

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3005

“Did you hear? the master has released a new product!”

“It’s not called the immortal court. It’s actually a Palace. However, the style is completely different. It’s very modern and fashionable, just like the underwear series. I think it’s time to break the tradition and lead a new trend!”

The atmosphere in the spirit Toad continent was a little lively.

It was because the Haotian faction had launched a new product.

This was Haotian club’s fifth product after the underwear series.

Just like the previous products, this one was different from the rest.

Most Immortals lived in palaces or cave abodes. They usually built or opened up their own abodes. Of course, cave abodes could be rented. Many immortal cities had cave abodes for rent.

There was no such thing on the market. Only mobile immortal’s caves and some Palace-type magic treasures were sold.

However, the difference between the two was huge. One was a magic treasure, while the other was specially used for living.

Therefore, this time, the Haotian club had launched a new product.

As soon as this product was launched, it caused a sensation.

The design of those immortal courtyards was extremely advanced, and they had many novel functions. The materials used were even more luxurious and extremely particular. It could be said that each immortal courtyard was a perfect piece of art.

After many people had seen it, they no longer looked at their own old and unsophisticated palaces.

The lowest price of these immortal Academies was close to 40000 Yuan, and the expensive ones could be as high as 70000 to 80000 Yuan. However, even such a price couldn’t stop the enthusiasm of the world, and they were all purchased in a few days.

Most of the buyers were celestial Immortals. To them, tens of thousands of Yuan was not very expensive.

If it was an earth level deity, he could also buy it if he gritted his teeth.

As for those at the human celestial stage, they could also buy one with a loan. However, there were only a few spots, so many human Celestials were fighting for it.

As the immortal Academy became popular, the Haotian Association's reputation also grew.

"Amazing! He's really amazing!"

Ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce, spirit Toad continent headquarters.

As usual, President Xu bought an immortal Academy the moment the product was released. He looked at it carefully and sighed.

He had thought that after setting the restrictions, Haotian club could only have three products. Even if it expanded, it would only become a medium-sized Chamber of Commerce at most.

However, he didn't expect that the Haotian club would launch a new type of underwear and become famous in the entire spirit Toad continent.

And now, this Celestial Academy was also launched, which was also popular.

"Why didn't I think of this ..." He muttered. Then he laughed bitterly and shook his head.

Such an idea was not something that ordinary people could think of.

Even if he had thought of it, his ten-thousand seas Chamber of Commerce might not be able to do it well, because the immortal Academy in front of him had completely broken the tradition. It was a great revolution in housing, and only a genius like master Haotian could do it.

"Let's not talk about the materials. I'm afraid there's no one else in this world who can do this design."

He mumbled, his face full of amazement.

He admired master Haotian even more now.

"If I had known earlier, I wouldn't have made things so awkward. Then I would have had the opportunity to visit master Haotian!" He sighed, feeling a little regretful.

Although he had a good relationship with the clear sky clan, he had once joined forces with a group of Chambers of Commerce in Nantian city to force them, and even threatened them. There was some resentment between them. Now that he wanted to visit, he was afraid that the master would not meet him.

Previously, when guild leader Shi came to buy his cultivation, he had also mentioned that he wanted to meet the Grandmaster, but he had been tactfully rejected.

"I can only wait!"

He sighed again, feeling deeply regretful.

"This immortal Academy is really unique!"

In the heaven seeking Pavilion, Feng Qingyan walked around the immortal court and sighed.

She really liked this immortal Academy in front of her.

“I heard that this immortal court is just like underwear. There are many different styles, but I only managed to get this one. It’s a pity. If I have the chance in the future, I’ll buy all of them as a collection.”

She muttered and sat down in the courtyard.

“What kind of person is that master?”

She held her cheeks and looked at the beautiful scenery in the courtyard, a little dazed.

“What? Did the Haotian faction release a new product?”

“He’s F * cking popular again?”

At this moment, in the middle of the spirit Toad continent, from the mountain Gate of the Palace of Wonder, there was an angry roar.

Long Xiaozi stood up from his Lotus seat, his face ashen.

Ever since he found out that this guy was the president of the clear sky Association, he would be extremely angry whenever he heard news about the clear sky Association, let alone good news.

The more glorious that guy was, the more unhappy he was.

“This guy ...”

Long Xiaozi gritted his teeth, his face extremely dark.

“Senior brother, I think that guy doesn’t have any great ability. He only created the Haotian Association by relying on that master. Without that master, he’s nothing. He’s just a nobody!”

The disciple said, “how can that nameless itinerant immortal be compared to a God’s favored son like you, senior brother? your strength and talent are enough to crush him! Why should you care about such people!”

Hearing this, long Xiaozi’s expression softened a little.

Indeed, that guy had only made a fortune by relying on master Haotian. His talent and strength were mediocre, so how could he compare with a golden immortal disciple like him?

If he were to make a move, that fellow would probably not be able to take a single move with his sacred art.

“I heard that the Haotian Association is recruiting people from all over the spirit Toad continent. They pay a lot of money and have recruited many celestial Immortals. Their strength can not be underestimated. If we attack the Haotian Association, I’m afraid it will cause a lot of trouble.”

He frowned and muttered to himself.

He had been paying attention to the Haotian faction’s movements all this time.

Although his mystical Palace was powerful and had a golden immortal overseeing it, he was not the only one with a golden immortal in the spirittoad continent. There were many others who could match his strength.

These forces were now keeping an eye on the Haotian Association. If the divine wonder Palace took action at this time and found trouble with the Haotian Association, it would undoubtedly push the Haotian Association into the arms of those forces, which would not be a good thing for the divine wonder Palace.

“Since I can’t deal with Haotian club, I’ll only deal with that guy. I can’t do it myself, but I still have many ways to deal with him!”

After pondering for a moment, he suddenly raised the corner of his lips and laughed coldly.

His face turned cold and ruthless.

“Go and contact the people of red dust. Tell them I have something to discuss with them.” He said to the disciple in front of the hall.

“Red dust?”

The disciple was shocked. This name was like a nightmare in the spirit Toad continent. It was a well-known assassin organization.
