

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2994

“This is ...?”

When they heard the laughter, the faces of the people from the Chamber of Commerces in the square changed.

The aura from the laughter was clearly that of a heaven immortal.

There were already divine Immortals in the Haotian faction?

They actually didn't know.

“This one is Qing Yang, greetings to everyone!”

The person appeared and landed on the square, smiling at everyone.

It was a handsome man in a wide green robe, with an unruly temperament.

“It's Reverend Qing Yang!”

Someone exclaimed.

This perfected Qing Yang was the master of a Grotto-heaven near Nantian city, a heaven immortal expert.

“The immortal Qing Yang also joined the Haotian faction?”

“Isn't it said that loose Immortals at the celestial immortal level all love freedom and are unwilling to be shackled by any restraints? Why did he join the clear sky Association?”

Many people were discussing with shocked expressions.

They had always heard that loose Immortals at the celestial immortal level would not join any power. If they were willing to join, they would have been asked to leave long ago. After all, a celestial immortal expert like him would be welcomed by any power.

“Ahem!”

Daoist master Qing Yang touched his nose with an embarrassed expression.

Originally, he didn't want to join, but the money they offered was too much.

Besides, we're all itinerant Immortals, so it's only right for us to help!

The four sides clamored for a while before gradually quieting down.

Those people's expressions also changed from surprise to contempt.

He was just a heaven immortal, and he wanted to compete with so many large Chambers of Commerce?

There were more than a dozen celestial Immortals among the people they had brought today, and they could still invite more celestial Immortals.

This guy underestimated the power of the Chamber of Commerces!

"Don't worry! There's still more!"

Tang Hao chuckled and clapped his hands.

Outside the city, there was another divine light.

"I'm shuiyue. Greetings, fellow Daoists!"

It was a beautiful woman in a Blue Palace dress. After she landed, she smiled in all directions. Her posture was dignified and elegant.

With her appearance, many people in the square were stunned, revealing an expression of extreme disbelief.

In Nantian city, the name 'Water Moon Daoist' reverberated like thunder in the ears.

The number one blessed land, Water Moon blessed land, was created by this person.

And in Water Moon blessed land, there were thousands of lone Immortals, many of which were earth Immortals.

"Hasn't she not shown her face for a long time? How did she join the clear sky Association?"

They all exclaimed in shock.

"Water Moon Daoist?"

The faces of President Xu and the others also changed.

They had heard of this name before. He was an extremely famous individual immortal!

"Daoist shuiyue, how did you also join the clear sky Association?"

Someone asked.

"Is there a need to say that?" The water Moon Daoist smiled and said, "of course it's because I gave you a lot of money! You guys don't know how generous he is. Even I can't help but be moved. "

When everyone heard this, they were all stunned.

F * ck!

This was really simple and crude!

Then, they started to criticize him in their hearts.

Their faces also gradually darkened.

One celestial immortal was nothing, but two, who were the founders of paradisiacal lands and had many loose Immortals under them, were a force that could not be underestimated.

Moreover, it was definitely not just these two. This guy must have invited more people!

Otherwise, he would not be so calm.

“Seven days is not enough for him to invite people. It seems that he has been preparing for a long time. This person’s plan is very comprehensive and shrewd. I have misjudged him!” President Xu sighed.

He had thought that this person was an idiot, but it seemed that he had been wrong.

Furthermore, this person not only had a comprehensive plan, but he also had great courage. Otherwise, how could he have invited a famous celestial immortal like Daoist shuiyue?

“This person is really powerful!”

He wasn’t the only one. The other presidents of the various Chambers of Commerce all exclaimed in surprise.

“I was wrong!”

Feng Qingyan also smiled bitterly, feeling ashamed.

Previously, she had laughed at this fellow for being too arrogant. However, it seemed that this fellow was not arrogant at all.

“Hahaha! My name is Goldlight. Greetings, fellow Daoists!”

Before the crowd could recover, another burst of laughter rang out. A round, short, and fat man in a golden robe flew over and landed on the square.

As soon as he landed, he smiled and cupped his hands in greeting.

Si si si!

Many people gasped when they saw him.

It was monk golden light!

He was the founder of golden light Grotto-heaven, the largest Grotto-heaven in this area!

This person's name was on par with that of the water Moon Daoist.

"Aiya! I didn't want to join at first, but they're throwing money at me! How can I not join! Also, this person has promised that master Haotian will plant a peach tree for me!"

Monkgolden light muttered.

As he said that, he licked his lips and his saliva was almost dripping down.

The faces of President Xu and the others darkened even more.

Even a famous expert like monk golden light had been persuaded!

With the water Moon and the golden light, the clear sky clan was already in trouble.

"I'm Shang Qing, greetings to fellow Daoists!"

"This one is Hua mo, greetings fellow Daoists!"

"....."

As the divine light swept in from outside the city and fell, their expressions became uglier and uglier.

They were even more shocked.

So many loose Immortals, all of them at the celestial immortal level!

How did this guy manage to persuade so many people?

I'm afraid it's not enough to just rely on money!

After all, not everyone loved money, especially these loose Immortals, who had very strange tempers.

They really couldn't figure it out!

"How did he do it?"

Feng Qingyan was shocked as she watched.

Even if she were to take action, she probably wouldn't be able to invite so many heaven Immortals and itinerant cultivators. In her opinion, this was simply impossible, but this guy had done it. It was really incredible!

"This person's methods and abilities have truly reached a terrifying level!"

She stared at the figure and sighed to herself.

In just three months, he had established such a large Chamber of Commerce, expanded his business to hundreds of millions, and even invited so many heaven Immortals to join it ...

She knew that with her own strength, she definitely could not do it.

“The Haotian faction has already established itself!”

Seeing that the divine light outside the city was still pouring in, two or three people at a time, she couldn't help but smile bitterly.

Judging from the situation, it seemed that all the celestial Immortals in the vicinity of Nantian city had come to join the Haotian faction.

No Chamber of Commerce would dare to provoke such a lineup.

This land was originally the world of this group of loose Immortals.

Moreover, loose Immortals were existences that many people and forces didn't want to provoke because they were solitary, had no scruples, and were the most daring.

With the support of such a group of loose Immortals, not to mention these Chambers of Commerce, even other major powers would not dare to provoke them easily.

This Haotian faction was considered a success!
