

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2988

“This is impossible!”

The blue-dressed woman began to pace back and forth in the hall with a serious expression.

All the nine Heavens lightning and instant teleportation talismans in the city can't be sold?

How could this be possible?

Could it be that those loose Immortals don't need these two things?

There are so many itinerant Immortals in the four corners of Nantian city, and they'll need it.

“Go and investigate. I'll only give you half a day's time. Otherwise, you can forget about being a shopkeeper.” The blue-dressed lady said coldly.

He should have immediately reported this to the higher-ups, but this guy was so slow.

“Yes! Miss!”

The shopkeeper bowed and left in a hurry.

When he left, his face was full of panic.

He returned after half a day.

“How is it?”

The woman in the blue dress glanced at him and rebuked.

“Miss, the time you gave me was too short. I only had time to go to a few shops and ask those shopkeepers. Most of them were not clear. This was not a big deal, so they didn't care.”

“However, one of the shopkeepers seemed to know something. He said that one day, when a customer came to buy something, he said, 'why is your lightning so expensive? everyone else is so cheap.'”

“At that time, he even retorted, saying that cheap things are not good.”

Manager li bowed.

Hearing this, the blue-dressed woman frowned again.

It seemed that someone else was selling divine lightning at an extremely low price, which was why all the lightning in the city couldn't be sold.

“Wait, could it be him?”

In an instant, her heart trembled and she found it hard to believe.

She thought of the guy who had tried to sell the divine Thunder that day.

They were both divine lightning, and they were equally cheap!

However, that was impossible!

How could they sell that kind of inferior product?

Even if he could, how much could he sell? how could he monopolize the entire city's market?

No matter how he thought about it, it was impossible!

However, according to the current situation, someone was indeed selling divine Thunder and instant-teleportation talismans. Moreover, he had monopolized the entire city's market, which was why neither of the two goods could be sold in the city.

"Go! Go to Nantian city!"

After sitting down and pondering for a moment, she suddenly stood up and took the lead out of the hall.

She was too curious and had to figure it out.

Soon, she led a group of people through the void passage and arrived at Nantian city.

"Miss, we've asked around and found that there are indeed people selling divine Thunder and instant teleportation talismans. We've also bought one each. Please have a look, miss!"

As soon as she arrived in Nantian city, she sent people out to investigate.

A day later, these people returned with a few divine thunders and an instant transmission talisman.

"This ... This lightning ..."

She picked up a divine lightning and took a closer look. Her body trembled as if she had been hit hard.

Her beautiful eyes were wide open as she looked at the grenade in her hand in disbelief.

She couldn't have remembered wrongly. The lightning in front of her was exactly the same as the one she had seen that day. They were both made of Purple Mystic Crystal. Moreover, her divine sense couldn't probe in.

This Thunderbolt came from the hands of that earth level deity!

"How could this be? Why would anyone buy such a thing? And it's selling so well?"

She could not believe it.

Looking at the grenade in her hand, her mind went blank.

That day, she had said that this thing was trash and had no future. It could not be sold at all. But now, not only had this thing been sold, it was sold so well. Wasn't this a slap in her face?

When she thought of the situation that day, she felt her face burning, as if it was burning.

"How did he do it? The quality of this thing is so bad, how did he sell it, and so many?"

She mumbled, but her heart was filled with curiosity.

"Who did you buy it from? wasn't it the same person?"

She looked at the other rays and asked.

"No, we're going in different directions, so the people we're looking for are definitely different. I heard that they're from some sort of Guild. Many people are selling this thing, and it's very popular."

"It's the Haotian club. I heard him say it himself. He's some level two agent. His business is very popular, and many people want to buy from him."

She was stunned and a little confused.

Haotian faction?

What was that? why had she never heard of it before?

And what was the second level agent?

"He also asked me if I wanted to be an agent too. He said it was a level three agent and he would give me a profit of two Yuan." One of them said.

"Second level, third level, and there's still profit?"

The blue-dressed woman muttered and quickly understood.

She was a smart person and understood it immediately.

"A genius! This is what a true genius is!"

Her body trembled, and her face suddenly turned pale.

This was a brand new sales system that she had never heard of before. It was completely different from the traditional model!

However, this model had a strong vitality.

In her opinion, this was a genius-like pioneering work.

Who was it that created this model and successfully developed it? Was it that unremarkable earth immortal?

She stood rooted to the ground, looking a little dazed.

In the past, everyone had said that she was a business genius and she had been proud of it. But now, she realized that her little talent was nothing. The person in front of her was the real business genius!

“Miss, there’s one more thing ...” One of them said hesitantly.

“What? tell me!”

She said as she regained her senses.

“This grenade is a little special. We’ve tried it. Its power is really similar to that of the nine cloud Palace’s, but its price is only one-fifth of the original.” That person said.

“What?”

The woman’s body trembled and she was stunned again.

This fact was simply like a bolt of lightning on a clear day, striking her and making her a little dizzy.

How could such a low-quality material be comparable to the nine cloud Palace’s divine Thunder?

This ... Was simply too ridiculous!

“That’s true!”

Then, the corners of her mouth twitched and she smiled embarrassedly.

Those individual Immortals were not fools. No matter how low the price was, they would not pay for it if it did not have any quality. It seemed that the guy was right that day. His divine Thunder was indeed comparable to nine cloud Palace’s.

The extremely high quality, the extremely low price, and the innovative sales method were the reason why the divine Thunder could sell so well. In less than two months, they had monopolized the market.

This instant teleportation talisman was probably the same.

“Have you found out how much these two items were sold for?”

She asked again.

“According to them, they’ve sold over ten thousand divine Thunderbolts and even more talismans, close to a million. Their business doesn’t just reside here; they’ve also sold them to far, far away places.”

“A million?”

When she heard this, she was stunned and completely stunned.

What kind of monster was that person?!

In just two short months, he could make such a big business!

Compared to this person, his so-called once-in-a-thousand-years business genius was a complete joke!

She felt even more ashamed when she thought of her mocking tone that day.

At the same time, she was filled with regret!

She had missed such a great business opportunity and talent!

“Al!”

She kept sighing, so regretful that her intestines were about to turn green.
