

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2975

“There are so many true immortals, but they can’t win against a native kid. It’s really embarrassing!”

“A bunch of trash!”

In the restaurant, the crowd began to laugh at the group of true immortals from the lower realm.

“Fellow Daoist, I remember that there’s a rule in the immortal court that all Immortals who ascend from the lower realm have to hold a position in the immortal court. How did you come out?” Suddenly, someone asked doubtfully.

“Oh! My master has some connections with the immortal world, so I don’t need to hold a position in the immortal court. ”

Tang Hao said.

“I see! Which force do you belong to?” The man asked.

“The Saint Beast Celestial Palace!”

Tang Hao did not mention the heaven desolate Palace, but the sacred beast immortal Palace.

“So it’s the Holy beast Palace. I’ve heard of it.” The man nodded. His gaze on Tang Hao became more passionate, and even his attitude became more enthusiastic.

“Fellow Daoist, it’s not easy to cultivate in the lower realm! “Fortunately, you have ascended. This is the real immortal world. Look at the immortal Qi and the environment. It’s so good!”

The man sat down and said affectionately.

This person had the appearance of a middle-aged man. His appearance was somewhat ordinary, and he had a mustache. He was wearing an Emerald immortal robe embroidered with green pine trees.

“Not only is the environment good in our immortal world, but the people are also good. Everyone is simple, kind, and very enthusiastic! We welcome you to come up!”

As he said this, he laughed happily, looking really warm and hospitable.

“Yup! The immortal world is a good place!”

Everyone laughed.

They looked at the middle-aged man, then at Tang Hao. Their gazes were strange.

But they didn’t say anything and just smiled.

Of course, they could see what this Taoist priest Lu Song was up to. A young man who had just ascended and knew nothing was the easiest fat sheep to slaughter!

Not only was he easy to trick, but he was also easy to deal with.

They had just ascended, and their Dao attainment was only eight or nine, which was the weakest immortal.

As long as he used some tricks, he could still kill them.

Eight or nine Dao attainment points was already a huge harvest.

This fellow's background wasn't very big. Although the sacred beast Palace was somewhat famous, it wasn't a top-tier faction and was still far from here. As long as they did a clean job, the sacred beast Palace wouldn't find out.

Tang Hao looked around and understood.

But he didn't point it out. Instead, he played dumb and said, "Really? That's great. I heard in the lower realm that the immortal realm is a beautiful world. It's true!" As he spoke, he even revealed an excited and happy expression.

When that Daoist Lu Song saw this, he was somewhat stunned.

F * ck!

So easy to fool?

Even he himself could not believe that this guy was so easy to fool!

He took a closer look. This guy's expression was very natural. That excitement and joy was not an act at all. It came from the heart.

This was really an extremely simple-minded, oh no, an extremely stupid guy!

In the lower realm, this guy must have been cultivating in seclusion and rarely went out to gain experience. That was why he had such a pure heart.

He said to himself.

He sized up Tang Hao again and was even more delighted.

Look, what a pure gaze, just like a little lamb!

This kind of pure and innocent look was definitely not something that could be acted out.

He laughed in his heart, but his face was even more enthusiastic.

Everyone was also stunned for a moment, and their expressions became even more strange.

This guy was too naïve and innocent!

He even believed such nonsense?

“He’s an absolute fool!”

“F * ck! Lu Song is going to strike it rich!”

They thought to themselves.

“Dao friend, of course it’s true. The immortal world is a beautiful place. You just came here so you can’t feel it yet. You’ll be able to feel it after a while.” Daoist Lu Song said affectionately, “by the way, fellow Daoist, you’ve just left the immortal court. Are you going to the Holy beast sect?” I can show you the way.”

“No, I’ve rented an immortal’s cave here. I’m planning to stay here for a while and understand the situation in the immortal world first.” Tang Hao said.

“Oh? A cave abode? That’s quite expensive!”

Daoist Lu Song said in surprise.

It was quite expensive to rent a cave abode in such an Immortal City.

“I went to sell some things, so I had some money. I didn’t know if it was expensive, so I rented it.” Tang Hao said.

As expected, he was a fool!

Daoist Lu Song felt happy.

Those who dared to rent an immortal’s cave here must have some background. They were at least in the middle or late stage of human immortal realm. For a newbie like this to dare to rent an immortal’s cave here, if he wasn’t a fool, what was he?

“Why? is there a problem?”

Tang Hao said.

“No... How could there be a problem? it just so happens that I’m also nearby this immortal City. I’ll take care of you in the future. If there’s anything you don’t understand, you can come and ask me.” Lu Song Daoist shook his head.

“That’s great! Thank you, fellow Daoist!”

Tang Hao put on an overjoyed expression. He stood up and said excitedly, "you're such a good person, my fellow cultivator! May I know how to address you?"

A good person?

Hahaha!

Everyone's faces were stiff, and they almost couldn't hold back their laughter.

This guy was really too stupid!

Even Lu Song Daoist's face twitched. This was the first time someone had called him a good person.

"My Daoist name is green pine!"

He cupped his hands and said.

"Green pine? What a good name! I'll just call you brother Lu!" Tang Hao looked at him and smiled.

"Alright!"

"Yes," Lu Song Taoist replied. He looked at Tang Hao and smiled.

He had already started to think about how to slaughter this fat sheep.

After spending half a day in the restaurant, Tang Hao returned to the cave abode.

He first entered the portable herb garden and looked at the growth of the many spiritual herbs inside.

This herb garden was one of his most important treasures, so he naturally brought it up. Xianyun was also inside, helping him take care of the spirit herbs as usual.

The celestial King's Jade bottle had always been in the herb garden.

After leaving the herb garden, Tang Hao sat on the Lotus seat and summoned his clone.

This Lotus seat was something he had snatched from Xuanyuan Hongyi. It had a good style and many functions, so he kept it for himself.

Of his two avatars, he had only brought one with him, which was the origin core avatar.

His second clone had to stay in the lower realm to control the God spirit list and absorb the endless power of incense from the lower realm's starry sky. Therefore, he only brought his origin core clone up.

He took out the spiritual essence that he had prepared earlier and gave it to the clone.

"Many thanks, fellow Daoist!"

The clone took the ring and opened it. He opened his mouth and sucked, swallowing all the spiritual essence in it like a whale.

As the spiritual essence entered his stomach, the aura on his body began to rise sharply, rising bit by bit.

As a magical heaven and earth origin embryo, there were no obstacles for him to advance. When he had enough spiritual essence, everything would flow naturally and he would enter the immortal realm directly.

After he finished, Tang Hao took out a ring that contained many spiritual essences.

Relying on the spiritual void realm, he had collected countless spiritual essences in the lower realm, and there was no way to use them all. The batch of spiritual essences just now was just enough for the clone to enter the immortal realm, and the spiritual essences in this ring could increase the clone’s strength by another level.

According to his estimation, he could reach the late-stage of human immortal.
