

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2993

In the square, the crowd waited from morning to afternoon.

However, no one from the clear sky Association appeared.

“He’s not playing with us, right?”

Someone mumbled as he looked up at the sky.

Many people were already very unhappy. As the heads of the major Chambers of Commerce, they were all people with status and identity. They usually didn’t put an earth immortal realm warrior in their eyes.

But now, this puny early stage earth immortal realm cultivator had left them hanging for so long!

However, they did not dare to leave. After all, this opportunity was too important.

“They’re here!”

Another hour passed. Finally, a figure swept over from the horizon, entered the city, and headed straight for the square.

“I’ve made everyone wait!”

Tang Hao said with a smile as he landed.

Everyone’s eyes swept over him, staring at him and looking up and down.

“I don’t think he’s that master Hao Tian. I heard that the master is someone else, and this person is just a representative.”

“He might not have made it, but the Haotian club’s unique sales system might have been thought of by him. If it’s really him, it’ll be amazing!”

The people from the various Chambers of Commerce whispered to each other.

“Fellow Daoist, how should I address you?”

On the side of the ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce, President Xu was the first to stand up. He said enthusiastically, “my surname is Xu, and I’m the president of the spirit Toad continent’s main branch of the ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce. I’ve admired you for a long time!”

As he spoke, he cupped his hands in a very polite manner.

“Fellow Daoist, I’m the president of the Hongtu Chamber of Commerce’s spirit Toad Island main branch ...”

“My fellow Daoist ...”

The people from the other Chambers of Commerce hurriedly stood up and politely greeted him.

“Fellow Daoist, we meet again!”

Feng Qingyan also stood up and smiled.

Hearing this, everyone’s expression changed.

Again?

Could it be that this heaven seeking Pavilion had come into contact with the clear sky clan before?

It couldn’t have already been taken down, right?

They were all nervous.

But thinking about it, if they had taken it down earlier, the heaven seeking Pavilion would have announced it already, and today’s meeting would not have happened.

They all heaved a sigh of relief.

“My fellow cultivator, all of our Chambers of Commerce are here. You can tell us your thoughts first. If you want to negotiate terms, then don’t think about it. Choose my ten thousand seas Chamber of Commerce. No matter what conditions the other Chambers of Commerce offer, my ten thousand seas Chamber of Commerce will be better than them!”

President Xu patted his chest and said heroically.

“Yo! President Xu, you’re quite arrogant!” The president of the Hongtu Chamber of Commerce sneered and said, “fellow Daoist, don’t listen to him. This man is the most stingy. What good conditions can he offer? My Hongtu Chamber of Commerce is the most suitable for you. As long as you’re willing, I can even give you my position as the president!”

“F * ck!”

Hearing this, everyone’s expression changed.

This guy was really willing to give up his position as the president!

But if he thought about it carefully, if he could really take down the clear sky Association, the Hongtu Chamber of Commerce would definitely rise rapidly, from the third place to the first place. At that time, this guy would definitely be promoted and enter the real headquarters of the Hongtu Chamber of Commerce.

In comparison, the position of the president of the spirit Toad continent’s main branch was really nothing.

“Old fox!”

Everyone cursed.

“Fellow Daoist, what’s so good about Hongtu Chamber of Commerce? if you come to my Wanhai, I can give you my position!” President Xu was anxious and shouted.

“These guys are really putting in a lot of money!”

Feng Qingyan said with a bitter smile.

“Dao friend, if you are willing to join my heaven seeking Pavilion, I can also give up my position. I can even recommend you to join the higher ups of my heaven seeking Pavilion.” She asked, “what do you think?”

After saying that, she stared at the figure and her expression became a little nervous.

The others were the same. They were all a little nervous.

With so many Chambers of Commerce, he wondered what this person would choose.

“Everyone, I think you’ve misunderstood. I’m not here to negotiate with you today. I won’t join any Chamber of Commerce, and I won’t hand over the Haotian club.”

Tang Hao said as he stood with his hands behind his back and looked around.

Everyone was stunned by his words.

No one had expected this man to make such a choice.

Not joining any Chamber of Commerce?

Where did he get such confidence from?

Didn’t he know that if he didn’t join the Chamber of Commerce, his Haotian would die soon?

In this Haotian faction, there were only a group of individual Immortals with low cultivation, just a motley crew!

With their strength, they could disintegrate the Haotian faction with a little bit of means.

Without the support of a powerful force or experts, it was impossible for a Chamber of Commerce to become big.

Even if these Chambers of Commerce didn’t take action, the other big forces would take action in the future. They would go even further and swallow the Haotian club until not even its bones were left.

“Fellow Daoist, you’d better think this through. If you make this choice, the consequences will be very serious!”

President Xu said in a deep voice.

“That’s right! Fellow Daoist, you have to consider this carefully!”

Feng Qingyan said.

She was also surprised.

At this time, many people revealed strange expressions.

Perhaps, this was a good thing for them. This guy didn’t join any Chamber of Commerce. Then, the only path waiting for the clear sky Association was a premature end. All the Chambers of Commerce would attack together and destroy the clear sky Association, not giving it a chance to grow stronger.

Compared to the Wanhai, Wentian, and Hongtu Chambers of Commerce, their chances of roping in this man were slim. This was undoubtedly a good thing for them.

“Of course I’ve thought about it. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have come to see you!” Tang Hao looked around and smiled.

“My fellow cultivator, do you know that you’re making an enemy out of all of our Chambers of Commerce by choosing this? do you think you have the strength to do so?”

President Xu said.

His brows furrowed slightly, and his eyes revealed a hint of contempt.

Originally, he had thought that this was a rare talent, but now, he was just an idiot, an idiot!

He was just a small earth immortal who had gathered a group of motley crew. Did he really think that he could make enemies with the big Chambers of Commerce?

He was too naive!

That was too stupid!

The ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce would be able to destroy the clear sky Association in less than ten days without the help of the others.

Feng Qingyan frowned, and she looked a little annoyed.

This person was still as arrogant as before!

Previously, he didn’t put her heaven seeking Pavilion in his eyes. Now, he didn’t even put any of the major Chambers of Commerce in his eyes.

“Alright! If Haotian will die, then so be it. It’ll be convenient for me to poach master Haotian!”

She said to herself.

She only valued master Haotian!

As for the Haotian faction, it would be better if they died.

Tang Hao looked left and right. He faced the cold gazes and threatening voices from all directions, but his expression remained calm.

“You shouldn’t ask me if I have the strength. You should ask them!”

As he spoke, he raised his hand and clapped.

The next moment, a burst of laughter came from outside the city.

The laughter came from afar and in an instant, it came close and fell on the square.
