

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3004

“We’re here!”

In the sky above a mountain range, a stream of light swept over.

When he got close, a green-robed figure appeared.

“Fellow Daoist, you’re here!”

Someone from the mountain below called out to him enthusiastically.

“They’re here!” The green-robed man responded and landed, but his expression was somewhat excited and expectant.

He had heard that the master had launched a new product.

He was master Haotian and the most loyal fan of the Haotian club. He had bought all the products, especially Qi Tian Tao and sexy underwear. He had bought them several times.

“What is it?”

He asked impatiently.

“Don’t worry!”

The agent laughed and said, “how can a master’s product be bad?”

“That’s true!”

The green-robed man nodded and revealed a look of admiration.

That master Haotian was truly an extraordinary person. He admired him from the bottom of his heart!

As long as it was made by a master, it would never be bad!

“The undergarments from last time were just a small test of the master’s skills. A few small sets of undergarments can’t even show 10% of the master’s skills. This time, the items are more powerful and can reflect the master’s true strength!”

The agent laughed.

“Oh! It’s that powerful?”

When the green-robed man heard this, he became even more excited.

“Come! I’ll let you see the master’s latest masterpiece!”

The agent flicked his sleeve, and a divine light flew out. It turned into a building that stretched across the sky.

“This is ...?”

The green-robed man looked up and was stunned.

This is ... A Palace?

No, this style was completely different from ordinary palaces. It was too strange. He had never seen such an architectural style before. At first glance, it was particularly simple and plain, completely different from the luxurious and magnificent style of ordinary palaces.

However, when he took a closer look, he realized that the building was not simple at all.

From the wall, the door, to the handle, and even the few spirit trees planted in front of the door, they were all very important.

“Is ... Is that a real Dragon Bone?”

“That’s a door made of immortal material? This was too extravagant! And that Pearl, could it be a Dragon’s Eye?”

The green-robed man couldn’t help but exclaim.

His eyes widened in shock.

He could see so many top-notch materials on the outside. What about the inside? Would it be just as luxurious?

Seeing his reaction, the agent couldn’t help but smile with pride.

“Come! I’ll take you in to have a look!”

He took the lead and flew up, landing in front of the door.

“Too luxurious! And this architectural style, even though I’ve never seen it before, it’s extremely Grand. The more I look at it, the more I like it!” The green-robed man followed. He looked around, and his eyes lit up.

The building in front of him was different from all the other buildings he had seen before. It was a brand new style.

The lines were very simple, and the decorations were also very simple, but at a glance, the overall atmosphere was extremely Grand and spectacular.

Such a design was simply an ultimate form of art!

He looked left and right and was amazed.

“Waa!”

When he pushed the door open and looked inside, he couldn't help but be stunned and couldn't help but exclaim.

Behind the door was a courtyard, followed by a few halls, all of which were made of gold and glass. The style was extremely gorgeous, and in the courtyard, the flower trees made it even more beautiful.

“It's so beautiful!”

He praised again.

“Hahaha! When I first saw him, I was just like you. Now you can see how powerful a master is!” The agent laughed.

“A master is indeed a master. He's brilliant!”

The green-robed man sighed.

“Let me tell you, this courtyard is not only beautiful, but it is also very powerful. There are layers of formations under the ground, including top-notch spirit gathering formations and top-notch defense formations. It is extremely safe.”

“I'll show you around. I'm sure you'll like it even more ... There are many rooms here. Some are for closed-door cultivation, some are for sleeping, there's a bath pool, a wine room, and even a herb garden and a beast garden ...”

“In short, whatever you can think of, we have it here. The configuration is also the best.”

The agent took the lead and strolled through the rooms one by one.

The more he looked, the more shocked the green-robed man was, and the more his heart burned.

He had his own residence, which was a traditional Palace. In the past, he didn't think much of it as long as he could live comfortably. But now, after looking at the building in front of him, he realized that he no longer looked up to those palaces.

Those palaces were too old!

But the one in front of him was so novel and fashionable.

He felt that living in such a place was the real life!

“Fellow Daoist, come and take a look at this bed. It's the latest invention of Grandmaster, and it's called a water bed. How is it? comfortable, right?”

The agent led him into the bedroom, pointed to the bed inside, and introduced him.

The Azure-robed man was stunned.

The bed inside was not only strange, soft and elastic, but it was also unbelievably large. Not to mention two or three, it could accommodate dozens of beds.

“Fellow Daoist, what do you think? Do you want it?”

In the end, the agent asked.

“I do like it, but I don’t think it’s cheap!”

The green-robed man said with a bitter smile.

This building looked simple, but it was actually very luxurious, and the materials used were very particular.

“That’s for sure. You’ve seen what materials they’re using! Even if you sell it at the cost price, it won’t be cheap.” The agent said, “however, you know the purpose of our Haotian club. We only make products that are affordable and touching.”

“The price of this Palace is 39999!”

“Thirty ... Thirty thousand?”

The green-robed man smacked his lips, and then his smile became even more bitter.

He was only a middle-stage human immortal. He had money to buy heaven-equal peaches and underwear, but he didn’t have 30 to 40 thousand Yuan.

“I’m fine! If you don’t have enough money, we can loan you a few thousand. You can take the palace away with a few thousand in advance, and you can pay the rest in decades, or even centuries.” The agent laughed.

“Think about it, even if it’s 40000 immortal crystals, you only need to pay 400 a year for 100 years. How simple is that?”

“Come! Look, this is the loan contract. You just have to sign it. This opportunity is not available to just anyone. Each agent only has two or three slots, and only high-quality customers like you can enjoy it.”

The agent chuckled and took out a Dao contract.

The Azure-robed man was somewhat moved by these words.

To divide it into a hundred years, it would only take less than four hundred a year. How easy!

After all, he was an immortal with a long life. A hundred years was nothing to him. It was just a snap of his fingers!

“I’m buying it!”

After he thought it through, he said decisively.

Then, he simply signed the Dao contract.

After paying with everything he had, he took the palace and left excitedly.
