

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2986

“Fellow Daoist, you’re on fire again!”

“Your instant transmission talisman is too popular! They’ve all been snatched up!”

Tang Hao had finished making a batch of instant transmission talismans. Nine voice transmission talismans were already waiting for him.

When he opened it and heard it, his tone was extremely excited.

Tang Hao smiled. He was not surprised at all.

The instant teleportation talismans on the market were usually sold for around 50 pieces. The more famous ones could be sold for 70 or 80 pieces. However, the one he made only cost 25 pieces. It was very cheap, and its effect was not inferior to those top brands.

In addition to the divine Lightning’s fame, this instant teleportation talisman naturally sold well.

When he arrived at Nantian city, Tang Hao met all nine representatives.

“A master is a master, his voice is extraordinary! Whatever he refines, he will use whatever fire!”

“Fellow Daoist, who is this Grandmaster? he’s too powerful! We all want to see him.”

Upon meeting, the nine people all said excitedly.

They were full of admiration for that master.

“Cough! As you all know, Masters all have a bit of a temper. This one likes peace and doesn’t like to meet strangers!” Tang Hao said with a smile.

“That’s true!”

“What a pity!”

The nine of them sighed, feeling great regret.

“Here are 100000 instant teleportation talismans. Take a look and see how many you want.” Tang Hao took out a bag and placed it on the table.

“A hundred thousand? So many?”

The nine people were shocked and somewhat speechless.

This number was a Little Big.

“It’s okay if you don’t have that much money. You can build a portion of it. If you’re afraid of taking too much and not being able to sell it, you can also develop your own downlines. Just give up a few dollars of profit.” Tang Hao said.

“Good idea!”

Daoist Changchun slapped his thigh and said excitedly.

If he took 10000 Yuan worth of goods, he definitely wouldn’t be able to sell all of them by himself. If he could develop a few downlines, which were the so-called second level agents, he could easily sell the goods.

Originally, their profit from the instant teleportation talismans was five Yuan. If they gave up two Yuan, they could still make a profit of three Yuan.

And 10,000 items would make a profit of 30000 dollars.

He easily made 30000 immortal crystals by just selling it. This was simply too easy to earn.

“I’ll take 20000. This is all of my assets. It’s all here!”

He took out his money bag and placed it on the table.

“I ... I’ll take 10000!”

“I’ll also take 10000!”

The other people came to their senses and hurriedly said.

They fought over it and threw their money bags on the table.

“Don’t worry! Don’t be anxious!”

Tang Hao grinned. He took out a booklet and opened the money pouch. He counted the money and jotted it down.

After they took the goods and left, he left the restaurant and went to buy the materials.

Within a few days, he had collected all the money from foster. The nine agents had all developed quite a number of downlines. The smallest had seven or eight, while the largest had more than a dozen.

” 91 agents are still too few!”

Tang Hao did some mental calculations and shook his head.

This area was too big. There were hundreds of grotto-heavens and blessed lands, not to mention the other forces. Ninety-one was far from enough.

And this area was only a small corner of the entire spirit Toad continent.

“I have to recruit more first-level agents and let them sell the goods to further places. Let their reputation spread further, and they can also go further to develop their downlines.”

Tang Hao found some time to go to a place further away and swindled a few more agents.

Another month had passed.

The number of agents increased rapidly, and there were already twenty level one agents all over the region. Each of them had a dozen level two agents under them, and the total number of agents had reached three hundred.

With these agents around, Tang Hao didn't have to worry about the issue of shipping. He just kept making.

He had refined more than six thousand divine thunders and nearly three million instant teleportation talismans.

This thing was too easy to refine. After it was cooked, it could produce more than 100000 a day.

Of course, such a huge production could not be digested in a short time, so he only produced one million.

But even so, he still earned 15 million.

In addition to the funds he had accumulated before, he now had more than 17 million immortal crystals.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao was quite satisfied with the speed.

It had only been two months, and he could still earn more money in the future.

Now that he had a sales system and his name was well-known, he could sell goods non-stop, and immortal crystals would naturally come in an endless stream.

It wasn't far from earning a hundred million.

100 million immortal crystals could buy more than 10000 Dao attainment and help him enter the mid-stage earth immortal realm.

To him, this was the fastest and safest way to improve.

He didn't want to expose his identity and attract the attention of those perfected golden Immortals before he became truly powerful.

“Fellow Daoist, look. Our business is doing well and we’re famous. Many people here know us, but we don’t even have a name.”

“Yes, yes! Many people have asked me what brand this is and what this master’s name is. I can’t answer them, so we have to confirm a name!”

At another gathering, all the representatives were talking about Tang Hao’s title.

In the beginning, they didn’t care about it and only cared about making money. But now, they had made money, so they naturally had to care about their face.

“With a name, we can better make a name for ourselves and spread it far and wide!”

“Yup! If he wanted to make it big, he had to have a good name! Look at the heaven seeking Pavilion, it has such a good name, ask the heavens, ask the heavens, it’s so philosophical ...”

Tang Hao fell into deep thought when he heard that.

He had naturally thought about this problem. He had originally planned to wait for a while before deciding, but since they were so anxious, he was certain now.

That master calls himself Haotian. Let’s use the name Haotian Association. What do you think?

Tang Hao said.

“Haotian? This name is good! The meaning behind it is extraordinary and imposing!”

“Mm! I also think that this name is not bad!”

Everyone nodded in agreement.

The Haotian faction!

Once this name was said, it became somewhat imposing.

“Then we’ll use this name. Now, let’s discuss the organizational structure and rules of the guild.” Tang Hao said.

In the past, there were only a few people, so it was naturally not so troublesome. But now, there were more than three hundred people, and there would be more in the future. Naturally, they had to set the rules and do things according to the rules.

“Also, everyone has to sign this Dao contract.”

Tang Hao said.

This Dao contract was a kind of contract that was made by swearing on one’s Dao heart. It also had a strong binding power to Immortals. Once it was signed, it could not be reneged on.

Many organizations in the immortal realm were used to using this Dao contract.

“Of course I want this!”

Everyone nodded, no one had any objections.

Then, everyone started discussing. After half a day of discussion, they finally decided on a detailed structure and rules.

The Haotian faction was thus established.
