

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3014

“Hahaha! That’s great!”

“This guy is dead!”

“He’s really an idiot. He actually issued a bounty. Isn’t this completely infuriating the mortal world? it’s hard for him not to die now!”

Long Xiaozi laughed out loud in the wondrous Palace.

He had been paying close attention to the news in Nantian city. As soon as the reward order was out, he knew it immediately.

He felt that red dust must have failed the first time he made a move. That guy must have overestimated himself and immediately issued a bounty to capture red dust’s people.

In his opinion, this guy was really too stupid!

He, a mere earth immortal, wanted to fight with the world of mortals?

They were a veteran assassin organization with many capable people. Even if you mobilized the entire spirit Toad continent, so what? that group was made up of assassins who appeared and disappeared unpredictably. They would always find an opportunity to make a move.

In short, this guy was definitely dead!

“Hahaha! You’ve brought this upon yourself!”

He laughed again, took out a pot of wine, poured a cup, and savored it.

Before long, there should be news of that fellow’s death. He could celebrate in advance.

At the red dust headquarters, the devil-masked man was also waiting.

He was confident in his killers, and it would not be long before good news came.

However, as he waited, he did not receive any good news. All he received was news asking for help.

Those assassins were being chased by groups of people and were fleeing in all directions. They were in a sorry state.

Every time he received a jade talisman like this, his eyes would Twitch.

He, an assassin of the red dust World, had never been in such a sorry state!

“It’s all that Shi guy’s fault!”

The hatred in his heart also grew stronger.

“No! That Shi guy is too strange, I can’t do anything to him!”

“I can’t even get close to that guy! I don’t know why, but my methods are completely useless against him!”

Every time he received such news, he would be shocked.

First, it was shadowless, then these people. All of them failed. Their god art couldn’t do anything to that guy. This ... Was too unbelievable!

Isn’t that Shi guy just a puny earth immortal?

Previously, he had just entered the early stage of the earth immortal realm. With his cultivation, how could he break the magical powers of the many assassins of the red dust World?

One must know that even celestial Immortals could not break so many divine powers!

What was this guy’s background?

When more and more such news came, he began to feel uneasy and wavered.

He had thought that someone would be able to kill that guy with his red dust killer’s supernatural power, but he didn’t expect that these people would fail one by one.

That man surnamed Shi was not what he had imagined. He was just an ordinary earth immortal.

As shadowless and the others said, this person was evil!

He was only an earth level deity, but he had great magical powers!

“No! I can’t hold on anymore! If this continues, someone will really die!”

“The people from the six Dao have joined in. They’re just adding insult to injury. They’re despicable and shameless!”

Soon, more news came.

He felt more and more worried.

The current situation was extremely disadvantageous to Hong Chen.

There were people who wanted to kill red dust assassins everywhere, and there were even enemies. They were also a group of powerful people, and they posed a great threat to them.

“Retreat!”

After hesitating for a long time, he finally made this difficult decision.

He really had no other choice. His assassination attempts had failed repeatedly, and his men were being hunted down everywhere. Although some of them were not in danger of losing their lives, they could expose their identities.

For assassins like them, once their identity was exposed, they would attract huge trouble.

The people he had dealt with in the past would all come looking for him.

“I, Hong Chen, will remember this grudge. Shi, I will make you pay for this sooner or later!”

He murmured hatefully, his eyes surging with monstrous killing intent.

Ever since the existence of the mortal world, no one had ever forced them to such an extent. This person with the surname Shi was the first, and will also be the last!

“Why is there no movement?”

Tang Hao quickly noticed the change in the situation.

During this time, he had been using his spirit truth Magic Eye to explore the surroundings. He could see that there were assassins constantly coming. Some of them had mysterious divine powers and could sneak up to him to attack him. However, most of the assassins were seen through as soon as they appeared and were chased away.

But now, he couldn't see the assassins coming.

There were still people leaving the crowd.

“They've retreated!”

After half a day, the situation was still the same. He was certain that red dust's people had temporarily retreated.

“He ran away? What red dust? even the most awesome assassin organization is only so-so!”

Monk golden light swept his gaze around and pursed his lips.

Daoist watermoon was stunned. He looked around in disbelief.

An assassin organization like red dust had actually given in and chosen to retreat?

This sounded a little unbelievable!

“Perhaps they're helpless!”

Suddenly, she smiled and turned to look at President Shi.

After a few days, President Shi's divine abilities had surprised her even more.

Sometimes, even she couldn't detect the traces of those assassins, but this person could discover them and even break through many powerful and mysterious divine abilities.

This made her even more convinced that this person had an extraordinary background.

She had never heard of such a powerful earth immortal in the spirit Toad continent. He might have come from another continent.

"I don't think they'll come, at least not for a while. Ask them to come with us to Nantian city and settle the bill!" Tang Hao said.

So far, there had been no news of red dust assassin being killed. At most, he had been injured. With his current wealth, he could still afford to pay the reward for these people.

"Red dust has run away!"

"Guild leader Shi has said that we'll go to Nantian city together. I've paid the bill!"

As soon as the news spread, the four parties immediately boiled over.

"Hahaha! What mortal world, it's nothing more than this!"

Many people sneered.

Originally, they had heard that red dust was the oldest assassin organization and was extremely powerful. But now, they had run away and didn't even hurt President Shi. It was really embarrassing!

"This President Shi is no ordinary person!"

"I've seen several powerful red dust assassins attack him, but they couldn't hurt him. They were all seen through!"

"This person can't be provoked! Not only is he powerful, but he's also very bold. If there's any Commission related to him in the future, we must never accept it, or else we'll end up like the red dust World today. "

The assassins hiding in the crowd all turned around and looked into the distance, their expressions somewhat shocked.

Although they didn't like Hong Chen, they had to admit that they had the most experts among them. They had all kinds of mysterious abilities, but even so, they still couldn't do anything to President Shi.

This was enough to show how extraordinary President Shi was.

Such a person must not be provoked!
