

The Mightiest Little Peasant Chapter 3025

"It's the immortal list!"

"Heavens! Even the immortals 'list was shocked! What quality is this immortal armor?"

Everyone in the square looked up at the sky, their faces filled with shock.

Their eyes were burning as they stared at the immortal armor.

First, it was the ninefold lightning, and then it shocked the immortals 'list!

It was enough to show that this immortal armor was extraordinary.

"The immortal list ... How is this possible?" he asked.

Taoist master Chao Yun also looked up at the sky, his face pale and his expression dazed.

His body swayed as if he was going to fall down at any moment.

The scene in front of them was too shocking!

This was the immortal list! Only the most powerful people or the best treasures in the world could shake it.

This weapon ranking had not been changed for thousands of years.

In the past thousand years, no blacksmith had been able to refine a treasure that could be listed on the board. Whether it was a magic weapon or an armor, none of them could be listed on the board. But today, this situation had been broken by this person.

Such an achievement was enough to shake the entire celestial world!

Regardless of whether he was really master Haotian, from today on, the name of Master Haotian would spread throughout the whole craftsmanship world, and even the whole immortal world.

"The immortal list! It's the immortal list ..."

Feng Qingyan stood at the side, her entire body trembling with excitement. Her fair face had even turned red.

She had expected that this master would be able to refine a Supreme-grade immortal armor, but she didn't expect that it was not just a Supreme-grade armor, but also a peerless treasure armor that could be listed on the list of Immortals and passed down through the ages!

"As expected of a master. He's amazing!"

She clenched her fists, her heart filled with excitement.

As far as she knew, there were seventy-two immortal armors on the armor List of the immortal list, and all of them were made by gold Immortals, each of which was a peerless treasure.

This master could actually refine a treasure that was listed on the list with his cultivation of true immortality. This had never happened in the immortal world since the ancient times.

It also proved that this master's skill level was high!

All of the Masters present were experts in the Dao of craftsmanship, but this person was even more so. He could be said to be at the peak of the Dao of craftsmanship, an unparalleled Supreme!

"The immortal list?"

Tang Hao was surprised when he first heard the name. He understood what it was after hearing the discussion from the crowd.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

The lightning continued to fall, and there were nine of them.

After the baptism of the Thunder tribulation, the light of the immortal armor in the air became more dazzling. Its momentum was like a majestic Swan, piercing through the sky. The powerful divine sense had been lingering in all directions. When the Thunder tribulation ended, it went to explore the immortal armor.

"This armor ... What's its name?"

Suddenly, a deep voice came from the sky. It contained endless majesty, as if it was the voice of the heavenly Dao.

Everyone's hearts trembled when they heard this.

Then, they all turned around and looked at master Haotian.

"Haotian!"

Tang Hao raised his head and said, word by word.

At the same time, he carefully retracted his aura and concealed the two treasures in his body.

Although he had heard from those people that only experts or the birth of treasures could trigger this list, it was better to be safe than sorry. If this thing could detect the two immortal Emperor-grade Supreme treasures in his body, then he would be in trouble.

"Haotian ..."

The voice murmured.

“This Haotian can be ranked 51st on the weapons and armor List!” After a while, he spoke again. His voice became loud and clear, like the ringing of a Bell, and it rolled out in the world.

At the same time, the shadow of a stone tablet appeared in the sky.

On the tablet, one could vaguely see rows of golden names.

On the fifty-first line, the words changed, revealing the three words “clear sky armor.”

“Fifty-one ... It’s actually fifty-one!”

“All the immortal armors on the list are gold immortal artifacts, but this vast heaven armor is ranked fifty-first. It’s incredible!”

In the square, a deafening clamor immediately broke out.

Everyone’s faces were filled with shock and disbelief.

He had thought that it would at most be ranked 71st or 72nd, but he had not expected it to be ranked 51st, surpassing more than 20 gold immortal artifacts!

” 51 ... How is that possible?”

That Taoist master Chao Yun’s figure swayed and he felt his head buzzing, turning blank.

This ranking was too frightening!

Even the few golden Immortals from nine cloud Palace could not reach such a height!

“What’s that?”

“It’s the immortal list! It seems like another powerful figure or treasure has appeared!”

At this moment, everyone in the immortal world could see the Golden stone tablet that had appeared in the sky.

“It’s the ranking of weapons. There’s a new immortal armor on the ranking. It’s called ... The vast heaven armor!”

“Good fellow! It’s directly shot up to 51st place!”

They took a closer look and became excited.

The ranking of weapons had not changed for thousands of years. Now, an immortal armor had appeared and the number of people on the ranking had increased to 51st. Which master was so powerful?

“Haotian ... Could it be master Haotian?”

On the spirit Toad continent, everyone was discussing excitedly.

They were both called Haotian, and the master was also good at refining weapons. Most importantly, the competition between nine cloud Palace and Haotian conference was today. It was definitely not a coincidence!

“He’s on the weapon ranking list. Master Hao Tian is too awesome!”

“I’m afraid that nine cloud Palace has lost badly!”

Although they could not find the time to go to Nantian city to watch the competition, they could infer the results of the competition from the fact that the clear sky armor was listed.

“Clear sky armor? Did that guy refine it?”

“Impossible! This is absolutely impossible!”

In the wondrous Palace, long Xiaozi stood in front of his own palace Hall. He raised his head to look at the eye-catching stone tablet in the sky and was dumbstruck.

He was still waiting for the good news from nine cloud Palace, but he did not expect the immortal list to come first!

The three dazzling words on the tablet were so striking to him that he could not believe it.

“How could it be like this!”

He came back to his senses and clenched his fists tightly, his face turning ashen.

That master Hao Tian had no reputation at all in the past. Although the things he refined were novel, they were all small things. He thought that his standard was just average and that he would not be a match for the Masters from nine cloud Palace.

However, he had never expected that he was a Supreme blacksmith who could be listed on the immortal list.

As soon as the list of Immortals was released, the Haotian faction’s reputation would become even greater, and he had no way to stop it.

“Motherf * cker!”

He cursed in a low voice.

If he hadn’t gone to the nine cloud Palace, there wouldn’t have been the list of Immortals, and the Haotian faction wouldn’t have become more famous. Speaking of which, he had helped the Haotian faction become more famous.

If that Shi guy knew about this, he would probably have to thank him!

When he thought of this, he was so angry that he almost vomited blood.
