

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3008

“Simple! It’s too easy!”

“Hahaha! You want to stop me with these lousy formations?”

The assassin, shadowless, laughed in his heart.

The formation under his feet was not activated. He walked over directly and was safe.

“Also! Good fellow, looks like he’s quite cautious. He’s set up quite a few formations himself!” Looking forward, he sensed the aura of a formation again. It was like a maze.

He wasn’t afraid at all and walked over directly, but he didn’t trigger it either.

Following that, a few more arrays appeared, one after another, causing him to be slightly surprised.

Most people would only need to set up three or four layers of formations, but this guy seemed to be particularly cautious and set up six layers. Moreover, there seemed to be the aura of a formation in front.

“What level is this? It seemed to be the ninth level! It was really like seeing a ghost! What’s with this guy? why did he set up so many formations? Is there a need to do this?”

As he continued walking, he was a little shocked!

F * ck!

Just how afraid of death was this guy? it wasn’t enough to have a celestial immortal formation outside, but he had also set up more than a dozen formations?

The further he walked, the more shocked he was.

The formations under his feet seemed endless. After each layer, there would be more. Furthermore, there were all kinds of formations. He couldn’t even sense what kind of formations they were, but their auras were all very terrifying.

“I really saw a ghost! Why is the aura of these formations so terrifying? they’re even more powerful than those celestial immortal formations?”

“Where did he get so many powerful formations?”

He was extremely puzzled.

“Twenty-one, twenty-two ... Thirty! Oh my God! This guy is a pervert! Who would set up more than thirty major formations in their own home for no reason?”

As he walked forward, he counted the layers of formations under his feet. Cold sweat was about to fall.

F * ck!

He was lucky to have an Immortal King rare treasure like the chaos essence gold fighting suit. If he didn't have it and forced his way in, he would have a hard time even with his mid-heaven immortal cultivation base.

"Beast, he's definitely a beast! He actually set up more than 50 formations!"

As he walked through more and more formations, he was completely shocked when he reached more than 90.

He stopped where he was and looked around in a daze.

He couldn't believe that there were more than 90 formations in this small mountain range!

"I'm afraid this guy won't be easy to deal with!"

He mumbled as his heart grew heavy.

Originally, he thought that this task was not difficult. As long as he sneaked in and waited for an opportunity to attack, he had a 70 to 80 percent chance of killing this mid-stage earth immortal.

But now, he realized that this guy's level of caution had reached an abnormal level. He had set up so many great formations, so he must have many life-saving means on him. It would not be so easy to kill him.

"Should I stop first and make a good plan? this way, I'll be more confident!"

He was a little hesitant.

He was truly shocked by so many great formations.

"Let's go in and take a look first. If we can find a good opportunity, we'll make a move tonight. If not, we'll come up with another plan!"

He thought for a moment and made a decision. He continued forward.

At the same time, in the main peak, Tang Hao was busy building an immortal's court.

Suddenly, he raised his head and looked up.

On the peak, a Golden Pearl was floating. It was slowly turning and shaking from time to time.

"My Dharma eyes have sensed something! Someone barged in?"

He frowned slightly and his expression became serious.

This Dharma Eye was refined by him using the Dharma Eye of the ancient divine beast, the spiritual puppet. He had refined all his Dharma eyes and divine eye techniques into this eye.

After the Haotian faction became famous, he placed the Dharma Eye on the peak to monitor the surroundings and detect any suspicious aura.

The Haotian faction's business was too popular, and it was hard to guarantee that no one would take the risk and force their way into his Dragon Mountain.

He had indeed warned them a few times before, but they were all fine.

"Let me see what's going on!"

He waved his hand, and the magical eye flew over and landed in his palm.

He held the Golden Eye in his hand and carefully examined it.

"No? Did he run away?"

After searching for a while, he did not find any suspicious traces or auras.

"He should have left!"

He muttered.

In this mountain, he had set up more than 100 arrays to prevent people from breaking in. Ordinary people would definitely leave after seeing this array.

At that moment, he was about to throw the Dharma Eye back to the peak.

However, at this moment, his Dharma Eye trembled again.

His expression changed slightly as he continued to investigate. However, he still did not find anything.

"That's weird! What's going on? it's coming and going ... This is the Dharma Eye of a divine beast spiritual puppet, and I've refined it. It can't be wrong. But what can escape the detection of my Dharma Eye?"

His brows furrowed tightly, and he was extremely bewildered.

The current situation was a little strange!

"Nothing again!"

"It's starting again!"

“The distance I can sense seems to be different. Could it be that someone has already entered the mountain, but I can’t sense anything? ‘How ... How is this possible?’ So many great formations ...”

After a while, he became more and more bewildered.

“He can’t be a golden immortal, right?”

He was shocked when he thought of this possibility.

With his current strength, how could he fight against a golden immortal?

But on second thought, if it was a golden immortal, who would sneak in? they could have just barged in.

Furthermore, even a golden immortal would not be able to sneak in without him noticing.

“I don’t know what their purpose is. Are they coming for me, Qi Tian Tao, or master Haotian?” He couldn’t figure out this person’s goal.

After pondering for a long time, he put on his Dharma Eye and left the hall.

At this time, the assassin shadowless just passed through the last formation and arrived at the mountain.

“Motherf * cker! The guy who set up these formations was definitely a freak! If he’s not a pervert, then who the hell set up more than 140 formations? he’s really a madman!” He turned around and cursed in his heart.

If he did not have the primordial gold warrior suit, he would have been dead by now.

“It must be that guy! When I find him, I’ll teach him a lesson!”

He snorted coldly in his heart, then turned around and headed up the mountain to find that Shi fellow.

“What?”

As soon as he turned around, he was dumbfounded. It just so happened that a figure flew out from the mountain. Judging from his appearance and aura, it was none other than the one surnamed Shi, the president of the clear sky Association!

“Hahaha! I didn’t even need to look for him, he came out on his own! It’ll save me a lot of trouble!”

He was overjoyed.

Immediately, he hid behind a rock on the side and began to keep a close eye on the figure.

He was waiting for an opportunity. Once that guy showed a flaw, it would be the time for him to make a move.
