

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2991

After returning to Dragon Mountain, Tang Hao went to the peach Garden and started working.

He wanted to plant more peach trees, more than ten times more than before.

He wasn't worried at all about the problem that the woman had mentioned just now.

Long before the Haotian faction was established, he had already considered it and had many solutions.

It was just that the Haotian faction had just started, and it was not yet the time to do so.

After planting the peach trees, the agents' feedback came back, saying that the heaven's equal peaches were selling very well.

They were also very smart and specifically picked those earth Immortals and celestial Immortals to promote. These people had a stronger purchasing power.

It was easy to get one pill for free. Many people bought dozens or even hundreds of pills at once.

Those celestial Immortals were all of high status, so they naturally cared about their reputation. When they invited guests to their homes, they naturally wanted to use better things. It would be best if they could show off and show off.

And Qi Tian Tao could meet their needs.

"How about ... I plant more!"

Tang Hao was even more confident after receiving the feedback. He expanded the Peach Orchard once again.

He had also given more celestial water to the peach Garden.

These peach trees were all money trees. The faster they grew, the faster he would earn money.

At this time, in the outside world, with Qi Tian Tao's push, there was a big wave.

More people knew about the Haotian society and master Haotian.

Many of them were earth Immortals and heaven Immortals.

"This peach was really improved and created by that master Haotian? Si si si! What kind of profound attainments did he have to be able to create such a perfect divine fruit? He must be a world-shaking master!"

"What? He's not only powerful in the Dao of plants and vegetation, but he's also an expert in forging?"

After they had a deeper understanding of the divine lightning and the instant teleportation talisman, they were all extremely shocked!

“This level of attainment is simply unheard of!”

“He’s reached the peak of perfection in both the Dao of plants and vegetation and the Dao of artifact refinement. What kind of great expert is he?”

Then, they were amazed.

From these three products, they could see the master’s unparalleled standard, and they were all in awe.

The name of Master Haotian gradually spread and caused a heated discussion.

The Haotian club’s popularity also became higher. More people came because of its fame, and the business was getting better and better.

At the same time, the agent team was also expanding, allowing the Haotian club’s business to reach further areas.

“What? A peach?”

Naturally, the heaven seeking Pavilion had also received the news.

When Feng Qingyan first heard about it, she was stunned.

Wasn’t he a master blacksmith with shocking attainments? why was he fiddling with plants and vegetation again? moreover, he seemed to be just as powerful.

This ... Was simply too unbelievable!

“This ... This peach ... Is too delicious!”

She bought one, and after tasting it herself, she was even more incredulous.

Even she had never tasted such a Supreme-grade divine fruit before. In terms of taste, this peach had already reached the peak. In terms of function, it also contained the characteristics of many immortal peaches.

“This peach ... Is truly the best among peaches!”

After eating the entire fruit, she savored the aftertaste and couldn’t help but praise.

“This master Hao Tian is really a strange person! I’ve never seen someone as powerful as him. He’s skilled in both the Dao of crafts and the Dao of plants!”

She paced back and forth in the hall, unable to contain her excitement.

“Hurry up! Buy as many as you have, buy them all!” A moment later, she turned to the attendants outside the hall.

“Miss, do you want to buy it and sell it?”

Someone asked in surprise.

“Sell your head! Of course, I ate it!” Feng Qingyan said unhappily.

How many peaches could that master plant by himself? how could it be enough for her heaven seeking Pavilion to sell? she was afraid that in a few days, all these peaches would be snatched away and she would never be able to buy them again.

“Oh right, this core ...”

Suddenly, she thought of the Peach Pit that she had just eaten.

She immediately took the nucleus and left the hall.

“What? It can’t be planted, how is that possible!” When she found a few Masters of plants and vegetation and asked them, she was stunned.

“I really can’t plant it. This thing doesn’t have vitality. It can’t sprout.”

“This is an expert!”

After the group of Masters saw it, they all shook their heads.

She held the Peach Pit in her hand and suddenly became extremely depressed.

“That’s true! Master Haotian was so powerful. How could he not have thought of this? who was he? I’ve asked around the entire spirit Toad continent, but I can’t find any clues!”

She was even more curious about this mysterious master.

Meanwhile, in the peach Garden, Tang Hao was looking at the peach trees in the garden with a smile on his face.

After being watered by a large amount of celestial water, this batch of peaches had already ripened.

This time, he had counted, and there were more than 1.5 million!

Ten Yuan for one pill, that would be more than 15 million Yuan.

“Guild leader, you’ve finally arrived!”

“Yup! You don’t know how popular these peaches are. There are people urging me every day, and they’re all celestial Immortals. I don’t dare to offend any of them.”

As soon as they arrived at Nantian city and saw the representatives, they began to complain.

“Don’t worry, I’ll definitely be able to satisfy you this time!”

Tang Hao smiled. He picked up a storage bag and threw it on the table.

“Guild Master, how many are there?”

The Changchun Taoist stood up and looked at the bag with green eyes.

“One million and five hundred thousand!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“Hiss! Hiss! Hiss!”

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air, their expressions extremely shocked.

It had only been half a month, and 1.5 million fruits had been harvested. This number was too shocking!

“I want a hundred thousand!”

“I want 80000!”

Then, they started to fight over it with red necks.

After the peaches were distributed, Tang Hao gestured for them to sit down.

He looked around and his expression became serious.

The Haotian faction was now quite large and famous. Many big Chambers of Commerce and forces must have started to pay attention to them. It was time to consider their safety.

He was also an early Earth immortal now. There were only three or four of them here, how could they resist those major powers?

“Guild leader, what should we do?”

When he asked this question, everyone revealed a worried expression.

They also knew that with such a big business, it would definitely attract covetous eyes from all sides.

With the Haotian Association’s current size, their business had reached hundreds of millions, and they were weak, just a group of individual Immortals, so they were in high demand in the eyes of those forces.

“I have an idea!”

Tang Hao said, “that’s ... To pull people in! Don’t you do business with many earth Immortals and celestial Immortals? go and pull them into your group. They won’t be your agents or your guests. As long as they’re loose Immortals, pull them in. ”

“Earth immortal, 20000 immortal crystals a year per person!”

“Heaven immortal, 100000 immortal crystals a year per person!”

“We’re loose Immortals. As long as we can unite all the loose Immortals we can and form a powerful force, naturally no one will dare to provoke us. ”

When everyone heard this, they were all shocked.

The price that the president offered was a little too high.

Even if he was a heaven immortal, he would not be worth 100000 a year if he was just a guest elder!

“I think the president is right. We should offer a high price to attract more celestial Immortals and deter all the forces. With our products, we can earn back the money very quickly.”

Daoist Chang Chun stood up and said excitedly.

“Yes, you need this kind of courage!”

The others muttered to themselves for a moment before chiming in.

“Then let’s do this!”

Tang Hao stood up and shouted.

The crowd responded and left in a hurry.

They ran in all directions and began to persuade a group of earth Immortals and heaven Immortals who had been itinerant Immortals.

With the addition of these people, the strength of the clear sky Association also skyrocketed and rose rapidly.
