

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2992

“Haotian faction?”

The spirit Toad continent, the headquarters of the thousand seas Chamber of Commerce.

A middle-aged man took a jade talisman and opened it. He was stunned.

The information recorded in the Jade talisman was truly hard for him to believe.

In a short three months, he rose from nothing to something, monopolizing a part of the market, and his business reached hundreds of millions ...

All three products were extremely popular!

This ... Was simply too unbelievable!

What was the background of the person behind the Haotian faction?

“The structure of the clear sky Association is also unprecedented ... Amazing! It was too amazing! The person behind this must be a business genius!”

“Nantian city? I have to go and take a look!”

He put down the Jade talisman with a grave expression.

From the message in the Jade talisman, he could tell that the Haotian Association was not ordinary. Their momentum was too fast. If they were left alone, they would soon become big. By then, it would definitely affect the business of his ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce.

With only three products, they had already taken away a lot of their business. If they produced more in the future, the ten thousand seas Chamber of Commerce would have no business.

In fact, the other Chambers of Commerce would not be able to survive.

That was because the clear sky Association’s price was too cheap.

“Maybe this is an opportunity ...”

He muttered.

His ten thousand seas Chamber of Commerce was only ranked second in the spirit Toad continent, far inferior to the heaven seeking Pavilion. If they could take over the clear sky Association, they might be able to surpass the heaven seeking Pavilion and become the number one Chamber of Commerce in the spirit Toad continent.

He quickly got up and rushed to Nantian city.

The same thing was happening in the headquarters of other Chambers of Commerce.

They had all noticed the Haotian faction!

“Is it really only three months? This speed is too heaven-defying!”

“Where did this expert come from!”

They were all shocked by the speed of the rise of the Haotian Union.

They had never heard of any Chamber of Commerce that could rise so quickly in just three months. What’s more, the Haotian Association was made up of a group of individual Immortals without any major forces behind them.

This was a complete miracle!

They had also realized the threat and opportunity that Haotian would bring.

“We must take down the clear sky Association. If we can take it, our Hongtu Chamber of Commerce will be able to catch up with the other Chambers of Commerce and secure our first place!”

“We must take it down. If we can ‘t, then we’ll destroy it! We can’t let them develop!”

They all got up and rushed to Nantian city.

As soon as they arrived in Nantian city, they found the three products of the Haotian club and studied them carefully.

“It’s only the most inferior Purple Mystic Crystal, and the lightning inside is also ordinary purple heaven lightning. How can its power be comparable to the divine lightning of the nine cloud Palace?”

“It’s the same for this talisman. It’s made of the most inferior Jade, but its power is not reduced at all. I really don’t understand how master Haotian did it.”

“And this peach, how did he improve it?”

After studying it for a while, they were all puzzled.

This master Hao Tian was too powerful, but the strange thing was that they had never heard of such a person.

“We must take down this Haotian faction!”

The desire in their hearts grew stronger and stronger.

They all realized that this was a once-in-a-thousand-years opportunity. Whoever got the Haotian gathering would be able to dominate the business world of spirit Toad continent for a long time.

“The president of the clear sky Association is only an earth immortal in the early stage?”

“Send me a call card and set a time. I’ll pay a visit!” He said.

All of a sudden, all the Chambers of Commerce sent people to contact the people of the clear sky Association.

Soon, more than ten cards were delivered to Tang Hao.

Tang Hao only laughed when he saw the cards.

These people must have the same idea as the heaven seeking Pavilion, which was to take away his clear sky Association.

“Tell them to meet in the square of Nantian city in seven days!”

Tang Hao replied.

“Seven days later, or will all the Chambers of Commerce meet together? What does he mean by that?”

“I think he wants to negotiate. When the time comes, the others will definitely offer good conditions. Our ten thousand seas Chamber of Commerce can not lose!”

When the various Chamber of Commerces received the news, they all rubbed their fists and wiped their palms, preparing to fight for it.

“Seven days later, huh?”

This news had also spread to the heaven seeking Pavilion.

“How can we miss out on such a lively event? let’s get ready, we’ll go and join in the fun seven days later!”

Feng Qingyan chuckled and said.

She was looking forward to it. If that person was really prepared to compromise, then her heaven seeking Pavilion would grab this opportunity at all costs.

Seven days passed by in a flash.

That morning, the square in the center of Nantian city had been cleared out. The people of the Chamber of Commerce had taken up positions and set up tables and chairs.

“Yo! Isn’t that the fellow Daoist from the ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce? Long time no see!”

“What is your Qixia merchant Association doing here? are you even worthy?”

The people from the various Chamber of Commerces entered and met with each other. There was no lack of quarrels and mocking.

Many of them were old rivals who had been fighting for many years.

“Fellow Daoists, you’re early!”

With a bell-like laughter, a group of people came to the square from the side.

The person at the front was wearing an aqua blue muslin dress. Her figure was graceful and graceful. Her face was covered with muslin, making it hazy and somewhat unclear. However, one could vaguely see that it was a moving and beautiful face.

Behind her, there was a group of people. All of them had extraordinary auras, and nearly half of them were celestial Immortals.

On the square, the people from the various Chambers of Commerce looked up, and their expressions changed.

This heaven seeking Pavilion was the number one Chamber of Commerce in the spirit Toad continent. It was powerful and was a formidable enemy for all of them.

“It’s miss Feng! Long time no see!”

The middle-aged man from the ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce said in a strange tone, “why? is the heaven seeking Pavilion also interested in the Haotian club? You’re already number one, so you should at least give our small Chambers of Commerce a way out!”

“President Xu, you’re being too modest. If your ten thousand seas Chamber of Commerce is a small Chamber of Commerce, then what are the other Chambers of Commerce here?”

Feng Qingyan chuckled, “besides, no one said that we can’t come to the heaven seeking Pavilion!”

“Hmph!”

President Xu of the ten thousand seas Chamber of Commerce snorted in displeasure, but he didn’t continue.

This little girl from the heaven seeking Pavilion, although she was young, her ability was not small. If they were to have a war of words, he probably wouldn’t be able to gain any advantage, so he might as well save some strength and compete with her later.

As long as they could seize this opportunity, their ten thousand seas Chamber of Commerce would be able to surpass the heaven seeking Pavilion and become the number one Chamber of Commerce.

Seeing that he was silent, Feng Qingyan smiled and looked around. Then, she brought her men and sat down in a corner of the square.

The crowd looked up at the sky from time to time, waiting.
