate Hall and ask someone about it. This is a map. Look, this is the location of your heaven desolate Hall. It’s a little far. Why don’t I send someone to send a message and get someone from the heaven desolate Hall to pick you up?”

The immortal envoy took out a map and handed it over.

“Oh! No need! I’ll go by myself! I can take a look around on the way and learn more. ”

Tang Hao waved his hands and rejected the offer.

If he were to go to the heaven desolate Hall, his identity would be exposed very quickly. At that time, the people of the heaven desolate Hall would probably have their eyes on him.

“That works too! However, you still have to be careful. You’ve just become an immortal, and your cultivation is still a little weak. If you encounter some evil Immortals, you’ll be in trouble. ”

“Thank you for your reminder, fellow Daoist. I will be careful!”

“Thank you,” Tang Hao said.

“Fellow Daoist, once you leave the immortal court, fly over there. You will soon see a city. It’s yuan yang city, the largest city in the vicinity. You can go there and have a look to understand more about the situation in the immortal world.”

The celestial envoy raised his hand and pointed in a direction.

“Good! Fellow Daoist, I’ll take my leave!”

Tang Hao cupped his hands again and flew up. He soon left the immortal court.

The immortal court was located in the sky. Countless palaces were connected together to form a vast and majestic palace. Under the cover of curling clouds, it really had some immortal atmosphere.

He looked around and saw many figures coming and going in the sky above the immortal court. Some of them were wearing battle armor and had a heroic temperament, while some were wearing immortal robes and riding immortal cranes. They had a celestial and otherworldly temperament.

“Since we’re here, let’s take things as they come!”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself as he looked around.

Since he was already here, he naturally had to establish a firm foothold first. As for returning to the lower realm, that would be considered in the future.

“Let’s stay away from here!”

This was the immortal court, which was in charge of the entrance to the lower realm. The genuine Immortals below would also pass through the immortal court when they returned. It would be embarrassing if they bumped into each other.

To be safe, he even changed his appearance.

With his current cultivation, there were only a few people who could see through his disguise.

“We have arrived at Yuan yang city!”

After flying for more than an hour, he saw a Golden city in the clouds ahead. It was also shrouded in a seven-colored glow, which was very eye-catching.

“F * ck! It’s so fast!”

Tang Hao grinned as he looked over.

The light from this golden Immortal City was simply blinding.

From all four sides of the cloud layer, immortal radiance swept over and entered the city.

“That’s right,” Tang Hao mumbled as he dashed forward.

No one was guarding the city, and he didn’t have to pay any fees, so he went in directly.

He looked around and found that this city in the immortal world was similar to the cities in the cultivation world below. There were also shops and restaurants, but the things they sold were different.

Most of the people walking on the streets were Immortals. Most of them were at the early-stage or mid-stage human immortal realm. There were also a few at the Saint realm.

However, most of the shopkeepers and shop assistants were in the Saint realm.

“Did you hear? something big has happened in the lower realm this time! Many people died!”

“The treasure in the immortal Emperor’s remains is the legendary ten thousand laws divine mountain. It’s said that it can suppress all the laws in the world. Under the suppression of this divine mountain, everyone who went in became ordinary people. Many people died in there, and they died in grievance.”

“Not only human Immortals, but also an earth immortal!”

“I heard that the ten thousand laws divine mountain was not obtained by the people of our immortal world. It was obtained by a native kid. I heard that the kid is extremely monstrous. His talent is simply terrifying. Even the soul of the immortal Emperor was shocked.”

“F * ck! This is too exaggerated! The lower realm could produce such a monster that even the immortal Emperor was shocked? That’s a little too much!”

“I think so too, but those who came back all said so. Some of them were even more exaggerated. They said that although the kid is in the Saint realm, his cultivation is in the thousands. He even suppressed an immortal in front of them.”

“Motherf * cker! This was too F * cking ridiculous! Who are they trying to fool?”

“Exactly! I don’t really believe it either!”

When he walked past the restaurant, he heard some people inside discussing what had happened in the lower realm.

This was normal. That had happened two months ago. During this time, some true immortals must have returned and spread the news.

He listened for a while, but those people didn’t really believe him. To him, this was a good thing. The fewer people who believed him, the better.

He strolled around and looked at every shop to understand what they were selling and the prices.

“There’s an immortal’s cave in this city, I can rent one!”

After walking around, he saw a cave abode in a corner of the city. It cost tens of immortal crystals a year. Although it was a little expensive, he had more than 1200 immortal crystals on him and could afford it.

He would rent one first, stay there, and understand the situation here. It would not be too late for him to make other plans then.

Therefore, he spent 40 immortal crystals to rent a cave.

After entering the cave, he called out the sisters, Chun Xuan and Qiu Ci.
