

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3020

“This fire is too ordinary!”

“Why does Grandmaster know how to use this kind of fire?”

The crowd exclaimed in disbelief.

The fire in the Golden cauldron was too ordinary. How could master Haotian, a man with a net worth of more than 100 million, use such an ordinary fire?

“Hahaha!”

Master Chao Yun heard the exclamations from all directions. He looked over and was stunned.

Then, he laughed.

This guy’s brain must be damaged!

To compete with an expert like him, he actually dared to be so arrogant and use such an ordinary fire. Wasn’t this courting death?!

“Maybe this guy already knew that he couldn’t win, so he just used the worst fire. This way, he would have an excuse if he lost.” He sneered in his heart, and his expression became more relaxed.

Even if this guy used a powerful true fire, he wouldn’t be able to beat him, let alone such an ordinary fire.

He had easily won this round.

The next two rounds would also be the same. He wanted to win all three rounds and not leave this guy any face!

On the other side, Tang Hao did not pay attention to the exclamations from the crowd and continued to refine.

This golden cauldron was casually made by him, so he naturally used the most common fire in the immortal world. If he relied on this fire, he naturally couldn’t win against his opponent, but there was another mystery in this cauldron.

He had already hidden his great void divine furnace in the immortal cauldron, and its aura was perfectly concealed by the immortal cauldron.

He could just forge it openly and no one would discover the divine furnace inside.

He had revealed this divine furnace in the lower realm before. If it was exposed, it would definitely be discovered by someone with ulterior motives. That was why he thought of this move.

“Nine Heavens lightning fire? It’s a pretty good fire!”

He took a moment to look in front and praised.

In the lower realm, the genuine fire was the best fire. In the immortal world, many Immortals used genuine fire. However, some powerful figures, such as golden Immortals and zenith heaven Immortals, could further enhance the genuine fire with their extraordinary cultivation, or merge them to obtain more powerful flames.

This kind of flame was also known as an immortal flame.

There weren’t many types of Immortal Flames. It was said that there were only about 20 types in the entire immortal world, and the nine Heavens thunder fire was one of them.

“However, no matter how powerful you are, you can’t compare to my great void fire!”

He retracted his gaze and thought to himself.

How could the flame created by a mere golden immortal be more powerful than the fire of the great void God?

Moreover, this furnace was refined by the great void God.

He narrowed his eyes and controlled the divine furnace in the cauldron to refine it.

“Master Hao Tian, he ... What is he thinking?”

Feng Qingyan, who was standing at the side, furrowed her brows. She was also a little puzzled.

It wasn’t like master Hao Tian was broke. He could easily buy a cauldron ten times better than this one with some money.

“We’re going to lose this game!”

She sighed softly.

As time passed, the surroundings gradually calmed down.

There was no longer any suspense in this game.

How could he win against the nine Heavens thunder fire with such an ordinary fire?

Many people felt that master Hao Tian knew from the beginning that he had no chance of winning, so he didn’t have much hope. That was why he chose such an ordinary fire.

This greatly disappointed them.

They still wanted to see master Haotian's true strength through this competition!

Soon, six hours had passed.

"It's done!"

With a loud shout, master Chao Yun stood up with the immortal cauldron in his hand.

Everyone looked over and was not surprised.

This one was using an immortal flame, so he was naturally faster.

"Congratulations, fellow Daoist!"

The judges all stood up and congratulated him.

"What's there to congratulate? there's no point in winning such a competition!" He waved his hand and smiled while stroking his beard.

However, in the next moment, his expression froze, and his smile froze.

That was because he saw that the other party had also stood up. With the immortal cauldron in his hand, he said, "'I'm also done!"

"This ... How is this possible?"

Master Chao Yun was stunned and exclaimed.

He had just stood up, and this guy had followed suit. This was simply impossible!

Didn't this guy use the most ordinary fire? how could he have refined it at almost the same time as him?

Everyone was surprised.

In their opinion, this master Haotian should have spent more than two hours to refine it. How could he have gotten up so quickly?

"Fellow Daoist, have you really finished refining it?"

The judges were also suspicious.

They didn't believe that this person could be so fast.

"Of course!"

Tang Hao said.

“Does that count as done? He must have just opened the Phoenix essence gold! What about purification? Did you do it?” Master Chao Yun scoffed.

From his point of view, this guy had just refined the Phoenix marrow gold into a liquid, and this was not considered a good refinement at all.

This was because in the Dao of weapon refinement, refinement meant that not only did one have to dissolve it, but one also had to refine it for a while to remove the impurities and retain the essence. Only in this way could one obtain a pure and flawless piece of material.

“I’ve done it!”

Tang Hao said with a smile.

“I don’t believe it! How could you melt a top-grade material like the Phoenix marrow gold in such a short time with an ordinary fire?” Master Chao Yun shouted, “look at mine. It’s so pure and clear. It’s almost perfect!”

As he spoke, his mind moved. A piece of red metal flew out of the cauldron in front of him. It was in the shape of a regular prism.

“That’s right! It’s 99%. It’s already amazing to be able to do this in six hours. ”

The judges took the Phoenix marrow gold, gathered around it, and examined it carefully. Then, they all praised it.

“It’s also due to time constraints. If I had a few more hours, I could have slowly refined it and reached 100% completion. I could have made it truly perfect.” Master Chao Yun stroked his beard and said proudly.

“Al! What are you doing? it’s your turn, didn’t you say you’re done? Take it out and let us see!”

“Don’t tell me you’re afraid of losing face!”

Behind him, a group of heaven Immortals from nine cloud Palace looked forward and shouted.

Their faces were filled with mockery.

“Alright! Then I’ll let you see!”

Tang Hao raised a hand and gently patted the cauldron in front of him. With a buzz, the cauldron trembled, and a red divine light shot out of it.

The divine light floated in the air and gave off a shocking brilliance.

“This ... How could this be?”

Master Chao Yun looked at him and his body trembled as if he was struck by lightning.

His eyes couldn't help but widen, filled with shock and disbelief.

The Phoenix marrow gold in front of him was the same as his, pure and flawless. It was also close to ninety-nine percent!

However, that was impossible!

How did he do it with that ordinary fire?

Behind him, the group of nine cloud Palace's heaven Immortals were also stunned.

The mocking expression on their faces had long disappeared, leaving only shock.

"What's going on?"

"This is impossible!"

Everyone looked over and were stunned at first. Then, they exclaimed in shock, their faces full of disbelief.
