

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2989

Tang Hao was working hard in the peach Garden.

He carried a hoe on his shoulder and a bucket of water. He was very busy.

After he decided to plant peaches, he moved many mountains and opened up a large medicinal field to plant peaches.

He had used the best spirit gathering array and the best mud. Everything was the best.

In the past few days, he had planted more than a hundred peach trees and also tried many cross-breeding and grafting techniques.

His portable herb garden could be said to be the world's most complete spirit herb warehouse. From Qiyuan to Pangu, then to the Holy region, and even the lower realm's starry sky, as long as he could encounter and obtain plants, he had collected all of them.

Among them, there was naturally a lot of mahogany.

He selected a hundred of the most outstanding species and planted them in the Peach Orchard. He also improved them according to the characteristics of different peach trees.

"Hu!"

After watering the last tree, he stood up and heaved a long sigh of relief.

He looked around and smiled in joy.

With the celestial water, the peach trees grew very quickly. Some of them had already borne peaches. Huge peaches hung on the branches, and they were of different colors. Some were pink, while others were green.

Each peach was shrouded in a brilliant divine light.

These were all divine fruits with their own functions. Some could help one comprehend the Dao, some could extend one's lifespan, and some could strengthen one's body ...

In short, it had a variety of functions.

A few days later, all the peaches in the garden had ripened. Tang Hao began to pick them and taste them one by one.

"The taste must be fresh and sweet, the size must be big, and the appearance must be outstanding ..."

According to this standard, he chose a dozen or so and continued to improve them.

“This one’s not bad!”

After this round of peaches ripened, he finally chose one.

This peach was an improved product that he had combined the advantages of more than a dozen kinds of peaches. Among all the peaches, the taste was the best, and the appearance was also extremely colorful. It was dazzling with divine light and presented five colors.

Furthermore, they were all very large, each of them the size of a disc.

“This one!”

He had tasted a few of them and even gave them to the two sisters to try. After that, he decided to plant this.

“As for the name ... Let’s call it heaven-equal peach.”

Tang Hao pondered for a while and confirmed the name.

Then, he began to plant it on a large scale. He changed all the peach trees in the peach Garden to heaven’s equal peaches and watered them with a large amount of celestial water to accelerate the growth of the peach trees.

With enough celestial water, the peach trees naturally grew quickly. In just two days, all the peach trees had grown to a height of hundreds of feet. Each of them was shrouded in a bright five-colored divine light. The branches and leaves were luxuriant and full of vitality.

In another three days, the branches were filled with peaches. Each of them was large and round, and their surface was covered in five-colored smoke.

“It’s done!”

After a few more days of watering, the first batch of heaven’s equal peaches had ripened.

Tang Hao plucked all of them and counted them. There were more than a hundred thousand of them.

“If it’s only 10 yuan a pill, that’s a million Yuan! That’s a little too little!”

Tang Hao did some mental calculations and furrowed his brows.

Now, he didn’t really care about a million Yuan business.

“We have to plant more. Those mountains can all be moved. Plant peaches. We have to plant ten times more. That’s more appropriate!”

Tang Hao said heroically as he looked around.

“However, there’s no rush. Let’s push it out first. After all, ordinary individual Immortals can’t afford it. Only people like Earth Immortals and heaven Immortals can afford it.”

Human Immortals were usually not rich. Most of them were in the hundreds, and only a few had a few thousand or even tens of thousands.

Only earth Immortals and heaven Immortals had some wealth to afford such divine fruits.

Therefore, he took all the peaches to Nantian city to meet the representatives.

“In the past half a month, we’ve added a lot of agents. There are quite a few second and third-grade agents. Our goods are being sold further and further away.”

“All the divine thunders in the agents’ hands have basically been sold out. There are also instant teleportation talismans, but there aren’t many left. President, do you think you should take out more? otherwise, there won’t be any left to sell!”

The Changchun Taoist spoke on behalf of all the representatives.

“Don’t worry about the goods, there’s still a lot of them!”

Tang Hao smiled. “Also, Grandmaster recently released a new product. I wonder if you’ll be interested.”

“Oh? The master has a new work again? What kind of treasure is it?”

Everyone was excited.

From the divine lightning and the instant-teleportation talisman, they could tell how high this master’s attainment in the Dao of craftsmanship was. He had reached the peak of perfection and had reached the realm of turning something rotten into something magical.

They were all looking forward to the master’s new work.

“It’s not a tool anymore. Look, What is this?”

Tang Hao flicked his sleeve, and a large peach appeared on the table.

Everyone looked at it and was stunned.

These are ... Peaches?

If the master didn’t refine weapons, why did he plant peaches?

“What kind of peach is this? it’s five-colored, I’ve never seen it before!”

“It smells so good!”

When they took a closer look, they were surprised.

The peach in front of him seemed to be a little unusual.

“Have a taste!”

Tang Hao took out another twenty peaches and distributed them.

“This smell ... My God! What kind of peach is this? I’ve never had such a delicious peach before.”

The Changchun Taoist took the lead and took a bite. His eyes widened in shock.

He had eaten many peaches before, but none of them could compare to this. It was sweet and extremely delicious. With one bite, he felt like he was floating. It was incredible!

“Delicious!”

“What kind of peach is this? it’s so delicious!”

The others also took a bite and cried out in surprise.

“This peach is the product of the master’s continuous cross-breeding and improvement of the merits of thousands of peach trees in the world. It’s the best among all peaches. Whether it’s taste or function, it’s the best.”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Improved? Grandmaster is also an expert in the Dao of plants and vegetation?”

“He’s invincible in the path of crafts. He’s even so powerful in the path of plants and vegetation. The master is too awesome!”

When everyone heard this, they were all speechless.

“This master is truly a godly man!”

Taoist Chang Chun stroked his long beard and sighed heavily.

He had even more respect for this master.

“President, do you still have more peaches? Can I have some? I’m not selling it, I’ll eat it myself!” He took a few more bites and couldn’t stop himself. He ate the entire peach clean, just short of swallowing the core.

“There are! There are a lot of them, a hundred thousand!” Tang Hao smiled. “I’ll sell it to you for ten Yuan each. If you want to sell it, it’ll be fifteen Yuan each.”

“Fifteen? It’s really cheap!”

An agent said.

These peaches were the best of the best, and they were usually reserved for feasts and banquets. They were for Immortals with high status, such as earth Immortals, heaven Immortals, and even golden Immortals.

15 yuan for this is too cheap!

“I’ll take 5000 first!”

“I also want 5000!”

Then, all the representatives voiced their opinions and divided the 100000 peaches.
