

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3018

“I think nine cloud Palace’s master Chao Yun has a higher chance of winning. I’ve just heard that he’s not an ordinary person! It’s famous in their continent!”

“I think so too. Nine cloud Palace’s craftsmanship is well-known in the entire immortal world. As for master Haotian, we don’t know where he came from. No one knows his true level.”

These days, people from all over the spirit Toad continent were discussing the same thing.

That was the competition between nine cloud Palace and Haotian faction!

This news had already shaken the entire spirit Toad continent and caused a heated discussion.

Most people still thought that nine cloud Palace had a higher chance of winning.

This was because the nine cloud Palace was extremely famous. The name of the nine clouds divine Thunder had been heard in the immortal world for thousands of years.

As for master Haotian, no one knew his background, let alone his true level.

The fact that he could create divine Thunder and a treasure like the immortal Academy meant that his level was quite high, but it did not necessarily mean that he was really better than the Masters of the nine cloud Palace.

The competition of craftsmanship wasn’t about a few treasures, but the overall standard.

Near Nantian city, it had been extremely lively for the past few days. The sky was filled with divine light, and there were countless of them.

At every moment, countless true immortals were rushing over from all directions.

Nantian city was full, so they had to wait outside.

“I think! Master Haotian was the best! I’m a loyal fan of master Hao Tian!”

“That’s right. Master Haotian is so good. He has invented so many good things that have benefited us. Those people from nine cloud Palace have gone too far!”

Among these people, there were also many loyal fans of the Haotian club who had come to support master Haotian!

Seven days passed by in a flash.

On this day, just as the sun rose, he saw a large ship approaching from the distance.

“It’s the people from the heaven seeking Pavilion!”

“They’re here!”

All the immortals in Nantian city looked over and shouted with excitement.

This time’s competition was hosted by the heaven seeking Pavilion.

The large ship slowed down as it neared.

In the next moment, a golden light flew out from it and instantly turned into a huge Palace, which stretched across the void.

Everyone on the ship stood up and flew toward the palace above.

“Everyone, you may enter the arena now. The competition will begin very soon!” A moment later, a loud shout came from the palace and spread in all directions.

When everyone heard this, they all rushed towards the palace.

In this Palace, there was a huge square, which was obviously the venue for the competition. Everyone rushed over there, found a good spot, and occupied it.

“Look at those people. They’re all famous figures in the path of crafts!”

“As expected of the heaven seeking Pavilion, the number one Chamber of Commerce. They have great power. Not only our spirit Toad continent, but they also invited many masters from other continents. It’s really a Grand gathering of craftsmanship!”

Everyone sat down and looked towards the center of the square. There, rows of seats were arranged and they were already filled with people. They all had extraordinary bearings and they recognized some of them as they were all famous craftsmen in spirit Toad continent.

“That’s Reverend Huo mo from the Huo mo cave, a late-stage heaven immortal expert. His craftsmanship has already reached the peak of perfection. The treasures he forged are already comparable to some gold immortal artifacts!”

“That’s perfected Qing ao from Qing ao Island. His craftsmanship is not low either. He can be ranked in the top 20 of our spirit Toad continent.”

The crowd pointed at the Masters and started discussing.

These people were not usually seen, but now they were all invited to sit together.

“How many years has it been since I’ve seen such a formation?”

Many people sighed.

In the spirit Toad continent’s tool world, such a Grand occasion had not appeared for many years.

“Look! It’s the people from nine cloud Palace!”

After waiting for more than an hour, a divine light swept over from not far away. Each of them had a majestic aura, and they were all heaven Immortals. When they got close, they even transformed into figures in purple lightning robes.

The arrival of these people instantly ignited the atmosphere of the entire square.

The surroundings became even noisier.

“What a big stance!”

Looking down, the leader of the group, Taoist master Chao Yun, frowned.

This lineup was a little too luxurious!

Was there a need to?

It was just a small competition with no suspense. Why did they need to invite so many masters of craftsmanship?

“He’s really making a mountain out of a molehill!”

He chuckled, flicked his sleeve heavily, and led the way down.

“Immortal, this way please!”

Feng Qingyan came up to them and led them to the center of the square.

“Daoist Chaoyun, long time no see!”

“Greetings, fellow Daoist!”

In the center of the square, a group of Masters of crafts also stood up and greeted perfected Yun.

Nine cloud Palace’s reputation was well-known in the path of crafts. Even if they did not know who it was, they had to be polite.

“Fellow Daoists!”

Perfected Chao Yun landed on the square and cupped his hands at them. He smiled and said, “everyone, you must judge fairly later. Don’t be biased just because of nine cloud Palace’s reputation. It will only damage nine cloud Palace’s reputation.”

“Naturally!”

“With Daoist Chao Yun’s strength, it’s a piece of cake for him to win this match. There’s no need for us to be biased!”

The craftsmen laughed.

They all had the same opinion about this competition.

They were well aware of fellow Daoist Chao Yun's attainments. He was very powerful. As for master Hao Tian, they didn't know his background or even his level. However, they were sure that he wouldn't surpass fellow Daoist Chao Yun.

This was because the Masters at this level were all famous and they knew them.

This master Hao Tian was indeed powerful, but he was not at their level. Hence, the result of this competition was obvious.

Taoist master Chao Yun exchanged pleasantries with the group of grandmasters, then came to the side and sat down.

Another half an hour later, another divine light came from the sky.

"They're here!"

Everyone in the square was excited.

The people of the clear sky Association had come!

At that moment, many people fixed their eyes on the divine light in the distance. Even Feng Qingyan couldn't help but stand up and look over with a burning gaze.

She had been waiting for this day for a long time.

However, she was a little disappointed when she saw him clearly because master Haotian was wearing a black robe. She could not see his face clearly because she could not see his face.

"It's fine, I've finally seen him!"

She consoled herself.

"My name is Qing Yan. Greetings, Grandmaster!"

Feng Qingyan stood up and walked up to him. When she got close, she bowed and greeted him respectfully.

When she raised her head, her beautiful eyes were even more heated.

"Greetings, guild leader Feng!"

Tang Hao nodded at her.

At this moment, he had naturally transformed into master Hao Tian, while his origin core avatar, after some disguise, had become President Shi.

Now that everyone's attention was on him, they naturally wouldn't investigate the clone, and he wouldn't be exposed.

"Master, please!"

Feng Qingyan turned to the side and said enthusiastically.

She led the people of the Haotian faction to land on the square.

With their arrival, the atmosphere in the square became more and more lively, and the noise shook the sky.
