

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2995

In the square of Nantian city.

The faces of the people from the various Chambers of Commerce were extremely ugly.

They had never thought that the Haotian faction had already roped in so many powerful individual Immortals. This force could not be underestimated.

Even if they wanted to suppress him, they would not be able to do so.

“Fellow Daoist’s methods are truly worthy of my admiration!”

In the camp of the ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce, President Xu stood up and cupped his hands. “It’s a pity. With your talent, you could have achieved even greater things if you joined the ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce. Since you’re not willing, I won’t force you.”

“It’s fine if the Haotian group wants to continue doing business, but you can’t just leave us, the Chambers of Commerce, a way out, can you?”

As he said that, his face revealed a bit of coldness.

“It is! Your Haotian faction’s price is completely disrupting the market. It’s outrageous!”

“You guys have to raise the price, not sell it so cheap!”

The people from the other Chambers of Commerce also shouted.

The clear sky Association’s price was really too low, leaving them with no way out.

“It’s impossible to raise the price!”

Tang Hao said coldly as he looked around.

“Fellow Daoist, do you really want to fight to the death with us? Even if you have the support of a group of individual immortal powerhouses, can’t we take down your little Haotian faction if we join forces?” President Xu shouted coldly.

“What do you mean, Chairman Xu?” Tang Hao asked.

“You don’t have to raise the price, but will you, Haotian, be able to get involved in more products?” President Xu shouted.

“Alright!”

Tang Hao thought for a while, then nodded.

President Xu was stunned.

He did not expect this fellow to agree so readily.

Was it this guy who was scared?

That's true!

In the face of more than a dozen large Chambers of Commerce, what could a small Haotian Association do? if they really fell out with them, they would kill the Haotian Association at any cost.

This guy was quite self-aware!

"Fellow Daoist, you are a smart person! In fact, these three products alone are enough for Haotian club to make a lot of money. This way, we can rest assured and everyone will be happy! Isn't that so!" President Xu laughed.

"That's good!"

The people from the other Chambers of Commerce all heaved a sigh of relief.

If Haotian club only made these three products, they wouldn't be a big threat to them.

In the future, apart from these three products, Haotian will only make products that you don't sell. Is that okay?" Tang Hao said.

"We're not selling? Alright!"

President Xu was stunned at first, then he laughed out loud.

In this world, what product would they not sell?

Wasn't this guy joking?!

Feng Qingyan also laughed.

She could not think of what else the Haotian club could do.

"My fellow cultivator, it's a deal. If Haotian reneges and breaks the rules, don't blame us for being impolite!" President Xu laughed.

He was quite satisfied with this result.

"Then that's it. Everyone, I'll take my leave first!"

Then, he cupped his hands at everyone and returned to the ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce with the people behind him.

“Everyone, I also have something to do, so I’ll be leaving first!”

The people from the other Chambers of Commerce stood up and left.

“Fellow Daoist, we’ll meet again!”

“Let’s go,” Feng Qingyan said to Tang Hao before she left.

After they had left, Tang Hao turned around and cupped his hands at the group of itinerant Immortals. “Thank you for your help, everyone!”

“Al! President Shi, you’re being too polite. You’ve given us so much money, so it’s only right that we come!” The beautiful woman, Daoist watermoon, chuckled. “If you have any other matters to attend to, just send a message.”

Then, he turned around and left.

“Guild leader Shi, farewell!”

The rest of the loose Immortals also smiled and left.

“Fellow Daoist, farewell! If there’s anything, you can come to Shang Qing mountain to find me!” A white-haired old man also smiled at Tang Hao. His expression was warm.

This person was the founder of the Shang Qing Grotto-heaven, Shang Qing Daoist!

When he learned that the Haotian Association, which had become very famous recently, was founded by a fellow Daoist from his own Shangqing Grotto-heaven, he was really surprised. Then, he readily agreed to join Haotian Association.

They were all from his own Grotto-heaven, of course he had to support them.

“President, isn’t it too little to only produce three products?”

After they left, the group of representatives came forward.

They all had worried looks on their faces.

Originally, they had a great ambition to become a large Chamber of Commerce and become one of the top Chambers of Commerce in the immortal world. But now, they were all limited to only three products. How could they grow and become the top Chamber of Commerce in the immortal world?

“Al! It’s already very good to have such an outcome!” The Changchun Daoist said, “let’s focus on these three things. If we’re good at them, we can do it all over the immortal world! At that time, our Haotian faction can also become famous in the entire immortal world!”

“Right!”

“Daoist Changchun is right. Even if we only do three things, we must make it so that our name will shake the entire immortal world!”

Hearing this, everyone nodded, and their spirits were lifted.

“Who said I can only do these three things!”

Tang Hao looked at them and laughed.

“Guild leader, didn’t we just say that we’re only going to make these three?”

“Yeah! Is there anything else you can do?”

Everyone was stunned.

They looked at Tang Hao, their eyes blank.

They really couldn’t think of any other products that could be made. Weren’t other stores selling things that could be sold for money?

“You’ll know in a few days!”

Tang Hao smiled at them, then turned around and left without explaining.

“Guild leader, what are you trying to do?”

“I don’t know!”

Everyone stood rooted to the ground, their expressions even more confused.

After returning to Dragon Mountain, Tang Hao went to the peach Garden and then returned to the temple.

He opened the ring and took out a pile of cloth, silk, and satin, all of which were materials for making treasured clothing.

Then, he took out a pile of mud and started to make a statue.

Soon, female statues of different figures appeared in the hall.

“Not bad!”

Tang Hao modified the statues one by one, making them even more perfect. From the figure to the appearance, they were all so lifelike that they almost looked like real people.

It was a piece of cake for him to refine many clones.

He made a ruler and measured the statues one by one, recording them down.

“Alright, we can start now!”

After the measurement, he took out the blueprint and began to design.

He began to use his imagination. Soon, on his blueprint, sets of sexy or gorgeous female undergarments appeared. Some were Lacy, some were hollow, and some were matched with mesh socks and silk socks ...

In short, there were all kinds of styles.

Once inspiration came, it couldn't be stopped. He wrote quickly, and soon, hundreds of designs were completed.

“These are all good. We can make a few series and sell them to men!”

“Later, let chunxuan and Qiuci take a look and see which ones are suitable for women!”

Tang Hao flipped through them and picked quite a few.

He also knew that men and women had different aesthetic standards. When it came to undergarments, men and women had very different tastes, so he had to ask for the woman's opinion.
