

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 2999

"I'm done!"

Tang Hao heaved a long sigh of relief after he finished another batch of new products.

He had already been refining for more than three months.

He didn't know how many things he had refined, but he could already supply them to the market. Those agents had also come to urge him less. They were all urging him to quickly come out with new styles.

"There's no rush for the new models. These should last for half a month."

He counted the things he had refined during this period of time and heaved a sigh of relief.

He could finally catch his breath!

"It's almost seven months!"

He did some calculations. It had been almost seven months since he came to Dragon Mountain. He had been busy with the Haotian faction and making money.

Now, the Haotian group was already quite large. They had more than 100 level-one agents all over the spirit Toad continent. Under them, there were even more level-two and level-three agents.

If all of them were added up, there would be nearly 20000 people.

As long as he guaranteed the supply of his products, these twenty thousand people would be able to sell his products to various places in the spirit Toad continent.

"Let's count the money!"

He grinned and opened the clear sky ring.

He had worked so hard just to earn money and buy cultivation techniques!

"So many immortal crystals!"

He was dazzled by the mountains of golden immortal crystals in the ring.

"One million, two million ... It's ten million now!"

He used his divine will to scan the small mountains and quickly counted them.

Then, every ten million would be piled into a mountain.

In the end, there were as many as 11 mountains like this.

" 110 million!"

Tang Hao smiled happily after he finished counting.

Even if it was calculated according to the price of 10000 per Dao attainment, he could buy 11000.

"I'll sell the goods first, then let the two girls advance, and then go buy the cultivation!"

Tang Hao dusted his hands, stood up, and went to Nantian city.

After he returned, he had the two girls summon the gate of heaven and successfully knock it open.

As soon as the immortal gate opened, people from the immortal court appeared. It was not the emissary from before, but the cultivator in charge of receiving Immortals from the lower realm. Those who became Immortals in the immortal realm were not under his control, but someone else.

This person was from the spirit Toad continent branch of the immortal court. As long as one advanced to the immortal realm in the spirit Toad continent, they would be under his control.

The process was similar to his previous one, he just had to go to the immortal court and register.

After becoming Immortals, the two girls were somewhat excited. They were in high spirits the entire way.

When they returned to the mountain, Tang Hao gave them the cultivation resources he had saved up earlier.

That unlucky Daoist Lusong had more than 4500 Dao attainment. He only refined 3000, and the remaining 1500 was given to them.

"This Dao! You can't find it in ordinary places because it's too rare. You can only find one or two shops selling it in those super big immortal cities."

"Wentian, those Chambers of Commerce in the vast ocean are also engaged in Dao trade. With their strength, they naturally have a lot of immortal slaves. However, the production of Dao slaves is very slow, so they are still very precious. President, if you want to buy them, you can go directly to the center of the spirit Toad continent, the spirit Toad Immortal City!"

"As the center of the spirit Toad continent, it is also the largest and most prosperous Immortal City. There are many headquarters of large merchant associations there, and many of them sell Dao attainment."

Tang Hao did not know where he could buy Dao attainment, so he asked the Changchun Taoist.

"Then let's go to the spirit Toad Immortal City to take a look!"

Tang Hao immediately set off for spirit Toad city.

He first rushed to the nearest city with a teleportation formation. Then, he took the teleportation formation and arrived at spirit Toad city in no time.

“What a huge Immortal City!”

Tang Hao looked around the teleportation Hall and was shocked.

After coming to the immortal world, he had been to many cities such as Yuan yang city, silver wall city, and Nantian city. These immortal cities were all quite large, but the spirit Toad city in front of him was dozens of times larger than those.

At a glance, it was filled with palaces and buildings, and one could not see the end.

The sky was filled with divine light and strange beasts.

There were Xuan birds, five-colored deers, and even strange beasts similar to Qilin. Their bodies were shining with divine light and were extremely powerful.

“This is a good place!”

“Amazing!” Tang Hao exclaimed as he looked around.

“Let’s go and buy some Dao attainment!”

He beckoned to the two girls behind him and walked forward.

“The shops of those big Chambers of Commerce must be in the city center!”

He walked all the way to the center.

No matter which Immortal City it was, the center was always the most prosperous place, and the largest Chamber of Commerce would be there.

“Hongtu, Wanhai, and Wentian ...”

When he arrived at the city center, he saw many familiar names.

“Let’s go to this one first!”

He couldn’t be bothered to pick, so he directly walked to the nearest ten thousand seas trade association.

After entering the shop, he didn’t rush to ask if he had any cultivation skills, but instead strolled around.

He had been to the Wanhai shop in Nantian city, but this one was different. It was the headquarters of the spirit Toad continent, the largest one. The number of products here was incomparable to the one in Nantian city.

He walked around with great interest.

As they strolled around, a loud shout suddenly came from the entrance.

“Shopkeeper, have you prepared the things that my divine wonder Palace wants?”

His voice was so loud that it spread throughout the entire floor. Tang Hao naturally heard him.

The mysterious Palace?

He frowned and looked at the door.

At the door stood a young man who looked a little familiar.

Tang Hao recognized the man. He was one of the disciples from the mysterious Palace he had met in silver wall city.

“We actually ran into each other here. I wonder if that guy is here?”

Tang Hao mumbled to himself.

The disciple at the entrance was long Xiaozi’s follower. His appearance here meant that long Xiaozi was most likely in the city.

“Who cares!”

Tang Hao shook his head. He did not mind.

Even if that guy was here, it would be fine.

Although that guy was a golden immortal disciple, his cultivation was only at the earth immortal realm, so he was not a threat to him.

Thus, he continued to stroll around with the two girls.

“They’re here! They’re here!”

At this moment, the shopkeeper came out of the shop with a Jade box in his hand. He looked very enthusiastic.

“Young hero, you’ve waited for a long time. This is the ancient dragon egg!”

When he reached the door, he handed the box over.

The disciple of the divine wonder Palace opened it, took a look at it, and nodded. “My senior brother has already paid for it, so I’ll take it!”

“Ah! Good! You’re welcome to visit again!”

The shopkeeper bowed slightly and said warmly.

The disciple of the divine wonder Palace kept the box and turned to leave.

But as soon as he turned around, he was stunned.

When he turned around, he caught a glimpse of a familiar figure.

“That’s right! It’s her!”

He turned around, took a closer look, and recognized it.

The woman not far away was one of the two beautiful maidservants he had seen in silver wall city.

“Since she’s here, that guy must be here too!”

He gritted his teeth and revealed a gloomy expression.

That day, that fellow had humiliated his senior brother Long Xiao and looked down on the divine wonders Palace. After that, they had lost him, and he had always been brooding over it. He didn’t expect to meet him here today.

“Hmph!”

He laughed sinisterly, then turned around and left quickly.
