

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2981

Spirit Toad continent, somewhere.

Ripples appeared in the void, and a figure emerged.

It was Tang Hao.

He was already far away from silver wall city and had shaken off the group of disciples from the divine wonder Palace.

“Next ... Let’s go this way!”

He took out a map, looked at it, and his eyes fell on the lower right corner.

There were the most mountains there, and the most wandering cultivator forces.

He kept the map and rushed all the way. Three days later, he arrived at his destination.

“The largest Grotto-heaven in the southern region, the golden light Grotto-heaven, is recruiting! If you join now, you’ll get a 20% discount on the entrance fee and all sorts of thoughtful services, making you feel at home!”

“Water Moon blessed land is recruiting, limited time discount, 30% off ... Join and you’ll get a big gift!”

As soon as he entered the immortal City, Tang Hao was confused by the shouts coming from the front.

He looked over and saw many tables and chairs in the city square. There were also many flags with the names of various grotto-heavens and blessed lands on them.

Many people stood under the flag and shouted in all directions.

What was even more exaggerated was that several of them were pulling one person into their own camp.

Tang Hao stood there, dumbfounded.

Why is this like snatching people!

Did it have to be so exaggerated?

“Hey! It must be your first time here! This scene is still considered small. In order to snatch people, these grotto-heavens and blessed lands have fought a lot!”

Someone on the street looked at Tang Hao and laughed.

“Newcomers are highly sought after here. Think about it. In this independent cultivator Grotto-heaven, the more people there are, the more powerful they are. Moreover, with more people, they can collect a lot of fees in a year. Do you think they won’t break their heads?”

Tang Hao asked.

After hearing this, he came to a realization.

To join such an organization, one usually had to pay a sum of money. They had to pay a sum of money when they joined, and then they had to pay a sum every year. This was equivalent to a protection fee. If something happened, the organization would come forward to settle it.

“Which one is more reliable?”

He asked again.

“It’s hard to say. They’re all fine. If you like the liveliness, you can go to the big ones. Golden light and water Moon are the top grotto-heavens and blessed lands here. They’re all established by late-stage celestial Immortals!”

“They have a lot of people and are famous, so the fee will naturally be more expensive. The other small and medium-sized grotto-heavens are actually not bad, so the fee will be lower. It’s up to you to choose!”

Tang Hao looked around the square and saw all the flags.

“There are too many people, not good!”

“It doesn’t seem good to have too few people. It means that it’s not very reliable. Why don’t we choose a cave abode with about a hundred people? that’s the best!”

He pondered for a moment and made a choice.

“This Shang Qing Grotto-heaven isn’t bad. I remember there were more than a hundred people. The founder was Shang Qing Daoist, a mid-stage heaven immortal. He’s a rather famous itinerant immortal in the southern region.”

He asked around and picked one of them.

The Shang Qing Grotto-heaven!

Among the hundreds of grotto-heavens and blessed lands here, Shang Qing Grotto-heaven was not very eye-catching. It was very ordinary, and that was exactly what Tang Hao wanted.

After making up his mind, he walked forward.

As soon as he entered the square, many people stared at him with eager eyes.

He was an earth level deity!

To them, they were more valuable than human Immortals.

“Ai! Fellow Daoist, are you interested in coming to my golden light Grotto-heaven?”

“Fellow Daoist, if you come to my Water Moon blessed land, I’ll give you a 50% discount. No, 40% is fine too! I can even waive your fees for a few years!”

Many people surrounded him and said enthusiastically.

They didn’t dare to pull him as casually as before. After all, he was an earth immortal. Among the individual Immortals, an earth immortal was considered an extraordinary cultivation.

“No need!”

Tang Hao smiled and declined their invitation.

He walked straight to the flag of Shang Qing Grotto-heaven.

An old man sat behind the table next to the flag. He was a little dazed as he watched Tang Hao walk over.

After a while, he jumped up in excitement.

“Dao friend, are you going to enter my Shang Qing Grotto-heaven? Welcome! A warm welcome! Although our Shang Qing Grotto-heaven has fewer people than their grotto-heavens, we are not weak. Moreover, our benefits are greater. Fellow Daoist, you really have a good eye!”

He came out to welcome them and said enthusiastically.

“F * ck! Why do you have your eyes on this broken heavenly passage!”

The people from the other grotto-heavens and blessed lands were all indignant and somewhat jealous.

“What broken heavenly passage? you guys are the ones who broke it! You guys are just jealous!” The old man wasn’t willing to show weakness as he cursed in all directions.

He turned around and gave Tang Hao a warm smile after a round of scolding.

“Dao friend, ignore them. They are just jealous. My Shang Qing Grotto-heaven is great! The mountains and rivers are beautiful, everyone is friendly and harmonious, unlike those big grotto-heavens, where some trivial things can be discussed for half a day. ”

“Come! This is my Shang Qing Grotto-heaven’s identity token, quickly take it!”

As he said this, he hastily pulled out a token and forcefully stuffed it into Tang Hao’s hand, as if afraid that Tang Hao would go back on his words and run away.

“Alright, you’re now a member of my Shang Qing Grotto-heaven. Now, I’ll tell you the fee. I’ll give you a 40% discount on the entrance fee. It’s 80 immortal crystals, which is two or three times more than what we have.”

“Every year, the fee is ten Yuan, which is not expensive at all! We can even give you a piece of land for free with high grade immortal veins below. ”

He grinned.

“Pay for a few years first?”

Tang Hao picked up the token and looked at it. It was plain and simple, and the two words “Shang Qing” were engraved on it.

He asked after keeping the token.

“Originally, it was ten years, so it was a hundred. Now, I’ll exempt you from five years, and you only need to pay fifty. After ten years, you can continue. ”

The old man said.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao nodded and paid the money without hesitation.

“Fellow Daoist, you’re quite straightforward! I like people like you! Come, come, come, I’ll take you to our Shang Qing Grotto-heaven. There are few people there, and there are still many empty mountains, such as Tiger back mountain, Phoenix nest mountain, Dragon Mountain, these are all still left, you can choose whatever you want. ”

After receiving the money, the old man packed up his stall, pulled Tang Hao along, and left.

His magic treasure was a gourd, and he flew with it. It looked a little strange.

Tang Hao sat on the red-crowned crane and followed them.

This red-crowned crane still belonged to Daoist Lusong.

Along the way, the old Daoist explained to Tang Hao about the grotto-heaven’s situation.

“Look, the entire land in front of us belongs to our Shang Qing Grotto-heaven. There are hundreds of mountain ranges, but only a hundred of them have been used. Look, those that are emitting divine light are all occupied. The rest are empty.”

“Pick one for yourself, pick one!”

The old man pointed ahead and said when they arrived in front of a mountain.

“So many!”

Tang Hao was surprised when he looked around.

The mountains he was talking about were not individual mountains, but vast mountain ranges.

“This one!”

Tang Hao said as he looked around and found a place with a nice view.

“Fellow Daoist, you have good eyes! This place was called the Dragon Mountain range. In terms of Feng Shui and scenery, it was the best. Come! This is the array board for the Dragon Mountain array, I’ll leave it to you!”

The old man smiled as he passed a formation plate over.
